PROCEEDS OF SHOW TO GO TO MONTIE TH FUND

From Opening Chorus to Finale Show Was Filled with Pep, Originality and Good Singing.

A rising curtain discloses the Pink Room of the Valentine Meadow Golf Club resplendent in its palms, oriental draperies and soft lights. 'Twas set on the stage of Hawley Armory and here on occasioningly dragged from the box seats; "Buck" Van Buren and his Blackguards, under the able direction of Michael J. Farrell, give a truly great performance for a great gathering of Professor Montie th's portrait.

From start to finish the show was marked by clever jokes, excellent singing and the unheard of noise of the performers. The stage setting and costumes were obtained at great expense, and easily surpassed anything seen in the theater of Connecticut's minstrel shows.

The opening number was given by the entire group of the Club's guests clad in evening attire, and was followed by the entrance of the end-men dressed as bell-hops.

Encores Were Plenty

"Cry Baby Blues" by "Bananas" Sneidman followed the initial chorus and John was easily in the height of his career being required to respond for an encore. "Phil" Dean gave "Someone Like You." His rich voice showing to good advantage and he was enthusiastically applauded by the audience. Another veteran in the person of "Mammy" Lochner next appeared on the boards before the members of the Club giving "Bimini Bay." Like his predecessors he was compelled to respond to an encore.

The next person requested to sing by the members of the Club was Bertram Smith, but an examination of the performers failed to disclose his presence until one of the watchful bell-hops espied him in the audience. Despite his remonstrations he was unceremoniously dragged from his seat by the two burly butlers. "Beano" Graf and "Dutch" Maier. In the course of the argument it developed that Anthony Lanza, another member, was also among the missing, but the other culprit was soon located and brought to his place on the stage. Following his abduction from the audience Mr. Smith became conciliated and sang "Say It With Music" in his usual impressive manner. General "Buck" himself made a big hit in "Tucky Home" and touched the high spots with his old pep and enthusiasm.

A. A. CONSTITUTION

REVISES PROPOSED

SEVERAL DISTINCT CHANGES ARE MADE

To be Presented at Next Meeting of the Athletic Association.

The proposed revisions to the Athletic Association constitution have been drawn up by a committee consisting of Arthur J. Weinstein '20, chairman, Arthur M. Mitchell '22 and Philip F. Dean '22 and are ready for presentation at the next meeting of the Athletic Association which will be held shortly after the holidays.

Among the more distinctive changes proposed is the one relative to the makeup of the Athletic Council. It is proposed under the new system to have the Alumni representatives elected by the alumni, and to have student representatives not connected with the teams as managers as in the past.

The high points in the revised council as it will probably be presented for consideration are:

Article 4, Committees, Section 1: The standing committee of this association shall be an Athletic Council.

Section 2: The Athletic Council shall consist of four members of the faculty appointed by the President of the college. One of these members shall be the physical director; four members of the alumni association to be chosen annually by the alumni association; four students, one of whom shall be the president of the athletic association. The student members shall be in their junior year when elected, and shall assume membership in the Council on the first Monday after their election.

Three Regulars and a Valuable Substitute Are Lost This Year by Graduation.

Fourteen men were awarded football "C's" during President's Hour last Wednesday, for meritorious work in defending Connecticut's name on the gridiron during the 1921 season. The awards were made by Prof. S. P. Hollister of the Athletic Council. Those who received their letters were:-

Arthur Mitchell '22 Captain R. T. E. R. White '22 manager.
A. W. Frostholm '22 R. E. William J. Graf '22 C.
E. J. Slaney '22 sub C. E. G. Ashman '23 R. G.
W. P. Clark '22 L. T. J. Hammill '25 Q. B. W.
R. S. Jurewicz '22 L. G. S. Makofski '25 L. H. B.
C. D. Prentice '23 sub G. Fred Stull '25 R. H. B.
M. F. Daly '23 F. B. A. Eddy '25 L. E.
James Hammill '25 Q. B. Fred Stull '25 R. H. B.
W. S. Makofski '25 L. H. B.

Regulars and a valuable substitute lost this year by graduation, leaving nine varsity men as a nucleus for a strong team next year.

One senior who receives his letter this year has been the victim of accidents the past three years when he has been on the squad, and therefore has been unable to play in enough quarters to receive his "C" before this year. Daly has played all but one quarter of every game during the season, and Eddy played in seven full games. This is the third year that Mitchell and Graf have won their letter, and the second year that football "C's" have been awarded to Clark, Jurewicz, Ashman, Prentice, and Daly.

