The famous Marchesi Quartette of Hartford is appearing for a recital in the Armory tonight. With them are several other features will be given. The entire program will be broadcast by WCAC, the College Radio Station, directly from the Armory. The Colonial Male Quartet with Mr. Charles Bradford Beach, the baritone, as soloist, will give a musical program which will be broadcast from the Armory by WCAC on February 26, 1926. This quartet is also well known in Hartford and was engaged to appear here through the combined efforts of the social committee and the broadcasting station.

WCAC has added new features to its programs. The station now regularly has educational talks and music on Monday, Wednesday, and Fridays at 7:30 p.m. Monday talk is a lecture given on Dairying, on Wednesdays Vegetable Gardening is taken up and on Fridays there is a poultry course given. These lectures are given by the Extension Service.

CHURCH STEEPLE TO BE STORRS MEMORIAL

Have Already Pledged $7,000 of Necessary Amount For Its Erection.

The Storrs family has started a movement to raise the necessary $15,000 for the erection of a memorial steeple on the new Storrs church which will soon be built. They have already pledged $7,000 of the required amount. Lucius S. Storrs, a former president of the Connecticut Company, is heading this campaign.

Another noteworthy contribution to the church is that of an organ donated by a woman from Stamford, who does not wish to have her name known.

It has also been proposed to have a clock and a set of Westminster chimes in the church.

STUDENTS ACTIVE IN CHURCH CAMPAIGNS

The campaign for the new Storrs church and Community House is being helped along to a great degree by the service of many students of the college. At “Storrs Nights” held in various cities of Connecticut, during the last two or three weeks, most of the entertainment has been furnished by the College Players, the string trio, the male quartet, and the Glee Club.

The members of the string trio are Julia Sklarinsky, violinist; Douglas Miller, cellist, and Rena Cohen, pianist. The newly formed male quartet has as its members John Schrader, John Jacoby, Carl Carlson, and Willis H. Pratt.

First Defeat In Three Starts For Connecticut—Captain Makofski and Allard Lost In Second Half

Connecticut lost its first basketball game of the season to Wesleyan at Middletown Wednesday night, when the Red and Black five registered a decisive victory over the Aggies. The final score was 49-26 and it tells a story of a surprising upset, for although a close game was expected, no one foresaw so decisive a defeat for Connecticut.

Playing on the narrow Wesleyan court, Connecticut was at a great disadvantage, but it is doubtful if the playing surface was the deciding factor. In all departments of play, Wesleyan was consistently better than Connecticut, making the game interesting from the first to last whistle.

FIRST DEFEAT FOR MEDFORD TEAM

Predicted Close Game Proves to Be Runaway Affair For Aggie Hoopsters—Invisitors Fail to Impress Large Crowd

Connecticut defeated Tufts in basketball 38-23 here last Saturday night, turning what was expected to be a tight contest into a runaway affair. It was the second victory in as many starts for the Aggies, and as last week against Norwich, the team made an impressive showing.

Displaying an attack that penetrated the Tufts defense, scoring consistently near the backboard and from the sidecourt, Connecticut took an early lead and held it to the end. At half time, the Aggies lead 23-8, a margin of fifteen points which they held to the final whistle.

Captain Makofski lead Connecticut's attack with a total of fifteen points. He made seven from the foul line, playing an excellent game the entire distance.

With but two minutes left in the first half, Coach Dole sent his second team against Tufts, repeating his stunt of last week. The seconds displayed their usual aggressive game and held Tufts scoreless.

Tufts looked better in the second half, dividing scoring honors with Connecticut with fifteen points each. This was hardly enough to affect the Aggies lead amassed in the first half, however.

The game started off with Eddy and Makofski connecting for six points between them before Abrahms made two from the foul line for Tufts first score. From the start, the Aggies displayed a much superior attack, working the ball down the floor and into the scoring zone before Tufts' five-man defense could form.

After seven minutes of play, Tufts took their first time out with Connecticut leading 10-6. With the resumption of play, French made a pretty shot from mid-court for Tufts, but with the exception of another lone basket from the foul line by the same player, this ended Tufts' scoring activities for the half. From then on it was all Connecticut. Makofski, Schofield and Eddy, Connecticut's trio of sharpshooters, all took turns cutting the net, running the count to twenty-three before Coach Dole sent in his second team.

