P A U L  D U F A U L T  W I L L  S I N G  O N  A P R I L  2 8

Noted Artist Has Made Long Tours.— Receives Only Highest Praise.— Violinist and Pianist Accompany Singer.

Mr. Paul Dufault, the great French tenor, has been engaged to sing in Hawley Armory, Saturday evening, April 28, at eight o'clock, by the social committee. Mr. Dufault brings with him two able assistants, Roland Poisson, violinist, and Alfred Carrier, pianist. The college has been extremely fortunate in securing an artist of Mr. Dufault's ability to come here. It is expected that his concert will transcend anything ever before heard on the campus. The social committee and the Brush and Scroll are working hard to arrange the concert and get the student body to come out. The regular Saturday night dancing will follow and the admission charge will be fifty cents.

Plans Long Tour

Twenty-five years of touring the world on the concert stage is the record of Mr. Dufault. He has recently returned from a transcontinental tour of Canada, where he gave ninety concerts, and where the press united in giving him the highest praise. He is a personal friend of John McCormack, both having toured Australia at the same time. Up to the present time, he has made a great many phonograph records for various companies. He will leave this fall for a two-year tour which will take him through the English Colonies, South Africa, India, Australia, New Zealand; also China, Japan, and back through the United States. He selects these countries in order to open up new fields to the concert stage. He is now on a tour of the New England States.

Has Received Much Praise

Mr. Dufault is a man of intense and pleasing personality; he has a rich, colorful voice; and he is a true artist. He puts a great deal of interpretation into his roles as he sings them.

LAWSON ELECTED TO MANAGE BASKETBALL

A. A. chooses Russell White as Assistant.—Elizabeth Hamilton, 24, and Catherine Manchester, 25, to Manage Co-ed Team.

At the regular meeting of the Athletic Association, with President Daly presiding, managers and assistant managers of basketball for next year were elected. Wilbur D. Lawson, '24, was chosen manager of the 1923-24 basketball team. Those nominated to be assistant managers of basketball were John W. Goodrich, '25, Robert S. Swann, '25, and Robert A. MacDonald, '25. White was elected on the second ballot. Elizabeth B. Hamilton, '24, was elected manager of the 1923-24 Co-ed basketball team. Laura Kittner, '25, and Catherine Manchester, '25, were nominated as assistant managers. Catherine Manchester was elected.

An amendment, providing that all names of candidates for assistant managership of athletic teams shall be posted on the Bulletin Board one week previous to their election was adopted.
Connecticut won its first home game of the 1923 baseball season on Saturday afternoon when Coach Crim's team sent the Clark University nine back to Worcester with a 5 to 4 defeat hanging over them. White, pitching his first game for the Aggies, pitched almost shutout ball, but errors on the part of the Aggie infield gave Clark their chances to score. White held the Worcester boys to eight scattered hits and did not give a single free ticket to the initial sack. Six of the Clark battlers went out on strikes.

Connecticut Takes Lead

The visitors started off strong in the first frame, making two runs by taking advantage of errors on the part of the Connecticut infield. Ganem, the lead-off man for Connecticut, singled sharply into left field on the first ball pitched. O'Brien was safe when Fall dropped his fly to left field. Brundage singled, and Makofski drove in two runs when he clouted a double to center field. White hit a ball too hard for Fowler to handle and it bounded to right field, scoring the third and fourth runs.

Clark Gets Another

Neither team was able to score again until the fifth inning, when Puellio doubled driving across a Clarkunner who was reposing on the second sack. The Aggies had chances to score in every inning, but inability to produce hits with men on bases cost them many chances to tally.

AGGIES SMOOTHERED UNDER HEAVY HITTING OF BOSTON UNIVERSITY

LOCALS SECURE BUT THREE SINGLES WHILE VISITORS POLE OUT THIRTEEN LONG DRIVES

Lord Starts Game.—Three Pitchers Used.—Visitors Hit Two Homers in One Inning.—O'Brien Plays Well for Connecticut.

The Connecticut team struck a snag in its second home game of the season Wednesday afternoon when all locals were snubbed under by Boston University to the tune of 11 to 1. The Aggies failed to hit consistently; only three singles were garnered off the two opposing twirlers. According to comparative scores, which count for little in baseball, the game should have been close, but the Beantown players had their batting clothes on and smote the ball with a vengeance, collecting thirteen hits, including five doubles and two homors.

Coach Crim surprised the Aggie rooters by sending Lord to the mound. "Phii" breezed along in good style for the first five innings, allowing only five hits and two runs. The first tally came in the second on Higgenbothem's double, Latour's sacrifice, and Crossen's out. Connecticut tied the count in the fourth when Brundage walked, stole second, went to third on a passed ball, and scored on Fitzgadler's single first over.

