JUNIOR WEEK OPENES WITH CLASS PARADE AND TRADITIONAL BANQUET

CLASS PARADES ONTO ATHLETIC FIELD AND PRESENTS FLORAL TRIBUTE TO CAPTAIN METELLI

Details of Succeeding Events of Week

THE Gardner Dow Field, while during the evening all class rivalry that characterized the two classes during their freshman and sophomore years, was discarded last year by the junior class advisor, presided as toastmaster, while talks were given by the presidents of the two classes and by members of the faculty.

An addition to the program for Saturday afternoon is the presentation of the class cannon, which proved popular at former proms. The patrons and patronesses for the event are: Executive P. L. Steere, chairman, R. D. Brundage, M. E. Katz; Decortive, J. L. Oberly, R. E. Collins, H. E. Bolan.

The following will attend: William F. Closson with Miss Doris I. Bryant of Worcester, Mass.; R. C. Abbe, with Miss Clarissa Hawthorne of Haddaxville, Conn.; R. C. Robbins with Miss Lucille Moore of Somers, Conn.; C. P. Moore with Miss Gladys C. Killiam of Springfield, Mass.; O. J. Lyman with Miss Faith M. Henry, Hartford, Conn.; Theodore Hinman with Miss Jessie A. Willis, Boston, Mass.

(Junior Prom, feature event of Junior Week, will be held in Hawley Armory this evening with fully one thousand and five hundred couples attending. A large number of the student body have been hard at work during the past twenty-four hours decorating the armory hall and the excellent results of their labors will be rewarded by the appearance of the interior.

The usual overhead effect of blue and white will be maintained with illumination furnished by drop lights hanging below the bunting. All of the fraternities and the Cosmos Club will have boxes, each using their own color scheme. Decorating plans which have been materializing for the past month will be realized and from present indications the armory will be decked as never before.

Music for the evening will be furnished by the “Midnight Sun” orchestra of Middletown, which will open the big event by a concert from 8:30 to 9. After the concert, beginning at 9, a program of eighteen numbers and three extra will be given. The rays of the silvery moon, especially hired for the occasion, will furnish illumination for three of the dances. The orchestra will play from a raised platform on the western side of the armory instead of from the stage as has been the custom in previous years. The programs for the dance are in black leather, made in souvenirs, which has always proved popular at former proms.

The patrons and patronesses for the evening are: President and Mrs. C. L. Beach, Dr. and Mrs. E. W. Sinnott, Dr. and Mrs. H. D. Newton and Dr. and Mrs. L. C. Dunn.

The following will attend: William F. Closson with Miss Doris I. Bryant of Worcester, Mass.; R. C. Abbe, with Miss Clarissa Hawthorne of Haddaxville, Conn.; R. C. Robbins with Miss Lucille Moore of Somers, Conn.; C. P. Moore with Miss Gladys C. Killiam of Springfield, Mass.; O. J. Lyman with Miss Faith M. Henry, Hartford, Conn.; Theodore Hinman with Miss Jessie A. Willis, Boston, Mass.

TRINITY LOSES TO AGGIES IN LOOSE GAME

TRIPLE PLAY FEATURES
Coach Tasker's Batsmen Connect for Nine Hits.—Lord Does Mound Honors
Another win was added to the string of the Connecticut Aggies nine on Gardner Dow Field Wednesday afternoon when Coach Tasker's proteges handed the Trinity College varsity a 4-1 set back. The game itself was not of a spectacular nature but several excellent individual performances were evidenced. The inability of the Aggie batsmen to connect with the offerings of Tobie, the Hartford city moundman, for safe bingles at the right moment prevented a higher tally being made by the Nutmeggers. Eight members of the blue soxed tribe were left on bases.

"Phid" Lord did the mound honors for the Aggie outfit while Tobie served them up for the boys from the capital city. Lord had the edge on Tobie at times and had the advantage of excellent support.

A triple play in the fourth inning nipped in the bud what promised to be a sure enough batting fest. Makofsik, on an attempted bunt, sent a pop fly into the hands of Tobie. Tobie to Robinson to Norman completed the inning, Garden and Wetstone being retired at this juncture.

