STUDENTS MEET FACULTY IN CAMPAIGN BANQUET

WORK OUTLINED

Student Aid Offered Building Committee Through Senate Committee
—Suggestions and Plans Discussed—Student Org to Act on Committee Report

Last night, at Johnson's, a representative body of students met with the Church Campaign committee to talk over the part which the students can play in the campaign.

At the present time, about one-third of the total amount needed for the Church and Community House is at hand. The Community House is practically assured and campaigning for the funds for the Church is going on.

The need for a Church and Community House at Storrs has long been felt, but it was until last fall, when the Connecticut Federation of Churches took up the campaign and loaned Rev. Alling as Secretary of the campaign, that definite action became a reality.

Since the Storrs Church was without a pastor at the time, Rev. Alling was called to the pastorate here. The campaign is therefore being led by him in his dual, offices of pastor of the Church and Secretary of the Connecticut Federation of Churches.

About two weeks ago a committee from the Student Senate, headed by George Warre, went to Rev. Alling and offered the aid of the students in this campaign. The Church was grateful for this offer and as a result of several conferences arranged last night's meeting.

After a supper, several speeches were made by members of both the Church committee and the student committee. These outlined the work that has already been carried on, and what can be done by the students.

About forty-five members of the student body were present, together with several members of the faculty.

The faculty spokesmen merely suggested what could be done, feeling that whatever the students could do should be spontaneous, as the initial offer of aid. After the project was explained and laid before the students by President Beach, it was further reviewed and outlined by Rev. Alling and Mr. White. Other remarks were then made by Clemens Diemand of the Student Senate and Mr. L. A. Alexander and Mr. W. W. Wisties of the faculty. The suggestions and plans were generally discussed and will probably be referred back to the Student Org and laid before them at the next meeting.

COLEGGE RADIO STATION INCREASES VOLUME

AMESATEUR TELEGRAPHY

Games to be Broadcasted—Department Working to Get Real Radio Service for Armory—Foreign Communications Made.

That C. A. C. is advancing in the radio line as well as in other phases of its work, is shown by the announcement that during Easter vacation there will be installed here a high-powered broadcasting station with a new transmitter. All the equipment has arrived from the General Electric Company for the complete remodeling of the present station, and work will be started in the near future. As soon as this new station goes on the air, an extensive program will be sent out three times a week, every Monday, Wednesday and Friday. Also the home baseball games will be broadcasted, play by play.

With these new facilities as much student talent as is available on the Hill will be used. Mr. Noble, head of the Radio Department, hopes that the Dramatic Club will become interested in broadcasting plays and that the Glee Club will also put on entertainments. It is evident there are great possibilities in this line ahead of us. A glance at the program for last Wednesday night shows what is being done with the present equipment, when the Masonic quartet of Stafford Springs, and an orchestra from West Willington were broadcasting.

With the new station installed, WBBL will be on a par with any station in the country.

Another important advance is the work the students have been doing in connection with short wave radiotelegraphy. Almost every night this station is in communication with amateurs on a wave length of 80 meters. Our amateur transmitting station, 1DKL, has just recently been established in both Alabama, Austin, Texas, and Cuba. Also our signals were reported received with good volume in California. As well as hearing stations all over the country, our receiving sets has been in touch with stations in Belgium, England, France, Holland, Denmark, Italy and Mexico. It is expected that we will soon be able to communicate with other foreign stations.

Following the custom established last year, the Campus next week will be a Co-ed Issue, edited exclusively by the co-eds.

The girls have a complete week ahead of work, and present indications are that they have a real boost in store for you.

Don't miss it!

Music for the exercises will be furnished by Armand Bulbulian, violinist, and Mrs. M. J. Farrell, pianist.