B. U. went into the lead by chalking up another score in the fifth and sixth inning the put the game on ice. Four hits, including two doubles and two homors, drove four runs across the plate and caused Lord's retirement in favor of White. In the seventh the visitors nicked "Gramp's" delivery for three hits and Wells finished the game which had to be called at the end of the seventh to allow the Boston collegians to catch a train.

The features of the game were home runs by Latour and Tyler, while for Connecticut O'Brien showed up well both at bat and in the field, his catch of Tyler's low liner in the seventh helping to check the batting rally of the visitors.

The Alpha Gamma Phi fraternity defeated the Sigma Phi Gamma in an interesting bowling match. Littleworth was high man with a total of 266. He also had a high single of 94. Aylwijn was high man for Sigma Phi Gamma. The scores:

The second block was much slower than the first. There were no very high runs, Ganem leading with two runs of seven. Although Ganem made some shots that drew much applause from the spectators, he could not over come the lead that held with Feldman established and Feldman ran out, leading by thirteen balls. “BROWN BEAR” HANDS AGGIE BALL Tossers Second Set-Back of Season

HITS BUNCED TOGETHER CINCH CONTEST FOR PROVIDENCE COLLEGIANS WHO WIN 7 TO 1

Connecticut Scores in Opening Frame.—Brown Ties and Then Holds Lead Throughout Game.—Laubser Pitches Well.

Connecticut was defeated by Brown by a score of 7 to 1 on Thursday last, in a game that for the first six innings was a contest for the lead. Brown, however, came through strong in the seventh and eighth innings, and then held off the Aggies in the ninth to win the game. Laubser, on the mound for the Aggies, allowed but five scattered hits for three runs in the first six innings. In the seventh the Bears got four hits in a row which netted them four runs. Up to this inning the score stood 3 to 1 in favor of Brown.

Connecticut Scores in First

Connecticut scored in the first inning, when with two out, Metelli, who singled over third and then made second on a wild throw, was sent in by Laubser, who hit one of Cornell's offerings for three bases. Makofski hit a grounder to the second baseman and was thrown out, ending the Aggies' scoring for the rest of the game. Brown also got a run in the first frame when Hoffman, the Brown first baseman, singled and sent one across.

Brown Takes Lead

Brown scored again in the third. Troumbower singled and was advanced on Metelli's sacrifice. Kneedl, the next man up drove one over third for two bases, sending Troumbower home. Aggies Held

In the first of the fifth the Aggies had two men on and a run in, ground ruled out to first, O'Brien singled and stole second on the next ball. Metelli flew out to the first baseman, Laubser single and Beane, allowed Brown to third, and stole second on the next ball. Makofski's slow grounder was gathered in by the Brown second baseman, and he was thrown out at first.

Brown Adds to Score

Brown's third tally came in the last of the sixth. Kneedl struck out. Hoffman made first on an error. Mitchell struck out. Dugan hit for two bases, scoring Hoffman, and Murphy flew to O'Brien, closing the inning. Brown's “lucky seventh” opened with Provost lacing out a two bagger. Laubser got out, on Troumbower single, filling the bases. Laubser tightened and struck out Cutter. Kneedl was thrown out at first on a slow grounder. Hoffman hit for two bases, cleaning the bags, and was out on a wild throw. Single scoring the seventh run for Brown. In the last of the eighth Laubser struck out Murphy; walked Provost, and struck out Cornelli. Provost tried to steal second but was put out by Fitzgerald on Metelli's throw. In the ninth, the Aggies' last chance, Gamey, O'Brien and Metelli were all thrown out at first.

The A. A. voted that President Daly appoint a committee of three to draw up a new contract with the Book Store as the old contract expires soon.

The regular meeting of the A. A. for the election of officers is scheduled for the fourth of May, and President Daly will soon post the list of candidates on the Bulletin Board. The same rules that apply to the nomination and election of officers for the Student Organization will apply to the nomination and election of officers of the Athletic Association.

UPPER WALLS OF POOL COMPLETELY TILED

During the past two weeks the upper walls of the swimming pool have been tiled and work will be commenced on the lower portions immediately. The parts which have been completed are along the walk which surrounds the pool itself, and the outer section of the gallery for spectators. It is expected that the work of tiling will take fully four weeks longer so that if nothing happens to prevent the Aggies men should be able to take their first plunge somewhere in the vicinity of Junior Week.

