L. Richard Belden
Will Deliver Address. William Dossin, received a nine months' course which will be held in Hawley Armory. This course is one of the new faculty cottages.

The Campus has a clean slate, a survey of the financial report made public by the business manager indicates. Next year's Board will be able to take over the responsibility of running The Campus without being hampered from the outset by a hangover debt, as has often been the case in previous years.

A glance at the financial sheet reveals the fact that the total receipts of the year have been $1,283.54, as against a total expenditure of $1,909.42, leaving a balance of $884.12. Another interesting fact is that nearly four hundred dollars is still due The Campus from advertisements.

The report, which covers this past year from September to May 1, is as follows:

- Total Receipts: $1,283.54
- Expenses:
  - Printing: $845.93
  - Stamped envelopes: $34.38
  - Mailing envelopes: $56.93
  - Conn. Agr. College: $96.41
  - Smith & Worth Garage: $32.56

Orders have been received by Capta- in C. E. Cline from the War Department instructing the junior officers of the local R. O. T. C. unit to report at Camp Devens on June 18 for a six weeks' training course. This course is one of the requirements which must be fulfilled before the men enrolled in the advanced Military Science course can be granted their commissions in the reserve army.

The men who will attend Camp Devens this summer are among others: C. Anderson, L. Richard Belden, Rudolph A. Billip, Nelson T. Haidley, Herman Guazter, Arthur L. Loretton, Ronald Mason, Cecil B. Smith and William Bendokus.

Horace Murphy and Francis A. Ryan will meet the summer camp requirement at the close of their sophomore year by attending Camp Meade this summer.

Makofski Pitcher No-Hit Game--Rain Halts Game at Fifth Inning

Springfield College found their season with a hard-fought victory over Vermont University this afternoon. In their last two games the Aggies were close throughout, but the Freshmen winning through their strength in the field events. Their weakness lay in the short dashes. Connecticut took eight first places.

The stars for the Aggie Floss were Schleglans and Ellovich. They scored nine and eight points respectively. Schleglans' javelin throw was the outstanding feature of the meet, as he threw it 154 feet, 2 in., which is only six feet less than the varsity record.

The summary:
120 yard hurdles--Emerson (D), Time, 10.2 sec.
220 yard low hurdles--Hewitt (C), Cameron (D), Time, 20.4 sec.
100 yard dash--Austin (D), Drugg (C), Haversat (C), Time, 10.5-2.5 sec.
220 yard dash--Dotteren (D), Havercast (C), Austin (D), Hammerschmidt--Ellovich (C), Schleglans (C), Sayers (C), 115.0 ft.
Shot put--Carmichael (D), Ellovich (C), Gilman (C), 48 ft.

FRESH TACKLE SPRINGFIELD

Aggie Nine

The annual Eastern Intercollegiate track meet held at Worcester last Saturday resulted in an easy victory for Springfield College. The Y. M. C. A. tracksters, placing in nearly every event, amassed a total of 48 points with Vermont University trailing with 33 points for second place.

The Aggies followed with two more runs in the second stanza, when Ahern got a two base hit with two men on. It was only in those two innings that the Aggie men were able to cross the rubber, but it was enough to cinch the game for them.

Trinity's only run came in the third inning. Bond reached first on an error and Whitaker drew a pass Newsholme hit to Schofield and Bond was out at third.

On this play Schofield turned in one of the best fielding plays that has been seen on the Trinity field this year. Makofski took a sudden turn and hit Riley, and Whitaker came in after on a passed ball, scoring the only run for his team.

Will JOURney

The Freshmen emerged on the short end of a 7-3 score in a game played with Pomfret School last Wednesday. Erratic playing, coupled with the inability to hit when hits meant runs, caused the downfall of the first year men.

Metcalfe, the Freshmen's star twirler, was not in his usual form and issued a number of free passes. Pomfret connected for five hits from Metcalfe's delivery, while the Freshmen hit Simpson and Everson 3-4 and Sayers 2-5.