Although outclassing Tufts in floor work and passing in the second half, Connecticut missed many shots and scored no more than Tufts in this session. Tufts most consistent effort at scoring came at this time, when Naussbaum, Stanley and Dawson sank three in a row.

Robeson, Tufts star forward, was unable to make a basket from the floor, so closely was he guarded. Connecticut's five man defense was functioning perfectly, and Tufts had few chances to shoot except from well outside the scoring zone.

Traveling to New York state Saturday, the Connecticut Aggie varsity will face one of the fastest college basketball teams in the East, when they line up against Union College at Schenectady, N. Y. Of added interest in the coming game with Union, is the fact that Captain Makofski of the Aggies has a brother playing left forward with the New York team. Both of these lads made a reputation in high school, and have been starring in collegiate basketball ever since. Sig Makofski is the leading scorer of the Union College quintet this season, while Captain Bill Makofski is the leading point gatherer for Connecticut. It will be interesting to see which Makofski rolls up the highest number of points during the game. The guarding of Sig Makofski will be entrusted to Paul Bitgood, and the latter can be relied upon to play a bang-up game.

The same lineup that has started in the past three games will start against Union, and Coach Dole has his varsity squad in first class condition for the promised battle. This is the first time in the history of the state college that Union has played Connecticut in any sport.

COMPLIMENTS OF A FRIEND

THROUGH THE HOOP

At first we thought it was a case of Tufts being over-rated, but now we realize we haven't been rating our own team high enough.

With about eight players fighting for the ball under the Tufts basket Schofield stepped in and settled the issue very nicely. A fast dribble to the side-court, a turning jump, and a one-hand push to the ball. Two more points for Connecticut!

It was 'Tufts' first defeat from a college five.

Connecticut's team is not a one or two-man affair. It's the combined efforts of five men working together that's bringing results. Team play that runs up the score.

For a man just out of the infirmary Allard didn't look bad at all.

A rough game in spots, but cleanly played for all that. Referee Coutts doesn't call them as close as Dick Dil- lon, but he is equally impartial in his decisions.

And the second team hasn't been scored on from the floor yet!

"By the way 'Mac,' when you get to Union, remember this 'brotherly love' stuff is all the bunk!"

After getting away to a slow start the freshmen came from behind to give the Tufts yearlings their first taste of defeat for the season. It was their fight and aggressiveness that pulled them through.

A large crowd present for the game, but we predict there will be larger ones before the season is over. Many out of town people were noticed in the stands, including many Hartford and Eastern Connecticut alumni.

It was the first time music has been furnished between the halves. No question but what it adds to the occasion, and we hope it is a permanent feature.
TO OFFER COURSES IN RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

Elective courses in religious education will be offered beginning next semester. There will be only two courses, one for freshmen and sophomores and one for juniors and seniors. It is proposed to have four courses in this subject eventually. They will be offered through Storrs church in cooperation with the Connecticut Federation of Churches. A more definite announcement in regard to them will be made shortly.

FRESHMEN DEFEAT SUFIELD

The Aggie Freshmen five won their second game Wednesday evening by overwhelming the Suffield fast hooters 36 to 14. Captain White, Cross and Hewitt starred on the offense. Schildgren and Shagan held down the defense positions in fine style.

Coach Alexander sent in the second and third string men in the second half. The yearlings were out in front at the end of the first half 29 to 4.

SENIORS TAKE FAST GAME FROM FRESHMEN

Forced to extend themselves to the utmost, the Seniors defeated the fast little Freshman team by a small margin Monday night. The Frosh led throughout the first half, and it was not until the second half that the Seniors managed to forge ahead. It was a whirlwind game from start to finish, nearly causing nervous prostration to scores of loyal supporters of the respective teams. Tarling and Fassett starred for the Frosh, while Quigley was the outstanding man on the Senior team.

"HOW TO STUDY"

The Students' Hand-Book of Practical Hints on the Technique of Effective Study

by WILLIAM ALLAN BROOKS

A GUIDE containing hundreds of practical hints and short cuts in the economy of learning, to assist students in securing MAXIMUM SCHOLASTIC RESULTS at a minimum cost of time, energy, and fatigue.