HELP!!
With the end of the college year fast approaching and the members of the 1923 Nutmeg doing their utmost to get the yearbook out for Junior Week, it is more than fair to the student body, the individuals and the group organizations that owe money to the 1922 Nutmeg to be asked to pay at once. If the debt of last year's production is in the near future there will be no 1923 Nutmeg, according to the statement of the members of the board.

The 1922 Nutmeg Board is doing its best to get the debt cleared up so as to prevent a delay of the present yearbook. Advertisers are being solicited for payments now long overdue, individuals are being interviewed, plans are being formulated to stage an entertainment to defray the balance of the debt. Heartly co-operation from all of the student body is solicited by both the 1922 and the 1923 Nutmeg boards.

A SOPHOMORE CLUB
At the present time there are movements on foot to bring about the establishment of a set of athletic eti quette rules for Connecticu which will deal with the care of visiting teams. Whether or not the victor of our many athletic contests shall be given privileges of celebrating on Gardner Dow Field, and other matters such as other athletic morals. Now comes the question: Who is to carry out this good work? At other colleges there are sophomore societies that are comprised of from twenty to twenty of the leading men of that class whose duty it is to carry out all athletic regulations and to enforce freshman regulations.

At the University of Vermont, a society composed of sophomores, called the "Gold Key," cares for visiting athletic teams, enforces freshman regulations, and aids the other honor fraternities in carrying out their work as concerns the student body. At Dartmouth the "Green Key" is the supreme society and has similar functions to the one at Vermont. The "Red Key" of Cornell is a similar society according to a recent newspaper. The "Vermont Cyclic" are there plans among these three societies to establish a national honorary sophomore society.

It would be well if the committees now investigating the matter of the code of athletic rules would go a step further and organize a club or society whose duty it is to see to it that these rules are carried out and to enforce the freshman regulations as laid down by the student body and the sophomore class. This organization would also concern itself with the carrying out and the preservation, and the establishing of traditions at Connecticut. Possibly it would be well to have two juniors and one senior to act as general supervisors over the work of the underclassmen. Seven or eight men would be sufficient to carry on all necessary work at Connecticut. A list of ten nominees might be named or approved by the Senate and then the men elected by the class. From this body the two juniors would be elected or at least approved by the Student Senate, and the senior member if there is to be one, could be elected by the Senate or the student body at large.

Such a club or society could do much good at Connecticut and should be given serious consideration as a definite action taken in the near future.

FINANCES
During the past two or three years we have witnessed the publication of an equal number of Nutmegs on the Hill. Almost invariably there has been a scarcity, and sometimes matters have reached a troublesome state because of financial difficulties. When this state of affairs comes about the question "Who is to pay for it?" arises. Perhaps the easiest way to settle this question is to be prepared to meet it by empowering the Nutmeg boards with full financial responsibilities. That is, if the Nutmeg Board makes money on the publication the members of the Board would be privileged to divide this up among its members; on the other hand, if the Board lost money they would be held responsible for the debts they incurred. This would act as a double incentive for the Board to do good work, would prevent a needless expenditure of money, and would insure more co-operation among all of the members of the Board. In case of a loss, the Board, if the students really had no wraithing to do, who should be responsible, who should pay, would there be any unnecessary hold-ups on other books as there has been this year. Debts would be paid off much sooner than at present. There could be no “passing the buck” to class or student body as is now possible.

Some will argue that if the Board is given full financial powers the strife to make money will be so acute as to ruin the book. This is not so, for the precedent established by preceding books and the sentiment and criticism among the fellows will make it a necessity to publish a book of the same good quality as those which have gone before.

The Board thinks it would be well for the Student Senate to adopt this system as a standard. Possibly, to a certain extent, a similar scheme would work well for the "Connecticut Campus." Certainly this would be a good incentive for the members of the "Nutmeg" and the "Campus" Boards to act as the best of their abilities both editorially and financially.

1923 DEBT TO BE PAID IN NEAR FUTURE
Making a final drive, the Board of the 1922 Nutmeg and the class of 1923 are determined to clear up the outstanding debt incurred in publishing last year's Nutmeg. The sum of about one hundred dollars was voted from the class treasury to go toward defraying the debt. Plans are now under way to put on a show which will probably be composed of the various branches of the talent of the college, including the Dramatic Club, the Blackguards, and the Men's and Girls' Glee Clubs, with instrumental and vocal solos by members of the different theatrically inclined groups.

The outstanding advertisements are being collected as well as the bills owed to the book by many of the students on the campus, and it is expected to have the entire debt of about four hundred dollars cleared up before many weeks are passed.