HONOR LIST CONTAINS SEVENTY-FOUR NAMES

Seniors Lead in Highest Class Percentage—List Divided into First and Second Honor Grades—Freshman Rank Third in Percentage

The Honor List for the second semester released by the Secretary's office contains a total of seventy-four names. The seniors head the list with 25 percent of their class represented. The sophomores follow with 15 percent; the freshmen are third with 11 percent; and the juniors foot the line (cont. on page 5, col. 1)

On Friday, April 3, the colorful climax to the second annual co-ed week will come in the form of the Co-ed Formal, the music for which will be supplied by John Cavaliero, and his seven syncopated note tappers. Subdued lighting for the eighteen dance program will be a mere incidental to the many features promised for this unique dance.

The Girls' Social Committee, under whose direction the dance is given, will transform the interior of Haskell Armory by means of a novel color scheme of yellow and orange. This will be extended to the boxes, to the stage occupied by the orchestra, to the toy balloons, and finally will be carried out in the form of orange ices and yellow candles served during the intermission.

The Girls' Social Committee will lead the grand march to start at 8:00 o'clock. They will be followed by the two upper and lower classes in their order of rank. The classes will join the march as it passes the two long boxes in which they are sitting. The seniors and juniors emerging from one side, and the freshmen and seniors from the other side.

The patrons for the occasion will be members of the Home Economics faculty. They will greet the line of march as it passes the sophomore-senior box, in which they are to sit.

Four moonlights made pale by the aid of a varied-colored spotlight, will add a romantic touch to the program. The dance itself will last until two o'clock, following closely the custom of all formal dances on the Hill.

On Saturday night the Glee Club will close the gala week with a musical cale. This will take the place of the usual play. A dance will follow the musical, the music for which will be supplied by a well-known and popular orchestra. Tickets for the concert are now on sale, and an early reservation of space is urged.

The concert as arranged includes a soloist, an old-fashioned dance, and a unique rendition of some of the popular songs. To add to the effectiveness of the concert, the stage is to be pleasingly decorated in colors to harmonize with those used on the previous night.

IF THE CAP FITS—

There is a group of students at this college who have no interest in their welfare. We are not alone in this. Large universities are afflicted in the same way, but they are never seriously handicapped by such a condition. At a small college, however, every man must do his share, small though it may be. If we are unfor­tunate enough to have some fellows who hang back when we come to a hard pull, then the rest of us must shoulder the extra burden.

We Aggies have plenty of room for accommodation of the average of the students, many of them with plenty of ability and pep when once aroused, are apparently not breaking their necks in this matter of pulling for C. A. C. Some have done one thing but have forgotten about another. If studies are poor, get down and do some real gridding. If an activity let's show some real speed. If we haven't paid our class dues, let's pay 'em. If we are called upon to help in any little capacity, let us go to it with a cheerful vim.

A lot of men get into a sort of collegiate rut and fail to move out of it as time flies and the years pile up. Do you want so to drift along or junior year what you can do right now. This is a lagging part of the year, but do not let the "bank" monopolize your time. Blossom out, brothers; Spring is here! Hear the birdsie.

Remember the two kinds of leaders that we have in this old world. There's one who stands out, alone, at the head of the mob, and says, "Come on!" The other gets right in the press, and when the proper time comes, he says, "Let's go." Who are you going to be? The one with the "come on" stuff, or the one with the push that sends it over? Think this over, and then "Let's go!"

THE COMMUNITY HOUSE AND CHURCH CAMPAIGN

The Student Senate recently asked Reverend Alling what the students could do to cooperate in the campaign for funds which will be used to build a Community House and Church. We have a dire need of both these build­ings and the student body, who feel that these two buildings will be the ones to anxious to find a way in which student help might be used. The meeting between the trustees, Rev. Alling, President Beach, and others, with the students Thursday night will bring forth, we hope, some practical plan for rousing student aid. The need of both these buildings is obvious, therefore the church should give call for whole-hearted support in this worthy purpose is also obvious.