ESPECIALLY RECOMMENDED for overworked students and athletes engaged in extra curriculum activities and for average and honor students working for high scholastic achievement.

Some of the Topics Covered

Scientific Shortcuts in Effective The Athlete and His Studies.

Preparation for Examinations. How to Study Modern Languages.

Writing Good Examinations. How to Study Science, Literature, Brain and Digestion in Relation to Study.

Why Go to College?

"It is safe to say that failure to guide and direct study is the weak point in the whole educational machine." Prof. G. M. Whipple, U. of Michigan.

"The successful men in college do not seem to be very happy. Most of them, especially the athletes are overworked." Prof. H. S. Canby, Yale.

"Misdirected labor, though honest and well intentioned may lead to naught. Among the most important things for the student to learn is how to study. Without knowledge of this his labor may be largely in vain." Prof. G. F. Swain, M. I. T.

"To students who have never learnt "How to Study," work is very often a chastisement, a flagellation, and an insuperable obstacle to contentment." Prof. A. Inglis, Harvard.

"HOW TO STUDY" will show you how to avoid all misdirected effort.

In explaining why this pamphlet has been written Mr. Lane says:

"The object of this pamphlet is to put the facts into the hands of the American people. The public has not been upon the question of military training for youth. It has registered opposition to the idea of universal compulsory military training, but upon the present near-substitute it has not spoken.

"Congress, under the emotion of a great European war, put into effect the National Defense Act, and is so doing authorized the President of the United States to introduce military training into civil educational institutions; the War Department is now showing what this may mean, but the general public has hardly known what is going on."

The foregoing explanation is in some ways logical, and in fact the pamphlet should be read. But the action of the Student Senate in refusing to take up the matter by not joining a federated society to do away with the compulsory training is to be condemned. As long as it is necessary to comply with the federal requirement that we must maintain military training, if we are to receive federal financial aid, we should do so and keep the training until such time as Congress shall make the necessary change. The idea, that military training can be thrown out of our American colleges by radical propaganda now being distributed, is absurd.

1925 HANDBOOK

Failure to report the proceeds from the sale of the 1925 Handbook has reached an exasperating stage. No public report, either to the student body, or to the Senior Class, has yet been made, thus casting many reflections, not only on the management of the Handbook, but also on the Auditing Committee. If a report has been made to the latter body, it should have been made public last year instead of allowing student opinion to form which bears no credit to those who had charge of the issuing of the yearly Handbook.

Outward appearances would seem to indicate that a stage in student life has been reached where some one in authority, say the college auditor, should be paid to audit the books of all college organizations. For numerous reasons the new auditing committee instituted last year cannot hope to cope with the situation. The result has been that the books of the larger organizations, such as the Nutmeg and The Campus, have never been examined. These larger organizations run in the interests of the student body, should be controlled by them. To be fair to them, and to the student body, and to avoid the building up of any more huge debts, an auditor would be a welcome addition to the ranks of student life.

PLEDGES

Now that the new Community House is nearing completion, and final driving are being made in the larger cities to raise the remaining funds necessary to finish the complete program for the establishment of both a Community House and new Church, with an endowment fund to maintain them both, our attention should be directed to the pledges which we, as a student body, made as our contribution to the project. At the meeting held over a year ago, the student body pledged $1,500 to the fund. Speakers, who are aiding our cause in various cities, have stated that this is our contribution, and have held it up to the people, whom they addressed, as showing our confidence in the need for these new buildings.

To date very few of the student pledges have been paid, and no direct appeal has been made to the new freshmen to aid us financially in raising more funds for the Community House and Church fund. We should consider that it is a privilege to contribute to this fund, for as members of the student body, we will have the opportunity to use the Community House where outsiders will not. Pay up your pledges to Dr. Sinnott at once, and thus show your willingness to do your share in securing a new completed social and religious center.

THE RIFLE TEAM

The exceptionally fine record made by the Rifle Team merits the attention of the student body. The results of the ten meets held this semester show that the team is worthy of more recognition than it has received. Out of the ten meets, the Aggie team has nine victories to its credit, with some individual scores nearly creating new world records.