BLUE AND WHITE SWAMPS RHODE ISLAND IN DUAL TRACK MEET AGAIN GARDNER DOW FIELD

CONNECTICUT CINDERPATH MEN CAPTURE NINE FIRST AND SEVENTH SECOND PLACES

Kingston Aggregation is Defeated 77 to 58.—Visitors Put up Hard Fight but are Outclassed by Coach Daly's Charges in Final Events of Meet. Smith of Rhode Island Wins Two Mile Race in Spectacular Manner.

Connecticut's tracksters swamped Rhode Island State under a 77-58 score on Gardner Dow Field last Friday afternoon, coming through with their second brilliant victory in as many meets. Coach Daly's men were in top form, and although Rhode Island threatened at times in the meet, they were unable to make them come their way. A slight dispute arose during the shot put, Rhode Island leaving the field but returning after a little argument. The Connecticut team was up 57 at the time and merely increased her lead in the last two events, the shot put and the javelin throw. "Little Rhody" succeeded in taking but one place in these events, Holden finishing third in the weight heaving contest.

Slysz broke away to a perfect start in the first event of the afternoon, the hundred yard dash, and broke the tape in the winning time of 10.1 seconds. He was closely followed by "Chub" Hawley, while Tomman in Rhode Island took third. "Happy" Steere immediately added to the Aggie total, winning the 880 in two minutes 4.3 seconds. Rhode Island captured the second place with Beckett getting third. Rhode Island gained on the Blue and White in the 120 yard hurdle event, taking both first and second place, "Val" Johnson on one of them cleansed by an injured thigh, fought his way to third place.

The surprise of the afternoon came in the two mile run. Normand, in 2nd place with Beckett getting third. Rhode Island gained on the Blue and White in the 120 yard hurdle event, taking both first and second place, "Val" Johnson on one of them cleansed by an injured thigh, fought his way to third place.

The surprise of the afternoon came in the two mile run. Normand, in 2nd place with Beckett getting third. Rhode Island gained on the Blue and White, adding the entire points to the Aggie total, and ringing down the curtain on the first intercollegiate meet held on Gardner Dow Field.

The crowd was treated to a real thrill in the 440 yard dash. Slysz got away to a poor start, but with an ever increasing, powerful stride led the field at the last turn and flashed across the line in 53.1 seconds. Second and third places went to the Kingston crew.

"Monty" Slutzky found his match when "Danny" Noble heaved the discus 117 ft. and romped away with first place. "Monty" took second with Fort of Kingston third. Rhode Island was losing steadily in the field events and when the final event, the javelin throw, came on were already beaten. With dusky fast setting, Ashman, Lawson and Purple were pole vaulting on the previous day. Connolly, however, got away to a fine start and cleared 15 ft. 6 inch mark. He was closely followed by Smith of Connecticut, and the third place was won by Larry Viles of Springfield.

CONNECTICUT SIXTH AT SPRINGFIELD MEET

BLUE AND WHITE TEAM EARNS EIGHT POINTS

Boston College Wins First Place.—Steere, Jacoby, Jacquith and Dossin Win Connecticut's Points.

Competing against fourteen colleges of the east, twelve of Coach Daly's charges emerged single. For Connecticut at the Eastern Intercollegiate Athletic Association meet held in Springfield last Saturday.

Boston College finished first with 49-12 points, New York University, a new contestant in these events, was second with 27 points; Springfield, hosts of the occasion, nosed out a field comfortably well to take third place with eight points. Good work was turned in by the Holy Cross with 16 points, and the University of Connecticut, Carnegie with 22 points, Holy Cross with 22 points, and the University of Connecticut with 8 points.

In the mile run Paul "Happy" Steere, whose yard dash and the mile run in the Rhode Island meet, tied for third place with Forbes of Worcester Polytechnic Institute.

"Jake" Jacoby repeated his stunts of last Friday and Saturday in the two mile run, being beaten only by a narrow margin by Eldridge of Springfield. Jacoby broke last year's record for this event by about fifteen seconds.