At this conference representatives of the Dairy Breed Associations will meet a committee from the American Dairy Science Association in order to discuss and try to improve and standardize the dairy interests from all parts of the United States.

PROF. MONTIE TH BEGINS SITTINGS FOR PORTRAIT

ARTIST MAKES SPLENDID PERSONAL CONTRIBUTION TO COLLEGE AND STATE.

Professor H. R. Montie th, professor emeritus of the institution, will have his time occupied, from now until Commencement, with something which he has the idea to do. We think he will be pleased and no doubt the artist will also enjoy the work, for it isn't every day that painters are given such interesting subjects to work upon, nor, on the other hand, are professors given many opportunities to have their portraits painted.

Yes, the Professor has already begun his sittings for what will be the famous Montie th Portrait.

Through the efforts of Doctor H. Dodge, President of the Artillery, and Secretary, are making a fine contribution to the state and to the college in offering their services at a greatly reduced figure. They have first set the price of the portrait at $800, a very reasonable amount, but, after consultation in Farmington at the home of the artist they offered to do the portrait for $400.

The students have already begun to raise the money. The various student activities are to contribute to the fund which will undoubtedly be complete by the end of the year. The Dramatic Club has already given $100 and the proceeds of the recent Blackguard show will also go into the portrait fund.

The students of the college took up the project at the beginning of the year with the idea of contributing to the college a memorial of Connecticut's Grand Old Man. The portrait will be finished in time for unveiling, with suitable ceremonies, at Commencement.

PROF. DODGE LECTURES ON WESTERN FARMING

In his lecture at the Ag Club meeting on December 16, Prof. R. E. Dodge gave some interesting facts about irrigation and Dry Farming in the West. Prof. Dodge has traveled through most of the states of the union and is well fitted to tell of the agricultural conditions in the West.

Senior-Freshman Game

The Seniors ably assisted the Freshmen in opening the interclass basketball league Monday evening in Hawley Armory. Although showing brilliant playing at times in the game, the Seniors were greatly handicapped by the lack of team work, while the Fresh had a smooth working combination that led in the scoring throughout the game. Enin drew first blood with a long shot from the floor, after a few minutes of play. Kennedy then followed with two more baskets giving the Fresh a six point lead before the upperclassmen were fully awake. They were unable to stop the first year men however, and the yearlings added seven more points to their total before the first half ended. "Sam" Graf alone was able to tally for the Seniors from the floor in the first half. His double-decker with four counters from the foul line accounted for the Seniors' points. Score 13-6.

Schleiss replaced Enin at guard for the Fresh at the beginning of the second half and immediately added two more points to the Fresh total. In the mean time Lawson and Graf counted for the Seniors. These two baskets along with a one-pointer contributed by Beisiegel marked the end of the Senior scoring. "Louie" Ganem, who had been playing a wonderfully good game for the Freshmen all evening, altho having hard luck on the baskets, found his eye and looped three goals and a foul before the final whistle blew.

Both teams were woefully weak from the fifteen foot mark. The Fresh made out four out of thirteen tries while the Seniors succeeded in getting but five out of fourteen attempts.

"Kid" Brundage all "round work was the feature of the Junior victory over the Sophomores in the second interclass game. He played a fine floor game in addition to scoring thirteen of the Juniors twenty-one points. The Juniors had a smooth working quintet and exhibited some fine team work. Except for a few minutes in the early part of the second half, when the Soph tied the score temporarily, it was almost impossible to penetrate the Junior defense.

"Benny" Gordon played the best game for the Sophs, counting from the floor on five occasions. "Larry" Lawson played a sterling defensive game for the Sophs also. Altbo being on the losing side, was still a part of a 10-6 score at the end of the first half the Sophs came back strong in the second half and tied up the score at fifteen all. Baskets by Mallone, Daly and a pair of counters from the foul line by Brundage gave the Juniors a lead which the Sophs could not equal and the final score read Juniors 21, Sophomores 15.

Neither team showed very good pass work altho the Juniors were much stronger on the defense than the Sophs. Many easy baskets were passed up in order to take long shots. Patterson broke up the passing of the Sophs many times and was the center of the defense of 23. Opportunities to score from the foul line were also lost, the Juniors caging five but out of thirteen chances and the Sophs but one out of four.

