STATE OF CONNECTICUT

General Assembly,

January Session, A. D. 1941

AN ACT Authorizing the State to issue bonds for the construction of a self-liquidating dormitory at The University of Connecticut to house farm boys enrolled in the Two-Year School of Agriculture or other short courses.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Assembly convened:

Section 1: There is created a commission to be known as The University of Connecticut Bond Commission, consisting of the governor, the state treasurer, and the commissioner of finance and control. The members of said commission shall serve without compensation.

Sec. 2: The treasurer is directed, subject to the approval of said commission, to issue bonds of this state to an amount not exceeding two hundred thousand dollars. Such bonds shall be issued at such times and in such amounts as may be determined by said commission. The full faith and credit of the State of Connecticut is pledged for the payment of the principal of and the interest on the bonds issued under the provisions of this act.

Sec. 3: The proceeds of the sale of such bonds shall be used to construct and equip, on land owned by the state, a dormitory for use of students enrolled in a practical course in agriculture at The University of Connecticut.

Sec. 4: All revenue received from the operation of said dormitory and so much of the revenue of said university as may be necessary in addition thereto for the payment of, the principal of, and interest on, said bonds as the same shall become due, shall be paid by the board of trustees of said university to said treasurer pledged to the payment of the principal of and interest on, said bonds when the same shall become due. The term "revenue" as used herein shall include all moneys from rentals, earnings, income, or any other source, received by the university after deducting the cost of operation of said dormitory, except moneys from federal or state grants and legislative appropriations.

Sec. 5: All funds derived from such bond issue or any portion thereof may be expended, as the state's share, upon dormitory projects undertaken by or with the public works administration if so determined and designated by the governor.
