CONNECTICUT DAY WORK CENTERED ON A. A. FIELD

CO-EDS SUPPLY EATS TO FAMISHED WORKERS

Students and Faculty Unite for Day's Labor—Prof. Alexander Visits Field—Many Teams Kept Busy by En-ergetic Workers—Job Nearimg Completion.

Work on the new athletic field was brought near to a finish by the concentrated efforts of the student body and faculty on Connecticut Day last Tuesday. Nine teams of horses and two teams of oxen were kept busy moving soil in the work of leveling the field.

With the work of laying the drains in the field completed last week, the big job remaining was to level and grade the new field. So when the bell rang to commence work Tuesday morning, the students reported to their posts armed with shovels, picks, rakes, and axes, ready for the big day. Coach Sumner Dole and Professor Manchester supervised the shoveling gangs in the loading of the wagons at the south end of the field, while Professors Holister and Lamson directed the work of filling and grading the north end of the field.

Prof. Moss led the work of clearing away trees and stumps at the south end of the plot. The faculty had a good representation in the work of the day, twenty-four of their number being present on the field. As for the students, of approximately 540 expected on the field only eight failed to show up, and some of these had good reason for being absent.

The work of shoveling went on in the usual manner in the morning with the exception of the advent of the co-eds' "eats" at 10:30, which gave many a brave but worn "Aggie" the stamina and courage to finish out the morning. After liberal helpings of sandwiches, doughnuts and coffee, work was easy. After dinner the ground was ploughed prior to the shoveling.

Prof. Warner, an Aggie booster who has been confined ill for nearly a year was able to visit the scene of labor for a short time during the morning.

Even the College Barber couldn't resist the urge to work on the job with the students, so he set up his shop and turned out with the gang moving stones.

JUNIOR PARADE AND BASEBALL GAME OPENED JUNIOR WEEK FESTIVITIES

FLORAL HORSESHOE PRESENTED CAPTAIN AHERN

Annual Junior-Senior Banquet Held Last Night—Competitive Drill Shows Cadets in Action—R. I. Game and Track This Afternoon.

The festivities centered about the Junior Promenade got off to an auspicious start the first afternoon when the class was made up in the annual Junior Parade. The juniors assembled in the Armory just previous to the Clark game, and then marched to the field by Professor Ahern with Miss Hildur Scholander, class secretary. After the parade, on behalf of the class, Miss Scholander presented Captain "Jake" Murray with a floral horseshoe, thus carrying out the tradition set down by former junior classes. The class then sat as a group in the grandstand and witnessed the Clark game. The juniors made a pleasing appearance, the men being attired in gray flannels and dark coats, while the girls wore dresses of green and white.

Last evening the seniors were the guests of the class of 1926 at the Junior-Senior Banquet held in the Dining Hall. The banquet was the occasion for the forgetting of the rivalry that has existed between the two classes for the past three years; for it was the last time that the two classes met together as a body. Both classes were in a gala mood, but the feelings of the two slightly differed. While both classes gave expression to joy, the seniors perhaps felt a little tingling of sadness with thoughts of the approaching time which is to mark the close of their undergraduate days. The evening also called for speeches from class officers and class advisors.

This morning the Connecticut R. O. T. C. battalion made its appearance for the competitive drill which is held each year as part of the Junior Week activities. Prom guests were given the opportunity of witnessing Connecticut's cadets in action", for the drill consisted of company, platoon and squad competition. Prizes were awarded the different participants making the best appearance, the best company being presented with the Amory cup. The winning platoon was awarded a cup given by Captain Crim. The sophomore making the best appearance as a squad leader was the recipient of a silver medal, and the freshman who showed himself best drilled in the school of the soldier was presented with a bronze medal. The Judges of the competitive drill were officers of R.O.T.C. units in other colleges.

This afternoon the program will consist of the baseball game with Rhode Island State College, and a real battle is promised when the rival nine of the two colleges meet. Immediately following the game, "Steve" Daly's tracksters will oppose New Hampshire in the second and last meet of the season. The gala event of the week will be this evening when the Promenade will be held in the Armory.

The planting of the class tree and the distribution of the "Natmeg" is scheduled for tomorrow morning. In the afternoon the ten dance given by the junior girls will be held in the Armory two from until four standard time. Music for the dance will again be rendered by "Johnny" Cavallero and his orchestra. The concluding event of the week will occur Saturday evening when the three act play, "Expressing Willie", will be given by the junior class. A dance will again follow the play.

JUNIOR PROM TONIGHT CLIMAXES COLORFUL WEEK

CAVALLERO'S NOTE TOSSES—ERS PLAY FOR EVENT

Mr. L. J. Quigley, '26, and Miss L. M. North to Lead Grand March— Hawley Armory a backdrop by New Color Scheme—Druids to Ap-pear.