AGGIES ACT AS FIRE FIGHTERS

The drenching rain, which began Friday forenoon, was a great boon to the fire-fighters, but even with the rains there were many danger spots which persisted in smoldering, and men were put on patrol duty during Friday afternoon and evening.

The efficiency of the new portable pumps was thoroughly tested and proved exceedingly satisfactory. With much of the fire in thick growth and some of which was of coniferous type, beating the fire out was impossible; and the pumps were used extensively, although in some cases water had to be carried from long distances.

Mr. Austin F. Hawes, state forester, commended the work of the students very highly, and stated that the fire was handled most efficiently. He considered the fire to be by far the most serious in the state this year.

THE STUDENTS’ PART

As the Community House nears completion, announcement is made of the $10,000 gift that it be entirely used for the purchase of the property and for the building of the new church.

It is the wish of the donors of this gift that it be entirely used for the purchase of the property and for the building of the new church.

In accepting the gift, the Trustees agreed to comply with the request of the donors, and plans are well under way for the furnishing of the new building.

It had been estimated that the amount necessary to furnish the Community House would be approximately $10,000. However, this amount has been doubled, and the new church will be more serviceable if placed in the higher altitude of the church steeples and that the entire community would be benefited by it, we urge that all who are concerned with the suggestion give it their attention and support.

CO-EDS ENTERTAINED AT COLUMBIA LAKE

A group of fourteen Co-eds spent the week-end at Columbia Lake as guests of Mr. Samuel Chesbro of Eagleville, with Miss Keyes as Counsellor. Mr. Chesbro, due to his interest in the College, offered the use of his cottage in time for supper. A Saturday noon the girls entertained twelve guests at dinner. These were Mr. and Mrs. Hollister, Mr. and Mrs. Hendrickson, Mr. and Mrs. GUYER, Mr. and Mrs. Putnam, Mr. and Mrs. Flitts, Mr. Chesbro, and Miss Keyes.

PETITION FOR OLD CHURCH

A movement has been started by dramatic enthusiasts of the college to buy the Storrs Church building and convert it into a college theatre. Last week several petitions were circulated among the students, asking their support of the project. More than four hundred names were affixed to the petition.

If the proper authorities agree to sell the building to the State College at an estimated price, plans will be made to move it to the interior of the structure so that it may be used next fall. The building will probably be moved to a site opposite the Dairy building.

CO-EDS ELECT BASKET BALL MANAGER

Dorothy Hughes, who has been assistant manager of Co-ed basketball, was chosen manager for the 1927-28 season at a recent meeting of the Athletic Class. Margaret Torrey was elected assistant manager.

THE SCHOOLDAYS' GLEANINGS

The completion, announcement is made of the late Colonel William Henry Hall.

You'll need no Pick and Shovel To unearth this TREASURE

MAYBE, when you heard about the fellow who found a gold mine in his back yard, you wondered why you were cheated when the rabbit's foot was passed around.

But wait! You're going to have the thrill of a bit of easy treasure-finding, too.

Without the need of a map, a compass or a pick and shovel, you're going to walk around the corner and find a wealth of OLD GOLD—that new treasure of cigarettes—

—with a charm as alluring as a chest of bright gold guineas

—waiting for you—for 15¢—at the nearest cigarette counter in your own neighborhood.

OLD GOLD represents 166 years of tobacco-blending "know how".

But we don't intend to spoil your surprise party by revealing all of its delights. You're entitled to your own OLD GOLD adventure.

So we simply say: Buy a package of OLD GOLDS today—and smoke out the evidence. You'll agree they are truly OLD GOLD, the highest possible standard in quality and cigarette value.

DO NOT BELIEVE WHAT HAS BEEN JUDGED

BY ROMAIN ROLLAND

From the Fourth Anniversary of The New Student, reviewing four years of writing on student problems, by and about students.

The first piece of advice I give you is beneficent enough. Do as Descartes did before recording his famous dictum: "Je pense, therefore I am." Revise by yourselves all the beliefs you have been taught.

For a long time I was a member of a university, and I have had many in my life in preparing for and in passing examinations—the whole series of examinations of the University and the Ecoles Superieures—then in my youth I was a member at the Ecole Normale in Paris and at the Sorbonne. Thus I was able to hand the errors and the prejudiced decisions (made in good faith) which abound in modern education.