REGISTRAR ANNOUNCES HICKS PRIZE TOPICS

Choice of Forty-one Subjects Varied and Interesting-Price Established to Aid English Composition-Awards Given Out at Commencement

The Registrar has issued this week the topics and the rules governing the Ratcliffe Hicks Essay Prize Contest. The list of forty-one topics, ranging from "The Feeding of the Chal­lees," to "Cross-word Puzzles as a Pathetic Revelation," give a wide choice of varied and interesting subjects, which cover practically every field of interest to the student. This contest was established thru the generosity of Ratcliffe Hicks of Tolland, who in 1894 left the sum of accurate:

CAMPUS PHILOSOPHER

Greater love for a college hath no man than this: that he give unselfish service without material reward.

C. P. begets that announcement that he made two slight technical errors in his recent article casually announc­ing the birth of a new honor—a fra­ternity. The announcement stated that "Only those shall be eligible who have been jilted at least once and have more than three women on the string." On the contrary, the con­stitution of this "Honorary Society" for those collegians who have won distinction as "closed lice" and espe­cially as "Lady Killers," emphatically states that "Only those shall be elig­ible who have jilted at least one member of the fair sex, and at the time of their election to this fra­ternity, they must have at least two women on the string."

The C. P. had it wrong about the "jilting" part. He still believes that the society should have it for those fellows who have done to women what they have done to men. These fellows really need a society of this kind—for mutual sympathy.

C. P.

The Joe Cool's who are naturally endowed with a shiellish personality need no society—they are a society in themselves.

C. P.

We might have to co-eds vote the membership in this society. However this would bar the gentleman from the Storrs Navy and the backbone of the Romantic Movement would fall through.

PICTORIAL FOLDER OF COLLEGE PUBLISHED

Louis A. Alexander, Alumni Secre­tary, has recently published for the Alumni Association, a folder of pict­ures of the College, primarily for use with new students who are inter­ested in our work but who have never been on the Hill. The folder is most attractive and will prove of interest to all, and especially to alumni who cannot often come back for a visit.

Plans have now been completed for the Alpha Phi fraternity dance to be held at the Hotel Bond in Hart­ford, the Tuesday night after Easter, April 14.

ECHOES OF THE ECLIPSE

Professor Frederick Slonech of the Van Vleck Observatory, Wesleyan University, gave an illustrated lec­ture on the eclipse before the mem­bers of the Faculty Club on Monday evening. Wesleyan was the center of interest of astronomers during the eclipse, owing both to its position and equipment. The results have not yet been worked out in full but the observations taken have solved the question of the shadow bands, and have given further information on the movements of the moon.

BASEBALL CANDIDATES WORKOUT ON DIAMOND

SCRAMBLE FOR POSITIONS

Practice Game Between Varsity and Fresh Squads Sees Many Shifts—

Baseball candidates received their first outdoor workout last Saturday, when Coach Dole held practice for the entire squad on Gardner Dow Field. The condition of the diamond has improved considerably with the good weather of the past two weeks, and the squad will work out of doors from now on.

A short practice game was held between two pick-up teams of varsity and freshman candidates Saturday afternoon. Coaches Dole and Alexander made numerous shifts in their respective lineups, giving all the candidates an opportunity to display their wares.

With less than a month remaining before the opening contest with Brown at Providence, Coach Dole will work his men at top speed from now on to have them ready for the Bruins. His squad is large at the present time, but it is expected that a cut will be made within the next week or ten days, after which the drill will be conducted on a more intensive plan.

In Saturday's workout Dole used Makofski and Radomski in the box, with Gilbert on the receiving end. Although Makofski has never done any pitching in the past for Connecticut, his work to date gives promise, and it is hoped that he may make a valuable addition to Coach Dole's none too plentiful corps of twirlers.

He has plenty of steam, and the fact that Dole will be able to use him as a fielder will add to his value to the team.

Kramer played first base, Yardley covered second, Swem held down the hot corner, and O'Brien played short. Ajello and Tierman and Seymour played the outfield positions.

Coach Dole made several shifts in the lineup, but this was the one that was used the most.