Philip "Babe" Jacquith, winner of the hammer throw in the Rhode Island meet, hurled the missile 106 feet 4 inches and won fourth place.

Carl Dossin, who won third place at pole vaulting on the previous day against Rhode Island, tied for second place with Beasley of Springfield College at the 10 foot 6 inch mark.

AGGIES TO MEET BATES
ON DOW FIELD TODAY

Team Ready to Farnish Second Victory of Junior Week

FRESH from their victory over Trinity last Wednesday, the Blue and White nine will take the field against Bates College Friday afternoon.
Although little is known about the Bates outfit, it is expected that they will give the Nutmeggers a stiff battle.
Coach Tasker has not decided who will take the mound against the team from the Pine Tree State, but it is probable that "Dnee" Sawin or "Bob" Lauscher will take the twirling honors.
The dizzy corner will probably be occupied by "Billy" O'Brien, as the stubby freshman showed up well in the Trinity game last Wednesday. It is not probable that other changes will be made in the line-up and high hopes are being entertained as to the result of the contest.

PIG ROAST REPLACES
FRESHMAN BANQUET

Student Org. Acts Favorably on New Collegiate Tradition
The pig roast is now the college tradition replacing the freshman banquet. The student body at a student organization meeting in Hawley Armory last Thursday night voted una­ animously in favor of the revised rules for the pig roast.
President R. H. Mathewson anounced that changes in the constitution have been drawn up and are posted on the bulletin board. These will be voted on at the next meeting.
The annual election of officers will take place at the last meeting of the college year, which will occur Thursday, May 26. Name of candidates for office must be posted on the bulletin board at least a week before that date, and each candidate must receive at least fifty signatures after his name or he will not be considered.

The program for Commencement Week has been fully organized by the committee of faculty and seniors, of which Doctor Sinnott and Andrew Schender are the respective chairmen.
June 4 will be Baccalaureate Sunday, and the services will be held at 2:30 P.M. at the Church. Rev. J. B. Parry of Springfield, Mass., is to be the speaker.

From Sunday until Thursday, there will be few activities. Thursday affternoon at 3:00, there will be a tea dance in the Armory.

Friday, June 10, will be class day.
The regular class day exercises will be held in the Armory at 2:00 P.M.
Following these will be the impressive presentation of the Monteith Portrait in the Dining Hall. From 5:00 to 6:00 P.M. the fraternities will hold their reunions at the various fraternity fraternity houses and rooms. At 8:00 P.M., the Dramatic Club will present
"The Doll's House," a three act play by Ibsen.

Activities will start Saturday morning at 9:45 A.M., with the formation of the Academic Procession in front of the Main Building. The line of march will be direct to Hawley Armory, where the Commencement Exercises will be held. The address of the day will be made by President Ogilby of Trinity College. It is hoped that Governor Lake will be present to award the diplomas. At noon the alumni of the college are to have their annual luncheon in the Dining Hall, to be followed by a business meeting in Main 7. At 3:30 P.M., there will be a baseball game between C. A. C.
and Providence College. The activities of the day will close with the Alumni Jollification in Hawley Armory at 8:00 P.M.

Stevens Tech recently held a prep school day and entertained about 500 prep school and high school men for the day. These men came from the state and went back with aroused amnitions.

A NEW SLATE

At a meeting next week the Campus Board will wipe clean the journalistic slate and write new names at the top of its board.

The personnel of the new Board stands this year as we who are going out stood last year, before a gate of great opportunity. It can be forecasted that opening the gate, they will encounter a new view, a new vision, different, fascinating, significant.

They will operate in an activity which demands great effort, foresight, judgment. They know this. They have been preparing for it. They MUST succeed.

There is very little that the outgoing men of the Campus can find to say. Our work is done. We have played our game and have enjoyed the playing. If our efforts have contributed anything of value to the College, then we are content.

The graduating editor of the Campus cannot praise too highly his comrades of the pen who have received but little honor or applause, but have not spared themselves in working for their paper.

We hope that our successors will see that we have been unable to see, to do that which we have left undone.

THE YEAR

The college year is nearly spent. In significance of accomplishment it may be considered as the final chapter of the post-war period.