Although I had a natural tendency towards skepticism, it was with great difficulty that I succeeded in erasing from my memory with a blast of these errors, the most clumsy of these prejudices. And it was the crisis of fascism which contributed most to liberate me from them.

In short, I should say that education evolves much more slowly than class; he was busmess manager of the internships. We no longer want these double societies.

Nothing is more legitimate, doubtless, than to rely upon tradition—Mr. Bitgood said before reconstructing the edifice of yesterday. We are interested in the war making themselves not to be torn in a single generation. But we shall never see the end of the disquiet which this history of today is written with a name of the historian. But we shall never see the end of the disquiet which this history of today is written.

What is done today has been done and has been published. Always human passions, conscious or not, have guided the hand of the historian. Without a doubt, this is a philanthropic effort to remove the veil again.

What then is to be done? What is to be kept? To begin with, a simple and not outworn skeptic, not frivolous and lazy, but virile and serious, a man who looks honestly for a solid certainty, but which refuses to come to a conclusion before gathering the elements of an honest judgment. Before returning to this point you will have to strip yourselves of all particularity. Try to climb out of yourselves and your prejudices. Seek on all occasions to understand those arguments as they differ from yours, the arguments of your opponents. All historians will excuse me for returning to this subject, but I was a historian by profession before I became a novelist—all history is the history of conquerors, of victorious races, victorious classes, and victorious men in these races and classes. For these races, these classes, these men of victory we have officially fabricated a special morality. In our people and the heroes of our people we have been accustomed to call "glory" what we have been taught to brand as "infamy" in enemy peoples and the heroes of these peoples.

THE DRUIDS MAKE FIRST APPEARANCE

The seven seniors who make up the Druids, the secret society of college, were distinguished at the dance last week by the red sashes which they wore. The Seniors who comprise the present Druids are Gerald D. Allard, Milton Moore, Earl Jago, Sidney Lewis, Harry Wardle, Paul Biggood and William Makofski. These men were chosen because of their prominence in student activities.

Harry Wardle, who compiled his college course last semester was the Editor-in-chief of the "Campus," a member of the Student Senate and a regular on the baseball team. He is a member of Theta Sigma Chi. Milton Moore edited the "Nutmeg" last year and was president of his class. He belongs to the Phi Mu Delta fraternity. Gerald Allard is a letter man in three major sports, president of the Athletic Association and a member of Theta Sigma Chi. Earl Jago is president of the senior class; he was business manager of the "Nutmeg" last year. His fraternity is Alpha Gamma Rho. Sidney Lewis is the president of the Student Senate and the Student Organization and took an active part in other student activities. He is a member of Phi Epilion Pi. Paul Biggood and William Makofski are both three letter men. Paul Biggood was the only man who held this honor last year. They have both played important parts in other college activities and are members of the Eta Lambda Sigma fraternity.

We no longer want these double standards. We want all men to be measured with the same measure. We want to judge ourselves and others with honest eyes. We want to understand others, to understand the vanished, the vanquished, and the men in thought of other races. In this because we want to praise these heroes at the expense of our own? Not at all. But it is because we shall never see ourselves truly if we do not try to understand the environment in which we are placed.

Fortify your eyes! Enlarge your horizons! A veil hides from the nations the spirit of man. This veil cannot be torn in a single generation. But once it is lifted from your eyes, and as soon as you begin to perceive that truth is vaster and richer than you have been taught—I am content: you will not lower the veil again.

My role is to sow a virile inquietude in the spirits of my countrymen and my tipped men. My role is to say to them: You are swathed in prejudices. Dare to throw them aside. And seek.

THE STATE COLLEGE PLAYERS GO TO FARMINGTON

On Monday the State College Players will present three one-act plays at Danielson, and will give the same three in Farmington on the following Wednesday. They are "The Robbery," "The Dicky Bird," and "The Passing of Chow-Chow." All but the latter have been given at Storrs some time during the year. Those who will make the trips are Misses Main, Hutton, Graf, and Koster; Sullivan, Gatcheli, Hodge, and Seekerson.