The climax of Junior Week will be reached tonight when at eight-thirty, standard time, John Cavallero and his renowned team of note-tossers will step up to the center for regular march of the Junior Prom, the gayest and most colorful event of the college year.

The decorating committee has transformed the Armory into a veritable fairyland, and a novel uniform color scheme for the overhead and the fraternity box decorations has been carried out. The background will be purple with a bouquet of violet, which will be adorned with silhouettes of beautiful dancing maidens flitting hither and thither.

Mr. Lewis J. Quigley, '26, chairman of the Prom committee, and Miss Lillian M. North of Bridgeport, will lead the faultlessly attired Aggies with their partners to the receiving line where they will be greeted by the patrons and patronesses.

An added touch of interest will be given the Junior-Senior Prom by the appearance of the seven members of the Druids, the secret senior so-ciety, who will reveal their identity for the first time by a red band of ribbon worn diagonally across the chest. Sometime during the Prom, they will secretly tap the seven Juniors who have been the leaders of their class and worked the hardest for Connecticut.

The following will attend the Prom: Phi Epsilon Pi Joe Rabb with Miss Dorothy Ross, Brooklyn, N. Y.; Sidney Lewis with Miss Rosemond Glazer, New Haven; Martin O'Neill with Miss Theda Bara, New Britain; Archibald Mann with Miss Dorothy Halpert, Hartford, Mass.; Irving Siler with Miss Lilian Hertz, New Haven; Leon S. Kaplan with Miss Minnie Glass, Brooklyn, N. Y.; Alvin Marcus with Miss Martha Tobasco, Hartford; Saul Ginesky with Miss Flora Kaplan, Hartford; Sam Aaron with Miss Sue Gold, New Haven; Leo Cohen with Miss Ethel Ullman, New Haven; Sam Frieden-berg with Miss Bertha Herman, New (Cont. on page 3 col. 1)
A RAW DEAL

The recent action of the Social Committee restricting the amount charged for the three one act plays last Saturday night has met with current disagreement. Twenty cents is often all the movies are worth but the admirable program which the State College Players put on should have brought in a trifle higher stipend. The Dramatic Club spent much more time on this last

THE RED OWL HOOTS AT LAST

The spell which the Red Owl has cast over the campus so effectively for the past few weeks has finally ended. On Saturday, December 9, this wise old bird stalked forth in all its glory, and held the three hundred people who had gathered in Hawley Armory in breathless suspense.

"The Red Owl", by William Gillette, one of the three one-act plays presented by the State College Players, is a melodrama of high repute. During the entire play we are held in anxious anticipation of some dreadful calamity, and in the finale, we settle back to a very satisfactory and happy ending. The last was vouched for by L. Richard Belden, '27, as Herbert Brandt; Miss Phyllis Smith, '26, as Dorothy Brandt; Albert Galvin, '27, as Edward Vedder; Lawrence Smith, '28, as Charles, the butler; and Ralph Billip, '27, the policeman.

"Moonshine", by Arthur Hopkins, afforded the audience not a little entertainment. Martin O'Nell, '25, as Luke Hazy, the Moonshiner, and Winthrop Tilley, as Jim Dunn, the Revenoo Officer, played their parts very well. The play deals with the very ingenious escape ofJim Dunn, who is greatly sought by the Moonshiners. It is accomplished by the invention of a very interesting tale on the part of the Revenoo Officer when he realizes that Lake does not know that he is the man they are so anxious to

The third of the plays, "Spring," by Colin Campbell Cawley, was the climax of the evening. The setting was unusually attractive, showing a small town. The role of the principal character was exquisitely played. Mr. Albert Ahern, the Gob, finds Miss Lily Larsen, the Skirt, on a bench in the park. In the course of the conversation which ensues, the Skirt finds that the Gob is a poet and is greatly inspired. When music is heard from a nearby dance hall, the two, after counting up the sum total of cash between them, leave for the dance. Rudolph Billip, '27, the Cop, who had patrolled the park before the arrival of the Skirt and Prince Sylvester, was not to be seen by the Skirt and Prince Sylvester, was not to be seen by the Skirt. However, there is no one around to intrude on his privacy, reaches to his hip pocket and carefully draws out a copy of the Waterloo, which he proceeds to read.

The three plays were coached by Professor Howard A. Seckerson, of the English Department, who is at the head of the Little Theatre work here. The stage management, including the lighting effects, were arranged by Mr. Winthrop Tilley, of the English Department and Mr. Earl Hodge.

AGGIES PLACE FIFTH AT INTERCOLLEGIATES

SPRINGFIELD WINS

Captain Jacoby Wins Two-Mile Run for Third Successive Year, Breaking Record for Eastern Intercollegiates—Johnson Second in the High Jump

In the seventh annual track meet held at Pratt Field, Springfield, last Saturday, the Springfield College won a decisive victory while Connecticut placed fifth with nine colleges competing. The Aggies placed in four events, taking a first, two seconds and a third.