Coming in after the war, the classes of 1921 and 1922 stumbled through the new one—the other,—1922 avoiding the pitfalls into which its predecessor fell.

Perhaps the greatest contribution of the class of 1922 has come about through its ability to combine the practical with the ideal. The class has made tremendous advances but it has never gone too far. It has never been cut off from the world. It dreamed for the future, but in the present built sure and lasting foundations.

MONTIETH PORTRAIT TO BE UNVEILED JUNE 9

Artist Started Painting in December, 1921, and Finished One Week Before the Death of Professor Montieth.

The portrait of Henry Ruthven Montieth will be presented to the college in a special public exhibit on Class Day, June 9, at the Dining Hall where it will be unveiled by President C. L. Beach.

Harold A. Green of Hartford started the Montieth portrait in December at the request of the students of the College and finished it in the third week of March, 1922, one week before the death of Professor Montieth.

At the time of his death Henry Ruthven Montieth was professor emeritus of history and dean of the college and had been connected with the college for a period of twenty-two years. He was born in 1848 in Vermont. In 1865 he entered Dartmouth College and in 1869 graduated as one of the youngest and of the brightest men in his class. Law was the subject of his studies, and after reading law in New York City for some time, he became a member of the New York Bar and practiced in that city for seventeen years. Later he returned to Vermont to follow his profession. His ability as a teacher was too great to be unrecognized, however, and he became an instructor in a Vermont academy and later at the Unionville school in Connecticut. In 1879 he accepted the position of principal of the Farmington High School, serving in this capacity for a period of twenty years. In the fall of 1900, Professor Montieth came to Connecticut Agricultural College as professor of Civics, English and Mathematics. Later he taught French, and in 1919, he was made professor emeritus of History, being the only one on whom this honor has been conferred at the Connecticut Agricultural College.

From the beginning of his work at Connecticut, Professor Montieth manifested a deep interest in the happiness and joys of the student body. The history of the college for the past twenty years has been interwoven with the influence of Professor Montieth.

The Montieth Portrait Fund, started by the students in the fall of the year has received contributions from the faculty and alumni as well as the student body. The painting has been exhibited in Hartford and Norwich, and has created deep interest. At the presentation, speeches will be made by President C. L. Beach, a member of the alumni association and the president of the student organization.

If there is anything about the year that has taught, it must be this,—that the flimsy, fleeting, superficial and often indifferent classes of student thought are almost worthless in comparison to the deeper, greater, more lasting things that demand of each individual the best in him or her, but which repay the individual a hundredfold and which contribute a lasting benefit to the Alma Mater.

THE CAMPUS PHILOSOPHER

All blokes who habitually step on the woman's toes are requested to carry a cloth on their hips.

But be sure nothing else is stowed there.

"Eventually, why not now," quoth the bashful frosh as he started to kiss her for the seventeenth time.

A word to the wise Promenaders—Reserved seats at the Raven will go on sale shortly.

TO THE PROM GIRL

You dress like a million, you dance like a queen.

You're a sport, for you came in your own limousine.

And so ten bucks that I hadn’t. At kissing you’re there—how my room-mate did stare

As you climbed out and publicly answered my prayer,

And won me ten bucks that I have

The bird that coined "You just know she wears them" probably received the inspiration in a modern dance.

--C--

Chairman Steere of the executive committee announces that federal "kids have OK’d his formula for the punch to be served at the Prom and we are willing to supply anything that may be needed.

--C--

Still, he might have slipped them something.

--C--

The latest dope is that no couples will be allowed to leave the Armory during the intermission, the idea being that if you want to do that sort of thing you must at least give the chaperones a sporting chance of spotting you.

--C--

Why is it that the young idea who usually seek the limelight, scurry into the shadows during a moonlight dance?

--C--

Don’t you tell ’em!

--C--

"Music hath charms to soothe the savage beast." Is that why the stage always falls in line?

--C--

The boys will play ball Friday afternoon to develop their swing for the Prom.

--C--

The "Midnight Sun" Orchestra will be called the "Moonlight Fun" during the numbers when the latter reigns supreme.

