10. A letter from Charles H. Hood was read by the President, offering a $200 scholarship under the following conditions:

I. a. To be granted to student only if he has averaged in the top third of his class during the previous year's work.

b. Scholarship restricted to a student specializing in some phase of dairy industry promotion.

In case of competition, the following qualifications should serve as a guide in choosing recipients of scholarships:

II.a. Not only scholastic standing, but character, strength of mind and body, capacity for industry, and, most particularly, evidence of growth in these qualities to be considered.

b. Preference to be given to a son or daughter of a Hood milk producer, consideration being given to the scoring of the parent's dairy from a sanitary standpoint and the length of time the family has shipped to H. P. Hood & Sons.

c. Preference to be given to student intending to take up work relating to the production of milk on the farm rather than to its manufacture or distribution.

VOTED: To accept the offer if clause II.b. is excluded.

11. Letter from Dr. Beck of the State Game Commission read for information.
12. Financial report for the year ending June 30, 1932 presented by the Chairman.