V A R S I T Y C L U B M E E T I N G

The regular monthly meeting of the Varsity Club was held on Thursday, December 15, in Main 7. Important matters taken up were the collecting of the money for the Injuries Fund, student employment in the Book Store and taking charge of the Football Banquet and inviting High School students to it. The money for the Injuries Fund is to be collected after the Christmas Vacation so everyone is requested to save fifty cents for his assessment.

The basketball team has added three more trophies to the trophy room and let us hope that a new trophy case will have to be added to the Y. M. C. A. room before our fast, flying quintet ends its so far successful season.

FIRST HOME GAME OF THE SEASON TONIGHT

PHIL LORD WILL PROBABLY MAKE HIS 1921 DEBUT

Alexander and Balock Have Developed a Very Efficient Scoring Machine. Putnam and Makofski Are in Good Form.

Rumors are afoot about the Campus that old Kris Kringl himself will be on hand to witness the encounter between the Tasker's Efficient Scoring Machine which manager Jaynes has scheduled five and the Lebanon Valley quintet for tonight.

The expectation of the game with Clark allowed Manager Jaynes one open date on his schedule and he immediately got in touch with the manager of the Lebanon Valley quintet, which is on an Eastern tour. He has successful in his negotiations and as a result the student body will be able to see the quintet which has added such notoriety as the vanquisher of West Point, Harvard and Brown, in action on the home floor before the holidays.

Little is known regarding the strength of the Lebanon Valley outfit but according to all reports the team wearing its colors in tonight's encounter will be of a high calibre. At Harvard Monday the fast Trinity five was forced to travel at top speed in order to come out on the end of a 28-21 score. The Lebanon Valley quintet, a fast battle may be looked for.

The Aggie quintet will in all probability be the same at the start of the game, the one which has started the games away from home. It is a sure bet that "Phil" Lord's long expected 1921 debut will be made tonight but whether he will start the game is still not decided. Lord was expected to be a big factor in the defense at the Harvard and West Point games. The twins received in the first week of practice kept him out of a uniform until this week.

Captain Alexander and Balock have developed into a very efficient scoring machine and with Harry Krawat waiting for a chance to show his wares prospects for first class shooting are good.

"Sam" Putnam has been playing in even better form than last year in the games this season and with Makofski and Lord as team mates chances of a strong attack from the Quaker state team seem slight.

The game will not be started until 8:30 in order to allow the Christmas vacation exercise of the Stena schools to be carried out. It is the wish of those in charge of this project that the student body keep away from the armory during the time allotted to the exercises.

According to Prof. Skinner, the date schedule is a tentative one, and no definite action approving or disapproving it has been taken by the Social Committee, and they will not meet for action until shortly after the Christmas holidays.

ASSEMBLY SPEAKER TALKS ON CONDITIONS IN RUSSIA

Compares American College Students to Those in Russia.

"What do I think of the college?" said H. G. Wells, speaker at Presidents' Hour last Wednesday, in an interview with a Campus reporter. "That is a bad question to answer, because I have not seen much of it. The part that I saw here this morning though, is a good looking bunch.

"Yes, life in a Russian college is far different from the life of an American student. The Russian is determined to get an education, it is one great desire, and he will risk everything to obtain it. Fame, privation, and even starvation are some of the risks he must take, but he does not stop to consider the cost.

"What about athletics and college activities? Athletics are practically unknown, but the Russian students place considerable emphasis on dramatics and music. Play is an important part of their college life, and they make much of it."

In the course of his talk at President's Hour last Wednesday, H. G. Wells of Old Lyme, Conn., who spoke in the interest of the Students' Friendship Fund, gave a brief but interesting description of conditions in Russia, but particularly as to how they affect the college students.

Students in this country, he stated, are fortunate in comparison with college students of Russia. The average American student does not begin to pay for his education, declared Mr. ing to suffer numerous privations, in order that they may obtain an education. The Students' Friendship Fund, according to the speaker, began in 1920, and its aim is to raise half a million dollars during 1922 among American college, university, and prep-school students, the amount to be distributed among destitute European students.

The form of the gift, said Mr. Wells, is not important, it can be either food, money or clothing. It has been estimated that 70,000 students in eleven different countries have been helped this year, according to Mr. Wells' statement. The speaker concluded his talk by appealing to each student to give the cost of one day living here at C. A. C. to the Student Friendship Fund.

CHRISTMAS VESPER SERVICES HELD LAST SUNDAY

The annual Christmas Vesper services were held at the Church last Sunday at 5:30 P. M. Rev. Marshall Dawson was in charge of the service. Christmas carols were sung and the story was told in a very interesting manner.