Captain Jacoby, the Blue and White captain, ran a brilliant race in the two mile. When he led the field to the tape by 150 yards, he set up a unique record in that it made the third successive year that the lanky Aggie has won this race. In 1922 as a freshman Jake placed second but in 1923, 1924 and this year he placed first, and Saturday his time of 9 min. 56 sec. set up a new record for the two mile in the Eastern Intercollegiates. The former record held by Eldridges of Springfield, was 10 min. 15 sec.

Johnson took second in the 120 high hurdles, after what looked like a dead heat. He won this race last year and first place was expected by the Aggies but he was beaten out by inches.

Longo, a promising weight man, took second place in the sixteen pound-shot-put. The distance was 58 feet 8 inches, while Longo made a throw of 38 feet 6 inches, only 2 1-2 inches less than Mor of Springfield, who took first place.

Smith the fourth man to place for Connecticut took a fourth place in the quarter mile.

Both Jacoby and Johnson, who have been consistent point getters for Connecticut at the Eastern Intercollegiates during the past four years, will receive their sheep-skins this June.

Other colleges competing and their respective positions are as follows:

- Springfield: 64 1-2
- Northeastern 30 1-2
- Mass. Aaggie 25
- Vermont 17
- Connecticut 12
- Worcester Tech. 11
- Tafts 3, Trinity 1, Norwich 1.

PHYSICAL DIRECTORS DEFEAT CONNECTICUT

SCORE 6-2

After leading by a one run margin for six innings at Springfield last Tuesday, the Aggies let up and allowed the Springfield College nine to come from behind and win a fast game of baseball by the score of 6-2.

Tiernan, pitching for Connecticut, held the Physical Directors in the palm of his hand for six innings, but bunched hits and Aggie misplays in this frame allowed the Directors back to the game. They added two runs apiece in the seventh and eighth innings also.

The Aggies put over one run in the seventh inning with the aid of a lone single and this run began to look large as the innings progressed and Springfield continued to have trouble hitting Nanfeldt. The Aggie batteries were having as much trouble in hitting the Springfield, the Physical Directors pitcher, who yielded but four hits. Tiernan, Connecticut's sophomore center fielder, connected for a home run, as did Berry and Mahlken of Springfield.

Berry, a former member of the Aggies, contributed much to the downfall of his former teammates. He made a single, double and a home run, besides playing brilliantly on the defense.

CONNECICUT'S FIRST WIN

DOLE'S BALL TOSSES EASILY TROUNCE TRINITY

Wells Pitched Stellar Ball—Wardle and Schofield Get Triples—McNiff, Trinity Pitcher, Passes Many Men—Gets Poor Support.

The Connecticut Aggies registered their first baseball triumph of the season when they walloped Trinity 9-1 at Storrs on May 6. The game was marred by errors, Trinity being responsible for nine errors while the Aggies made six.

Connecticut started the scoring in the first inning when O'Brien walked, stole second and scored when Eberle of Trinity threw wild over third. In the third inning the Aggies scored two runs on Wardle's triple and Schofield's single which was stretched into a home run when Burr let the ball go thru his legs.

McNeil, the Trinity pitcher, was liberal with passes during his sojourn on the mound, issuing six to the Aggies. His support was very bad and the Aggies had no difficulty in adding to the score. Trinity scored their only run in the third inning when with two out, Cronin singled, stole second and went to third on Newsholme's single. He scored on Gilbert's passed ball.

In the fifth, Connecticut increased its score by Schofield's triple and a couple of Trinity errors. Three more runs were added in the sixth. Gilbert walked, Wells was safe on Orrick's error, and Billy O'Brien cleared the bases with a long triple. He scored on Makowski's three base hit a few moments later.

Masnardeau was then put in by Coach Becker in place of McNiff and the Aggies did not score during the remainder of the game.

George Wells pitched the entire game, allowing only four scattered hits and he really deserved a shut-out.

Schofield led the Aggies at bat, getting two hits while O'Brien hit timely.

DOHANU FROSH
BASEBALL CAPTAIN

John D. Donahue, '28 of Waterbury, has been elected captain of the Aggie freshman baseball team, according to a recent announcement of the Department of Physical Education.

Donahue is the regular shortstop of the yearling nine, and his work to date marks him as one of the most promising of the frosh ball-tossers.
He has also been active in football and basketball, playing end in football.
and guard in basketball. Injuries prevented him from playing regularly on the frosh grid team at Storrs, but his work on the chalked court won him a regular berth with the freshman five. Though playing basketball for the first time, Donahue developed rapidly under the direction of Freshman Coach Alexander and his defensive work marks him as a man who will be valuable varsity material in the future.

He is a Crosby High product and in his first year at Storrs has given every promise of developing into a valuable all-around athlete.