It seems only fair in recognition of the time and energy spent by the members of the team, that they be rewarded with some form of letter such as was suggested at the A. A. meeting last Thursday night, and that this activity be recognized as a minor sport.

The team is the natural outgrowth of the greater activity of the R. O. T. C. unit which has been noticed with a great deal of satisfaction since a change of officers was made four years ago. The Athletic Association should take cognizance of this greater activity, and be quick to reward these men, who carry on the minor sports with such a marked degree of success, the same as they have rewarded major sports' men.

FRENCH CLASSES GIVE FINE ENTERTAINMENT

El Senor Moreno-Lacalle, Dean of the Spanish school at Middlebury College and Director of the summer school, who is a noted lecturer and author, spoke at an entertainment given by the French Department on Wednesday evening, January 13. His talk was an illustrated lecture on the works found in the Museo del Prado of Madrid. He gave the history of this museum and said that it contains the greatest of Spanish paintings. He praised especially the work of El Greco, Velaquez, Murillo and Goya, and showed some of their paintings on the screen. He spoke in very clear and musical Spanish.

Doctor Denlinger, who is very well informed on South American literature and history, spoke on Ruben Dario, one of the national heroes.

The Spanish classes gave a short play, "Amor y Inocente," in which the Misses Betty Gorde, Nellie Cohen, and the Messrs. Jack Rottner, Sholom Kaplan and Douglas Devine took part. "Pauvre Silvie" was given by the French 2 class, and the following were included in the cast: Misses Esther Lasker, Julia Gaberman, Julia Sklarinsky, Rena Cohen Cohen, Sally Elionsky, Henrietta Casrle and Helen Klein, and the Messrs. Sidney Fine and Verne MacDonald and Francois. Mr. Oscar Nanfeldt was the star of "Mere Barberin" and was assisted by Samuel Gould and Philip Dodge.

Two songs completed the program. The Spanish students sang "A La Luz de la Luna," and were accompanied by Mrs. Davis at the piano. The French 2 class sang "Le Cycle Du Vin," and Miss Cohen played the piano.

RADIO COURSE TO BE GIVEN NEXT SEMESTER

A course in radio work, which is listed in the catalogue as M. E. 21, will be given next semester as a three-credit course by arrangement. There will be a two-hour laboratory period and two lecture-periods which will be arranged to accommodate the greatest number. To register in this course one must have College Physics or should see the instructor. Those taking the course will be able to build a set in the laboratory by either making or buying the parts.

Tie a tin to trouble

A TIDY red tin of Prince Albert, to be exact. There's the greatest little trouble-chaser in the known world. Smoke P. A. and pipe-grouch choose the nearest exit.

Yes, Sir, P. A. is right there with the Pollyanna stuff. Sunshine, gladness, the light heart, the bright smile. Because Prince Albert is the cheeriest, chummiest tobacco that ever tumbled into a briar or corncob.

Smoke P. A.—and smile. Cool, comfortable P. A. Fragrant, friendly P. A. Not a tongue-bite or throat-parch in a ton of it. The Prince Albert process hung the "No Admittance" sign on Bite and Parch the day the factory opened.

Get a tidy red tin of P. A. today and give pipe-worries the gate.

PRINCE ALBERT
—no other tobacco is like it!
FRESHMAN FIVE
SUBDUES TUFTS

Take Exciting Game From Jumhc Cubs In Overtime Battle.—Strong Medford Five Meets First Defeat

Hewitt's goal in the second three minute overtime period defeated the Tufts freshmen last Saturday evening, 19 to 17. It was the opening game for the Aggie frosh, and they displayed enough fighting spirit to give the Tufts five their first defeat of the season.

White and Hewitt were the chief scorers while the guarding of Sahagian, Schildgren and Dall was of high order. Croze, acting captain, was banished from the game because of personal fouls, and Anderson replaced him.

Ellis and Fitzgerald were the main cogs of the Tufts five, each scoring six points. The Tufts freshmen were rated as one of the best freshman fives in New England.

Tufts had at half time, 9 to 5, but in the second half the Aggie yearlings came back strong to make the score fifteen all. In the first overtime period White dropped a pretty basket from the side of the court and just as the whistle blew Martin of Tufts tied the score again. Hewitt made a goal in the second overtime period for the winning score.