MERRY CHRISTMAS!

Each year one of our reporters—generally he who heard the cooed news and poultry notes—takes his typewriter in hand and pounds out a “Merry Christmas-to-you-all” story and occasionally a warning to: “Study while you’re home; you’ll never do it here.”

Well, boys and girls, (we can’t forget the girls at such a period of good will as this), the time has rolled around again for us to wish everyone a Merry Christmas with as much fervor as we can get out of a rather battered Underwood and a naturally morose disposition.

But even this deep moroseness of the journalistic frame of mind was reliev-ed when we heard the good news that the vacation would be prolonged for a few hours. There is nothing like a prolonged vacation—that is, if it isn’t too prolonged. For instance, a vacation of six months, twice a year would be an example of what evil can be wrought by the Extension Department. Of course, we suppose that everyone understands by this time that the Christmas vacation was extended through the efforts of the Extension Department. And if you don’t come back at all you will be thrown out by the efforts of the Suspension Department.

But all this has nothing to do with what we started out to say, namely the way while home in the city or town of your nativity, behave like a person who has been to an institution of higher education. Display your Freshman cap (if a Freshman) in the Main Street of the city on the day before Christmas. People will think you are advertising something and it will be a good promotion of the hat.

After Christmas you can commence to figure out what Freshmen rules are going out of effect at the end of the recess. No more book will be taken in until the second semester so you will have to get along as best you can with what there are here. You will find them very willing to co-operate however, although they do not expect to be ill treated and are disposed to do the same.

While you are home do not forget to tell the folks all about the basketball team. If they cannot understand the rules that will be illustrated with the baby’s balloon. Drop into the town newspaper office and ask the editor what are their advertising rates for first class news on the sporting page.

Well, this brings us back to: the journalistic moroseness again, (we need a vacation alright), so be sure and have a darn good time during the recess and extend to all our friends a Merry Christmas from the Campus.

A MEMORIAL

In years to come there will be a magnificent library and auditorium at Connecticut. In the center hall of the building there will hang a portrait of a fine old man. He will look down from the canvas, down upon the scenes of books and scholars, those two friends of his which he had often brought together.

And the suavitering visitor will step before the portrait to admire the noble head with the heavy white hair of the old scholar, the high forehead, the strong features, and his attention will be commanded and held while he muses to himself, “Henry Rutheen Monteith, he must have been a quite man.”

“A great man, sir!”

“Ah you know him, then? He was brilliant!”

“He was a great scholar and very wise.”

“A professor wasn’t he?”

“A professor? Yes, certainly, sir! A professor. But he was more than a professor, he was—MONTY.”

A LETTER FROM NEW YORK

Editor The Campus:

We of the New York Alumni Association are delighted to hear of the successes of the basketball team. Now that Harvard and West Point have been vanquished continue the good work throughout the season.

The crowd down here is with you heart and soul. We have one fine bunch of men in our association and at our meetings we are always glad to welcome any C. A. C. men who happens to be in New York at the time.

We always meet once a month, on the second Saturday night of the month at 6:00 P. M. at Hotel Prince George, East 28th street.

Our big meeting of the year will be held on Feb. 11th 1922. We are planning a big time on that night. Our list of speakers will be interesting to all C. A. C. men both old and young of the graduates.

We extend a cordial invitation to all C. A. C. men to be present.

One thing we of the New York Alumni Association would like to ask of the Athletic Association and that is to have a game of each sport played with some college team or teams in New York city or vicinity that we may have a chance to witness the team in action, for we cannot get away to see the home games as much as we would like to. Yours for success, WALLACE LYNCH '07

FIRE INSTRUCTIONS GIVEN TO R. O. T. C. MEN

Various Details Are Formed to be Ready in Case of Fire.

Last Monday Dec. 19, the R. O. T. C. were given instructions in the use of the fire apparatus at the college. Details were formed and taken to the places of the apparatus and shown how to use it.

The following rules have been laid down to be carried out in case of fire.

1. (a) Ringing of the college bell continuously. (b) Blowing of whistle continuously, both signals to be given as soon as can be effected. Immediately upon outbreak of fire, run to the Main Building and notify an occupant to sound the bell alarm, then proceed to the nearest telephone and call central heating plant asking to have whistle alarm sounded; day, 10-4, night, 820-4. Call the fire marshalls, J. N. Fitts, 382-3. Then inform Central the location of the fire and ask her to ring "ten" (10) on all Stairs lines, after which place yourself on the walk midway between Koons and Store halls to stay there and direct the firemen to the fire.

