10. President Babbidge presented the following recommendations by the Building Names Advisory Committee:

A. Non-Academic Buildings

Towers 4A - The Keller House
Honoring Helen Keller of Westport, an inspiration to handicapped persons throughout the world.

Towers 4B - The Fenwick House
Honoring Lady Fenwick, a pioneer settler in Saybrook Colony.

Towers 4D - The Hamilton House
Honoring Dr. Alice Hamilton of Haddam, a pioneer in the field of occupational medicine.
Towers 5A - The Vinton House

Honoring Annie Rogers Vinton of Mansfield, a legislator and former Trustee of the University.

Towers 5B - The Beecher House

Honoring Catherine Beecher, founder of the Hartford Female Seminary and an active proponent of women's rights.

B. Academic Buildings

The Animal Industries building to be named in honor of the late George White, Professor of Dairy Husbandry and Dean of Agriculture.

The new Animal Diseases building, the initial building of the Veterinary Medicine Complex now under construction, to be named in honor of the late Erwin Jungherr, head of the Animal Diseases Department and one of the most distinguished scholars on the staff of the University.

The Humanities building to be re-named in honor of the late Jaime Arjona, Professor of Romance and Classical Languages and long-time head of the Foreign Languages Department.

The Social Sciences building to be re-named in honor of the late Henry R. Monteith, a Professor of English and History who played a major role in developing liberal studies at this institution.

The North Reading Room in the Wilbur Cross Library to be named in honor of the late G. Safford Torrey, Professor of Botany and Head of the Botany Department for many years.

President Babbidge informed the Board that he would seek permission from Miss Keller and Dr. Hamilton to name the residence halls in their honor. The President also indicated that the use of the two names of living citizens was an exception to the policy of the Board.

Noting that the exception to Board policy, in the cases of Miss Keller and Dr. Hamilton, would in no way establish a new precedent for future considerations, THE BOARD VOTED to approve the recommendations as presented by President Babbidge.

11. A statement relative to the naming of buildings at the Branches will be presented for Board consideration at the next meeting.

12. THE BOARD VOTED to approve the following addition to the Board's Laws, By-Laws, and Rules, as recommended by President Babbidge, and presented at the Board meeting on February 21, 1968, (see Item 14 Page 3877 of the Minutes of the Meeting of February 21, 1968):
WHEREAS, authority to fix fees at the University rests properly with the Board of Trustees, it is nonetheless true that adjustments of such fees have wide ramifications, be it therefore

RESOLVED, that henceforth, actions by the Board of Trustees to adjust fees shall lie on the table until the second subsequent meeting in order to give interested parties an opportunity to comment upon the pending action.

13. THE BOARD VOTED to lay on the table the following recommendation of the University Senate concerning Article XK2 C(6) of the Board's Laws, By-Laws, and Rules:

Any member of the faculty, who at the time of retirement is at the University of Connecticut and retires under the provisions of the State Retirement Act, will automatically become an emeritus member of the faculty provided that either of the following additional conditions is met:

(a) The staff member has served a total of twenty-five or more years at the equivalent level of instructor or above, including full-time service at the University of Connecticut and other collegiate institutions, or

(b) The staff member has attained the rank of full professor at the University of Connecticut.

Staff members retiring under conditions other than those mentioned above will not be given emeritus status except by vote of the Board of Trustees on recommendation of the President.

14. Provost Gant informed the Board that the University Admissions Office has received over 15,000 applications for admission. Freshman applications to date are running ahead of last year's figure, however, the number of paid fees remains the same as for 1967.

15. Mr. Nielsen's motion to go into executive session, seconded by Mr. Holt, was approved unanimously by Trustees present. While in executive session, the Board took the following actions:

(A) THE BOARD VOTED to approve for purposes of the State Auditors, a formal list of actions already taken on matters of reassignments, appointments and salary increases. The lists were authorized to be signed by the Secretary of the Board, Mr. Bishop.