--C--

Have a good time. You’ll be paying for it long enough.

--C--

The reader will kindly note that no mention has been made of "terpsichorean" or "light fantastic."—Pass the bottle of burnt Bandolene and we’ll call it a night.

--C--

This is Junior Week—try and study!

--C--

How delightful are the spring woods —so full of blossoms and twosomes!

SAFETY VALVE

On the eve of the beginning of Junior Week activities, as the representatives of the Junior Class, I wish to express my appreciation to the college for their co-operation in helping to make Junior Week a success.

While it would be a rather lengthy article if I were to enumerate all the ways the different college departments have helped, it is only fair to mention some of the more important ways they have aided.

The Social Committee, by working with the committee on the Junior Prom, have helped very much to bring about what should be the best Junior Prom ever.

The Business Office has enlarged the stage, changed the lighting effects, and had the curtains cleaned and fixed. All these things not only help the production of the play considerably, but also improve the appearance of the Armory.

The Dining Hall is doing valiant service in taking care of our visitors, and the arrangements of the Junior-Senior Banquet was certainly appreciated.

Then too, thanks are due to all the other departments of the college which have helped to make this a bigger, better Junior Week.

L. H. BEMONT,
Chairman Junior Week.

NOTED CANADIAN AUTHOR TO SPEAK AT ASSEMBLY

Rev. Robert Norwood of Overbrook, N.J., a noted Canadian author and lecturer, will be the speaker at President’s Hour, Wednesday, May 24. Rev. Norwood is to be one of the leading clergymen of America. He is the son of a Nova Scotian fisherman, and he himself is a fine fisherman and sailor. He is one of the best known clergymen of the English-speaking poet. Rev. Norwood, who has been in the U. S. but four years, is said to be one of the soundest men in the country. He speaks English with a very natural, with excellent stories and jokes. "Bill Boram," the story of a New England fisherman is his latest poem. Rev. Norwood comes to Storrs highly recommended and he should prove to be one of the best speakers of the year.

Within the next few days, the elections for the new Campus Board will take place. The new Board will have an opportunity to work into the harness by publishing the remaining two issues of the year. New reporters will be needed to fill the vacancies on the reporting staff.

The bookstore reports that it is selling almost nothing but Pall Malls this week. Well, why not prosper once a year?

The Gurleyville natators have a full system of pickets and banners posted around the ole swimmin' hole this week.
KAMPUS KLIPS

A green little Freshman, in a green little way,
Mixed some chemicals for fun one day;
The green little grasses now tenderly wave,
Over the green little Freshman's green little grave.

Student in Journalism: "It will be possible to use boats or canoes on the new Storrs Lake."

Jerrry: "What do they want boats on a small lake like that for?"

Mr. Stemmons: "Didn't you ever have a girl, Jerry?"

My room-mate is humorous. At least he thinks he is. When the bob returns from Willie Sunday morning early, oh so early, he wakes me and says, "Time to get up." He tells me there's a letter from my woman at Smith, when it's only a bill for the Nutmeg. Though I'm a junior, the fool looks stern and says, "Frosh, wind my watch."

But during Junior Week when I was walking with the girl, he met us and said to her, "Haven't you been on the Firing Line long enough to know that powder always spreads evenly?"

At the funeral Dawson of Willimantic supplied the flowers.

Visitor: "See how bald that student is. I should think he would do something for it."

Cruel Classmate: "An empty barn needs no shingles."

"So you think co-education is a great thing?"

"Sure is. Our daughter got engaged at college and saved us the expense of a long campaign."

My Turn Next
Doris: "Is Mr. Hansen courting you?"

Alice: "Not exactly yet. But he is approaching it step by step. When he first came he sat at all the evening with the post-card album in his lap. Next time he sat with my poodle in his lap. Next he took my little brother in his lap. So you see I hope it will be my turn soon."

How Thrilling!
Jacquith, whose engagement to a great heiress has just been announced, says, "It's fine! Every time I kiss her I feel as if I am clipping a coupon of a government bond."