2. (b) Should fire occur during the day all duties will temporarily cease.

3. (c) Immediately upon the alarm of fire all men detailed for duty will ob-

GOOD WORK, BLACKGUARDS

The Blackguards surely have made amends for last year’s flakes. In the show Saturday night they retrieved their originality, their dash, their poise, their wit, and their unexcelled rug-time technique. These comical coons have won their way back into the hearts of all those who enjoy the snappy syncopation of darky routine, who like to hear the crash and smash of the tambourines, and to see the dusky smiles and Ethiopian antics of the end men.

When you come right down to it, what would Storrs be without its Blackguards?

AT OTHER COLLEGES
The alumni of Margaret Morrison College, and the woman’s college of Carnegie Institute of Technology recently held a bake sale, to which all the alumnae near Pittsburgh were supposed to contribute some baked article which might be sold. A substantial increase to the funds of the Alumnae association was the result.

There has been considerable interest of late in the number of American students who are attending British Universities. According to the latest official figures, there are now 190 Americans at Oxford, 60 at London University, 37 at Cambridge, and 21 at Edinburgh with others at the smaller universities. It is expected that the next term will bring a big increase in the number of American students. Thirty American Rhodes students are due as Oxford scholars early in 1928.

Horse shoe pitching is a new sport at the Iowa State College. A meet has been scheduled with Drake University, and contests are to be arranged later with other colleges.

STRINGENT RULES LAID DOWN FOR VACATION CUTS
Probation for Those Breaking Rules.

On February 18, 1921 the committee on Scholastic Standing adopted the following rule with regard to the students taking cuts at vacation time:

“No student whose name is not on the Honor List shall absolve himself from any class at a time when his absence prolongs any recess or vacation. If such student so absents himself, the penalty shall be immediate and automatic probation, pending the presentation of an explanation satisfactory to the Committee on Scholastic Standing, or failing such an explanation, probation for a length of time to be determined by the committee.”

This rule became effective for the first time at the Thanksgiving recess, and, because of ignorance for other reasons, a large number of students violated it.

Mr. G. S. Torrey gave out the following statement: “The Committee on Scholastic Standing has been extremely lenient with students who prolonged the Thanksgiving recess. It is to be clearly understood, however, that the rule against cutting at such times is to be administered, not with leniency, but with strictness, and all students should govern themselves accordingly.”

POMOLOGICAL SOCIETY MEETS IN HARTFORD

Many Conn. Men Take Part in the Program.

Many Connecticut men, both faculty and alumni, took important parts at the thirty-first annual meeting of the Connecticut Pomological Society in the Grange Hall in Hartford, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday of last week.

Professor Alva T. Stevens, president of the society, delivered an address on "Taxation and the Farmer." Professor S. P. Hollister also gave a lecture.

After two years as president of the Connecticut Pomological society, Mr. Stevens gave up the chair, and F. W. Browning of Norwich was elected to fill his place. Throughout the three days of the convention a very interesting program was carried out. Several illustrated lectures on current horticultural subjects were included in the course of the speaking. One of the most interesting was a lecture on the cultivation and propagation of blueberries, a heretofore unheard of topic.

Wednesday evening the entire society retired to the Hotel Bond and enjoyed a banquet, speeches and toasts following.

ACTIVITIES OF COLLEGE OUTLINED TO FRESHMEN

Leaders of Various Organizations Appeal to Freshmen for Support.

Each year it is customary at one college assembly in the first part of the year, for the leaders of the major activities on the Hill to talk to the student body and members of the faculty on the merits of their various organizations, and to give to the freshmen a clearer idea of the active organizations on the campus.

Robert Mathewson, editor in chief of the Campus gave a talk on the aims of the paper and the various steps by which a freshman works his way thru the stages of employment on the sheet. Harold Steck, editor in chief of the Nutmeg next spoke of the yearbook, its history and purpose.

The next speaker was Herbert Webb, president of the Dramatic Club, and he told why the new men should try-out for the club at the time set aside for this purpose, Raymond Abbe, representing the Debate Club, a comparatively new organization, outlined the plans of the society for the coming year; Henry Boas spoke in behalf of the Ag Club and Robert Keeler sketched the religious societies on the "Hill" and told of their objects.