JOHN A. LOMAX TELLS OF COWBOY SONGS
John A. Lomax, composer and collector of cowboy songs, was the speaker at Assembly this week. He gave a brief story of his life in the West and told of the cowboys and heroes that passed his father's ranch during his boyhood.

Mr. Lomax is a graduate of Harvard and held a travelling fellowship from that institution for three years following his graduation. During this time, he roamed the ranch country and put on the cowboy songs, putting them into written form. Mr. Lomax recited a number of these songs and sang a few during the course of the lecture. The audience entered willingly in the chorus of several of the numbers.

RONAN-FOUNTAIN ORCHESTRA TO PLAY FOR PROM
The committee in charge of the Junior Prom has secured the Ronan-Fountain Orchestra of Middletown to play for the most important dance in the Connecticut social calendar, and if the band secured lives up to its past reputation, the music will be all that can be desired.

Those who attended the Prom of last year will remember the quality of the music at that event and the orchestra engaged for the affair of this year is composed of several of the same men.

The "Three Mugs of Beer" will hold their first annual banquet on the night of the Junior Play, following the staging of the production.

(Thus named because it is so different from Chaucer.)

"What ho, my lads," as the skipper said to the crew that mutinied, "a fair barque heaves aboard" and set sail for the port of last resort.

This dance is dear to the heart of the male Aggie; for the cost is negligible; most exceedingly null.

The skill required is ability to heave a line and drag a co-ed. (Technical term found in the August 1929 issue of the "Journal of Hereditary Science," in an article by Prof. I'm The Bank of Bornhell University entitled, "The Scientific Ego of the Co-ed Pericap," which, loosely translated, means, "Do Women 'Neck'?")

Yes, the hour is at hand. Or rather, the hand points to the hour.

It is time to clean the grease-spots from last summer's white flannels, purchase the annual bottle of Bando~line, and set sail for the port of last resort.

Formally the co-eds are "there," formerly they weren't. (Wise crack.)

White ducks not perishable; Max Press sold the other kind.

We understand that dancing will take place part of the evening.

The patrons and -esses are praying for rain, snow, cloudbursts, or any other dire calamity.

This business of holding a dance without dancing— is like going to the "Ravine" to play ping-pong.

The different chairmen will meet during the coming week to look over their respective projects and estimate on the number of men needed for each and exactly what work must be accomplished. The executive committee will then assign the proper number of men to each section and thus insure an equal distribution of labor.

The Faculty expect to turn out in full force this year as formerly and it is hoped by those in charge that the student body will show the same pep and spirit as in other years and help to make this the best Connecticut Day in the history of the college.

Stude: "A fellow starting for Codfish Falls on a bright spring day with his favorite co-ed."

Prof.: "Well then, what is a pessimist?"

Stude: "The same fellow coming back."

PHI MU DELTA

ANNUAL DANCE

On Friday evening, April 13, the Phi Mu Delta fraternity held their annual dance in Hawley Armory. The Armory was decorated in a canopy of blue and white with side trimmings of orange and black, the fraternity colors.

The dance was featured by the date on which it was held, Friday, the 13th. There were thirteen dances on the program and the names of the pieces were all made to fit the occasion. There were about thirty couples at the dance, among whom were Captain C. R. Crim and Lieutenant Passmore as guests.

Patrons and patronesses were Dr. and Mrs. Edmund W. Sinnott, Professor and Mrs. I. G. Davis and Mr. and Mrs. Earl R. Moore. The dancing lasted from eight to twelve to music by "Chick Stanley's Syncopating Five."

SIX NAMES RECOMMENDED FOR NEW HEAD COACH

Six applicants for the position of head coach at Connecticut have been recommended by the Athletic Council and presented to the Board of Trustees for the election of one to the position.

The monthly trustee meeting was held in Hartford on Wednesday of this week. No action was taken by the Board of Trustees as they desired more information about each candidate. At the next meeting of the Trustees, to be held in May, a final vote will probably be taken and the new coach named.

All work will be given in the laboratories in Holcomb Hall, the center of women's work on the Hill, and will be supervised by the regular staff.

Practical poultrymen will also be given an opportunity, similar to last year, to take intensive courses in Poultry for three weeks each year, to take intensive courses in Poultry for three weeks each year, the courses are to be open to anyone on the payment of a small fee. Instruc-tion will be given by the staff of the Poultry Department, assisted by specialists and experienced practical poultrymen. The courses will be taken separately. The first week will cover incubation, brooding and rearing; the second section and calling; and the third teaching, housing, marketing and judging.

Last year's courses included students from four states, brought here by the reputation of the College poultry plant for its practical and experimental work.

You Men Who Study Dairying

At College...