Time: About June 15, 1922.
25: "You look dejected."
22: "Yes, a business life gets on my nerves."
25: "Been in business long?"
22: "No, I start tomorrow."

Senior "Where is our electric iron?"

Red Potter "About a week ago some one borrowed it and they have had it for about a month I guess."

The Megaphone

Well, it looks as if that track team of ours can consider itself promoted to the head of the class. Not satisfied with handing the Rhode Island State footslogs a thorough setback, the Aggie trackmen, hied themselves to the Eastern Intercolloquiates at Springfield the following day and came back with sixth place tucked safely under their belt. Norwich University nosed out Coach Daley's understudies by a half point for fifth place.

"Hold on to your horses! Here come the white elephants!" proved to be a false alarm, however, as it was only the Juniors parading onto Gardner Dow Field, arrayed in white flannels and all the fixings, for the purpose of presenting Captain Metelli with the traditional wreath.

Nothing slow about that Junior class.

Six members of the varsity claim the privilege of wearing those cute little canes this week. And then there were about four more handsome Juniors on the bench.

We liked those whatchamaycall them dresses the Junior girls broke out in.

Yes indeed, it's quite a class.

This afternoon's game should be a humdinger. The boys from Bates don't take kindly to the idea of being on the short end of a baseball score this season; no more do we. Therefore it should be some contest. Q.E.D.

NUTMEG DISTRIBUTED
DURING JUNIOR WEEK
New Volume Contains Many Improvements Over All Former Publications

For the first time in the history of the College the Nutmeg was on the Hill and ready for distribution on Nutmeg Day, which was last Thursday. This is the sixth yearbook that has been published in the history of the college.

This year book is a brown leather covered volume of two hundred and fifty pages, dedicated to the late Professor Henry Rutliven Monteith. As of full Junior Week, the book was a full page photograph of Governor Lake, who endorsed the book and sent a message to Connecticut.

The general plan of the book is considerably changed from that of all former issues. Several new and interesting features which have been added to the volume are a double color effect throughout the book, the index, the book cover, and the sections that are devoted to track and to the women students of the college. Campus views are featured in a green tinted section in the front part of the volume. Junior individual portraits are featured and the senior section contains a snapshot gallery.

According to tradition the juniors will entertain the seniors of The New Mexico College on a Day and One Half Picnic at Van Paterson in the Orange Mountains. Chaperons, as well as eats, will be plentiful.

CO-EDS PLAN FORMAL DANCE AND DINNER

Holcomb Hall and Valentine House to be Used for New Social Event at Connecticut

Plans for a formal dance in Holcomb Hall on May 26 are being completed by the co-eds. This will be the first formal dance given by the co-eds at the Connecticut Agricultural College and the girls hope to make it a tradition.

It is planned to use the large room in the basement for dancing. The rooms on the main floor and the balcony will be thrown open for those who wish to rest during and between dances. Refreshments will be served on the porch of Valentine House which will be arranged and decorated in cabaret style. The programs are to be unique and artistic.

Music will be furnished by the Peerless Orchestra of Willimantic.

The Committee in charge are:
Executive Committee: Mrs. B. W. Birdsell, Margaret Dunn, Florence B. Tobaco and Galdys Goldthorp.

Decoration Committee: Margaret Hall, Elizabeth Hamilton, Evelyn Dillen.

Refreshment Committee: Mrs. Louise Dow; Anne Flanagan, Emma Reed; Marion V. Tooie.

THE TROPHY ROOM FUND IS GROWING VERY SLOWLY

Faculty Contributions Expected to Complete Budget Necessary to Equip Room Before Commencement Week

Contributions to the fund for fixing up the Trophy Room in the Armory were not as large as expected and as a result the room could not be put in shape by Junior Week as was the original plan. Fifty-one dollars was collected but this did not allow for the purchase of the of the necessary furniture. With the help of the faculty donations it is expected that the room can be in shape by Commencement Week.

Professor Arsene Croteau attended the New England Modern Language Convention held at Boston University, Boston, on May 13.

Treasure always, Timothy, the memory of the maiden who flashes a pair of foot-marked pumps at the end of your dance while she tells you you're the snappiest stepper on the Hill.