HERE AND THERE

Rene Fonck, the "Ace of Aces," who is credited with having brought down seventy-five German planes during the war, will compete for the $25,000 offer made to the first non-stop airplane flight from New York to Paris.

A massive stone gateway will be erected at Yale in memory of the late Walter Camp, the "Father of American Football," if present plans can be carried through to completion by the terms of the agreement between Yale Corporation and the National Collegiate Athletic Association. The memorial will not be a tribute from the alumni alone, but from every college and preparatory school in the country where football is played. The Arch is to cost $500,000.

A new world's record in the discus throw was established by Clarence Hauser of the University of Southern California. The new mark of 158 feet 1 ½ inches was made in a dual meet between the University of Southern California and Stanford University. The old record was held by Harbrant of Stanford.

Roland Locke of the University of Nebraska, one of America's premier sprinters, made the sporting world sit up and take notice when he was clocked in 5-10 seconds for the 100-yard dash at the Drake relays in Iowa. The time was not credited because of the high wind blowing at Locke's back which favored his performance.

The Faculty at New Hampshire University have forbidden students to use autos. In imposing the ban the college authorities said that they found students who were unable to own machines scored better marks than their seemingly more favored fellows.

Biology was voted the most useful and Military Training the most useless course, in the curriculum of City College, by the annual ballooting of seniors for a record in the college year book.

The following will show, in detail, just what the students have done, since C. A. C. teaches both agricultural and military tactics, it is perfectly natural that the students should go out into these two fields, and the following are the most important to this country at this time.

The Connecticut Agricultural College closed formally at noon, Saturday, May 12. The demand made upon the student body for men trained in agriculture has been so heavy that the supply of men has been practically exhausted and no one was left to attend classes.

The Extension Department in cooperation with the United States Department of Agriculture has secured the services of Mr. J. A. Simms of West Raleigh, N. C., for Pig Club work in Connecticut. Mr. Simms will also handle some Extension work in Iowa.

B. A. Brown '16, has been recently appointed superintendent of the experimental plots for the Extension Station.

The following provisions regarding withdrawal from college were put into effect:

Voted by the Faculty:
1. That except in the case of senior students in college or school all credits be withheld until the fall semester. At this time each case shall be investigated and judged on its merits.
2. That a committee be created to secure appointment or evidence of appointment to positions in productive work for students; that such student workers be appointed only by the committee and be paid for their work.

Rules of the Committee:
Any student may withdraw from school or college at once under the following conditions:
1. That he present to the registrar satisfactorily evidence of productive employment.
2. That he make in writing a monthly statement concerning his work, such statement to be signed by his employer.
3. That he present to the registrar before leaving a statement of honorable discharge from the Military Department.

Note 1—Credit will be determined on the basis of present standing and the record of summer's work.

Note 2—Students in Home Economics are required to take one week's course in canning unless excused by the head of the department of Home Economics.

SOPH CO-EDS

With the score 23-13 in favor of the freshmen at the first of the seventh inning, the sophomores came to the fore and defeated them 24-23. Loose playing by both teams characterized the game throughout.

THE CONNECTICUT CAMPUS

ATTEND HOME ECONOMICS CONFERENCE

Several members of the Home Economics faculty and members of the senior nutrition class attended a meeting of the State Home Economics Federation held at New London last Saturday. An interesting program was arranged by Mrs. Marion Dakin, president of the association. The morning session consisted of three short talks and a trip to the New London Children's Clinic. Following a luncheon served by the school cooking classes, Mrs. Mary S. Rose of Teachers' College, Columbia University, lectured about recent advances made along nutrition lines.

SORH CO-EDS HOLD SUNRISE PICNIC

Last Sunday morning the Sophomore Co-eds hiked down the Garleyville road to the Fenton river, where they held a sunrise breakfast, consisting of frankforts and rolls, bacon, pickles and coffee.

The new dormitory will be named for the late William Henry Hall of Willington, a former trustee of Connecticut Agricultural College.