The summary:

Work without Toil

Ten or twelve hours a day toils the coolie. If he carries all he can, he moves one ton one mile in one day. For that he receives twenty cents.

Cheap labor! Yet compared with our American worker, receiving at least twenty-five times as much for an eight-hour day, the coolie is expensive labor. In America we move one ton one mile for less than one cent. The coolie, working by hand, accomplishes little; while the American, with electricity's aid, accomplishes much.

Plenty of electricity and cheap electricity—these are two great advantages which America enjoys over the rest of the world. While our present generating capacity is 20,600,000 kilowatts, new developments call for 3,000,000 kilowatts more per year.

To college men and women—potential leaders—will fall the duty of finding more and still more work for electricity, with less and still less toil for our workers. For the task is but begun!
SOPHOMORES WIN FROM JUNIORS

Class of 1928 Leads In Interclass Competition

The Sophomore girls were victorious over the Junior girls in a hard-fought basketball game last Thursday afternoon, January 14, in Hawley Armory, defeating their opponents with a score of 21 to 9. The lineup was as follows:

SOPHOMORES
Gustafson, If, F.G.
Healey, rf, C.
Murphy, c, Hopkins, F.
Walsch, sc, Larsen, C.
Kennedy, lg, Brown, C.
Monrad, rg, Bartell, C.

JUNIORS
If, Case, C.
rf, Cooper, C. c, Hopkins, C.
sc, Larsen, C.
lg, Brown, C.
rg, Bartell, C.

This is the lineup which will most likely be used during all the class games with the exception of Mills, who will play with the Juniors and Buell with the Sophomores. The Freshmen, as yet have had no chance to show their ability on the basketball floor, but will in the near future.

This was the beginning of the girls’ interclass basketball games. Each class, with the exception of the Senior class, who because of their lack of necessary material is to be exempt from all interclass athletics, is to play four games.

Up to the present time the Sophomore class is far ahead of the other two classes in the number of points it possesses towards the interclass cup. The Sophas having seven points, the Juniors three, and the Freshmen two. The Sophomores have taken the lead in the number of points won in all the contests held so far, hockey, tennis, and bowling, and with a fair start for doing the same good work in basketball.

CO-EDS PLAY FIRST HOME GAME TOMORROW

The second game of the Co-ed basketball season is scheduled with Williams Memorial Institute of New London for January 23 on the home court. The probable lineup of the first string is the same as that which started at New York the 9th, with Grant and Case, forwards, Murphy and Buell, centers, Ellis and Bartell, were served by members of the Student Body.
SAFETY VALVE

To the Editor:

In the January 16th issue of The Campus there appeared a so-called answer to the article which was published in the Safety Valve just before the Christmas recess. Let it be understood that this is not to be considered a reply to last week’s article. When one takes the attitude that because this Institution was founded as an Agricultural College there should be no place for Arts courses, it becomes evident that the mind of such a person is too narrow, even to admit a reasonable discussion of the subject.

Certainly it is granted that one may choose his social acquaintances, but must it not also be granted that a College Graduate should, in a minor way, be able to discuss an issue which does not directly affect or pertain to his field of work? Since it is impossible to live in complete isolation, even in the most rural communities, and since we call ours a Government of, by, and for the people, does it not seem important that one should have some conception of what has been done, and what is being done in wider fields than one’s little sphere of personal interest?

If we Americans are to retain any individuality it must be through the expression of our thoughts. Is not, then, a study of English absolutely necessary?

There is another attitude of this question that should not be neglected. It is best expressed in the words of a recent speaker at Assembly some weeks ago who said: "We should have many cables of concern."

The Student Senate has asked The Campus to make a public a list of the books which were purchased for Reynolds, the freshman injured during initiations last September. These books were purchased with the money collected at a Student Org meeting last November. The selection was made by Prof. H. A. Beckson, head of the English Department.

The list includes Drums, Caravan, Jungle Days, many Laughs for Many Days, Portrait of Man with Red Hair, One Red Lamp, and Cousin Jane. The Student Senate also subscribed to three magazines with the balance left, thus insuring a supply of good reading material to the shut-in man.