A RE fortunate in learning at first hand the real worth of feeds before having to spend money, and perhaps lose it in experiment. Many self-educated farmers have lost time and money both in casting about for the best feeds.

At college you have learned the value of gluten feed as the protein basis for a concentrate ration. When you start dairying for yourself don't lose either money or time in looking for substitutes. Remember that Buffalo Corn Gluten Feed has served dairymen faithfully for a score of years. Make Buffalo the big ingredient of your concentrate mixture and your herd will yield the best possible milk flow right from the start.

JUNIORS WORKING ON CLASS PLAY

Cast of "Three Live Ghosts" Now Rehearsing

Work on the junior play is well under way and rehearsals are being held nearly every night in order that the cast may become so well drilled that there will be no hitch in the smoothness of the presentation.

The play is "The Three Live Ghosts" by Frederick S. Isham and Max Maren, and is adapted from the book "The Fairy Pushers", which first appeared in 1918. It ran the entire season at Greenwich Village Theatre, New York City, in 1920-21, where it was played with the original cast from London and met with great success there.

The present line-up of the cast is as follows:

Mrs. Gubbins, known as "Old Sweet-heart" ..... Margaret Hall
Peggy Woofers ..... Marion Egleston
Bolton, of The Am. Det. Agency
Russel A. Palen
Jimmy Gibbons ..... Frederick Metzger
William Foster, alias "William Jones"
Harold Baldwin
Spooky ..... Thomas Donahue
Rose Gordon ..... Hazel Palmer
Burges, of Scotland Yard

Mr. Farr stated that the cast as it was at the present time was still open to revision but that on the whole it is shaping up admirably well, even better than he had expected and that by putting a little stress on a few places that he will be able to present a play that will be as good if not better than anything previous.

The leading lady is Miss Magravel Hall, who takes the part of the mother of one of the "Ghosts". They live in the poorer section of London and are therefore of questionable character and morals. The principal male parts, those of the "Three Live Ghosts", are played by "Freddie" Metzger, Harold Baldwin and "Tom" Donahue. Donahue takes the part of a shell shocked English soldier who cannot remember who he is nor anything about himself. He is seriously afflicted with the habit of appropriating property which is not his and furnishes the nucleus of mirth for the play.

French and Spanish Students Entertain With Songs and Recitations

Much Credit Due Professor Croteau

On Monday evening, March 27, the Romance Language students gave a French and Spanish entertainment in Main 10. Several solos were rendered by students of the French classes, and recitations were in order. "Napoleon on the Battlefield" was recited, and the lives of several French authors were given. The hit of the evening was a short sketch entitled "Doctor Quaqnurh." "Moe" Daly played the role of the doctor, D'Espou the part of a painter, and Dampsky the part of a mail man. The sketch brought forth many outbursts of laughter. After the entertainment, Professor Croteau gave the students a light lunch, after which there was dancing. Much credit is due to Professor Croteau for coaching the students, and he intends to have another entertainment before the close of the semester.

Editor's Note: Through an oversight that occurred in making up the issue of last week this article was omitted. The Board regrets such accidents and wishes to apologize to Mr. Croteau.

Co-ed Formal Tonight

"MONTTEITH ART SOCIETY" IS FORMED BY GIRLS

Music, Art, Literature, Travel, Debating and Etiquette Will be Studied by Club.

Last Thursday night the new literary society held its first meeting in Holcomb Hall, and judging from the attendance, the interest should be very great. Plans have been started for a literary society among the girls, but it is just recently that it has become a reality.

The purpose of this organization is to bring the girls together in order that they may learn and study more about music, art, literature, travel, debating and etiquette. In short, it is to study the subjects which they cannot spend time enough on outside, owing to the curriculum, and which they feel are essential to every educated person.

The name of the society is to be "The Montteith Art Society" in honor of Professor Montteith, who did much for the liberal side of education on the Hill.

Mrs. Davis, who has already helped the girls, will be their advisor. She stated that she was very much in favor of the society and hoped that from this organization would spring some new college songs.

Miss McMILLAN FLOWER

was elected chairman, with a permanent executive committee with Miss Phyllis Smith chairman, and Miss Marie Bronson and Miss Katherine Mac chester. This committee will plan the meetings, getting outside speakers when possible. A committee is appointed to draw up a constitution.

CO-ED FORMAL IN ARMORY TONIGHT

Friday, April 20, is the date of the long awaited Co-ed Formal, which marks the climax of the girls' social calendar for the year. It is by means of this dance that the girls show their conception of an enjoyable dance, not only in regard to music, decorations, and refreshments, but even to partners and dance programs.