In practice this week, Dole has used Wells and Radomski, in addition to the two pitchers already mentioned. Balsick and Wardle have been used to do some of the catching. Other changes from the line-up used Saturday placed Schofield at first base, Kramer in the outfield, Makofski in the outfield, and Swem at second base. Captain Ahearn will fill his old position at third base.

CO-ED NOTES

SECOND ANNUAL CO-ED CAMPUS NEXT WEEK

The Second Annual Co-ed Issue of the Campus will be published next week. Miss Irene M. Cooks, '25, the editor-in-chief, assures that it will be a "humdinger". You will be unable to refrain from laughing at the Campus Klips; you are going to behold the superiority of Co-ed philosophy; you are going to consider yourself fortunate that you have a bid to that Formal that you will read about; and you are going to realize that the Co-eds can put out a fine paper.

The Co-ed board will do its best to amuse and please everyone. Pauline Graf, '25, will assist as associate editor and Phyllis Smith, '26, as managing editor. The following girls will complete the staff:

W. H. Hasleur Monethei Guest at Informal Tea

Painting to be Presented—Talk on Art and Painting a Feature.

Mr. W. H. Hasleur of the Solomon Grundy Club of New York, will be entertained at an informal tea under the auspices of the Monethei Art Society on Saturday, March 28, from 3 to 6 o'clock. Dr. H. K. Denlinger's keen interest in the society, as well as his friendship with the noted painter made it possible for the girls to enjoy this treat.

Mr. Hasleur will talk on art and painting, and to illustrate some of his points, he will paint a picture. Because of his interest in the Monethei Art Society and his sympathy for the purpose it is trying to accomplish, he will present the girls with one of his own pictures. This picture will be an important step toward what the society hopes to do and it will be highly valued by the girls.

Miss Sallie Croll, as chairman of the committee, with Miss Irene Ellis and Miss Mary Cooper assisting her, has completed her arrangements for the tea.

This Co-ed Week is getting to be some stunts—and most agreeable to the men students too.

SENIORS ENTERTAIN AT AFTERNOON TEA

Practice House was the scene last week of the first tea to be given this year by the senior co-eds in training there.

On Friday afternoon, March 20, seven senior girls acted as hostesses to a throng of Juniors and Sophomores who visited "the house across the way" between the hours of three and five. Miss Pauline Giraud and Miss Coral Lavallie poured.

Among the faculty present were Miss M. E. Sprague, Mrs. G. I. Hendrickson, Miss E. J. Rose, Miss M. G. Lundberg and Miss E. B. Hamilton.

The tea was acclaimed a success by all, and plans are being formulated for others to take place later in the year, to which the other classes will be invited.

PRACTICE HOUSE SUPPER TO FACULTY AND SENIORS

A buffet supper for the Home Economics faculty, resident extension women and senior girls will be given at Practice House on Friday evening, March 27.

Elaborate decorations have been planned and will be worked out in a color scheme of pink and lavender by Mr. Patch's class in Floriculture. The menu is as follows:

| Creamed Shrimp and Peas in Timballo Cases |
| Cabbage and Pimento Salad                     |
| Nutbread Sandwiches                           |
| Strawberry Mousse with Sponge Cake Cafe Noir |

ALPHA PHI WINS ANNUAL POOL TOURNAMENT

E. A. Speers, '26, Again Claims the Championship—P. J. McCarron, '25, Runner-up—Close Match Characterizes Final Match.

After a close and difficult game, E. A. Speers, '26, won the Interfraternity pool championship for the Alpha Phi. This is the second year that he has achieved this honor for his fraternity. P. J. McCarron of the Phi Mu Delta was runner-up. The final game was thrilling throughout, neither player succeeding in obtaining any margin over the other. When the players changed tables, the score stood 50—46 in favor of Speers. During the second half the lead changed hands often. The intense spirit of the contest was reflected in the actions of the spectators. They were quiet and attentive, only now and then applauding a spectacular shot. Gradually Speers made it more difficult for McCarron to get a lead, and the game ended with Speers at the long end of a 100—92 score. This final game was by far the best played and the most interesting of the series.
