CONCERT

Paul Dufault, the French tenor who comes to Storrs tomorrow night, sang in Willimantic before a large audience Wednesday evening, although the tickets sold at $1.50 each. The price of the local concert is fifty cents. This is an opportunity that no person on the Hill can afford to miss. Let us show the social officers that we appreciate their efforts in providing for an entertainment of the first rank. This done, more from this attractions will come. The regular Saturday night dance will follow the concert.

BENEFIT FOR NUTMEG DEFICIT ON MAY 12

Tickets will be on sale in a few days, and will be handled by the Nutmeg Board, who will canvas the entire student body.

B. W. ELLIS IS NEW EXTENSION HEAD

SUCCEEDS H. J. BAKER WHO GOES TO NEW JERSEY

New Director Present County Agent Leader.—Is Well Acquainted With Extension Work.

Benjamin W. Ellis, county agent leader in the state extension service, has been appointed by the board of trustees to succeed Herbert J. Baker, as director of extension work in Connecticut.

Mr. Baker has resigned to become head of the extension work at the New Jersey College of Agriculture. During his eight years at Connecticut, he has built up the state service from one organized county to every county organized and doing an extension work. He is a graduate of Massachusetts Agricultural College and was engaged in extension work in that state before coming to Connecticut. During these eight years, Mr. Baker was director of the A. E. F. Farm School at Alleroy, France, where he had charge of 100 instructors and 2400 students.

Before coming to Connecticut, Mr. Ellis had been engaged in extension work, teaching and as a farm manager in Massachusetts. He graduated from the Massachusetts Agricultural College in 1913. For ten years he has been connected with the extension service in Connecticut, for a part of that time he was county agent in Windham County. Mr. Ellis will assume his new position on June 1.

CO-ED FORMAL PRESENTS "GREENWICH VILLAGE"

SECOND ANNUAL DANCE A NOVEL FEATURE

Class Boxes are Unique Reproduction of "Village Scenes.—Two Dinner Dances Add to Attractive Program.

Completely changed from a gymnasia into a small "Greenwich Village," Hawley Armory was the scene of the second annual Co-Ed Formal, on Friday evening, April 20. The scheme of the dance was carried out in the representation of unique tea rooms by the four classes. Only the south end of the floor was used for dancing.

The blue and white bunting overhead assisted in the success of the five boxes. "The Rabbit Hole" was the Senior work and resulted in a cozy "Hole," tastefully decorated; the "Samovar," with a solid background of posters and a clever gateway, was the Junior show. A rather gruesome retreat was represented in the sophomore box—"Pirates Den"—the main object being to get every guest's bloody signature. The freshman box, the "Silhouette Shop," was attractive with its yellow background and border of co-ed silhouette heads.

Faced on either side of the stage was a showing of the dance numbers, and the orchestra dressed in artists smocks and tams, gave the stage an attractive look. Music of the liveliest tone, and an orderly program of songs, together with confetti and streamers, lent variety to the sixteen numbers. During the two dinner dances, salad, rolls, coffee and ice cream were served by waiters who were dressed in accordance with the boxes they waited upon. Each guest received a "Tut" cigarette holder for a keepsake.

Palms were used to decorate the faculty box. The patrons and patronesses were: Miss E. M. Sprague and Mr. J. Hughes, Miss E. J. Rose and Mr. W. A. Wattles, Miss G. I. Scharfenstein and Mr. B. A. Brown.

UNINTERESTING GAME ENDS WITH NUTMEGGERS SAFELY BEHIND TO ONE TALLY

White, Who Pitches Well, Replaced Five Strikeouts in Last Three Innings—Many Long Safe Hits—

half of the seventh Wells took White's place in the box, and for the rest of the game the Coast Guard batters went out in order, three hittingroll-ers to the pitcher's box, and five striking out. Hits coupled with bases on balls and errors, gave Connecticut, four runs in the sixth inning, and five more in the eighth.

White, Fitzgerald, Makofski and Brandung were the leading hitters for Connecticut, the blind pitcher getting three safe bingles in four times at bat. "Fitty" getting four safe ones in four times at bat, "Mac" knocking out a triple and a double, while Bruns- dace got three safe hits in six times at plate.

FIRST TRACK MEET ONE WEEK AWAY

Mass. Aggies and U. S. Coast Guard Coming

Coach Daly Has Much Good Working Material—Brink Not Able to Compete Because of Injury.

Manager Obery has successfully arranged two meets for Coach Daloy's tracksters. On May 5 the State runners will meet their old rivals, Mass. Aggies. Coach Daly has been working his men hard every day and by the time of the meet they will be in first class condition. In this meet we are putting a good deal of trust in some of our old stars and some very promising material in the freshman class. "Lawry" Lawson has been doing his job, "Atter" Donnachie, the most consistent of the runners, his usual good form. Coach Daly's men are working hard every day and every hour. They are sure to be in top form come May 5.

One more nail in the coffin of the season's track meet will be the meet between the Aggies and the Coast Guards. This meet is scheduled for May 5, Match and Nadler of the Aggies and Brandung and White of the Coast Guards will be the stars of the meet.

DIAMOND Dope

Only nine men faced Wells in the coast three innings and the poor little hurler figured in eight of the plays that retired them, striking out five men and making three assists.

The visitors' cheer leader created quite a laugh with his pirate costume, complete even to the sword. His hat didn't last very long.

Bogolock got a hearty cheer when he batted for Metelli. "Pete" has the highest average on the team, he's batting for 1900, having been at bat once and making one hit, a double at that.

Even though Connecticut was four runs behind in the seventh, the stands saw fit to invoke the aid of the Goddess of Luck; but her Highness did not feel inclined to exert her influence, and the Aggies went score-less in that frame, although two clean singles were registered.

Q.—"What does a minister do for a living?"
A.—"He works to beat the devil."
NEW HAMPSHIRE AND COLBY NEXT ON SLATE

Colby Invades Hill on Friday While Connecticut Journeys to New Hampshire on Saturday.

Opposition for the Aggie ball tossers in the last home game until Junior Week will be furnished by the fast Colby nine Friday afternoon at four o'clock. Little information is at hand concerning the strength of the visitors but the Maine team usually has a high rating in intercollegiate baseball and has several victories to its credit this year.

The Blue and White team has been hard at work during the past week, and the nine is showing marked improvement under the guidance of Captain C. R. Crim. Just who will take the mound against the invaders is a matter of conjecture as there are several possible hurlers who may start the contest.

On Saturday the Aggies will clash with the New Hampshire team at Durham. Last year the Durhamites came to the Hill and took a loosely played game from Connecticut, for which the Blue and White is out to take sweet revenge.

PHI EPSILON PI WINS POOL TOURNAMENT CUP

In a safely played game, "Al" Feldman, shooting for Phi Epsilon Pi, defeated George Hilldring, shooting for the Shakespearian Club. The game was marked by consistent scratching by Hilldring. Except for the first two racks, Feldman held a lead of twenty balls throughout the entire game. The first block ended with Feldman leading by twenty balls, score 50—30. The second half was only a repetition of the first, and although Hilldring shot a good game, he could not overcome Feldman's lead and Feldman ran out, leading by twenty-eight balls. The final score was Feldman 100, Hilldring 72. As this game was the final of the tournament, the cup will be presented to Phi Epsilon Pi at President's Hour next fall.

BLOCK AND BRIDLE CLUB AT ANNUAL BANQUET

Members of the Connecticut Chapter of the Block and Bridle Club, the national animal husbandry organization, held their third annual banquet at dinner Hill last Thursday night.

The banquet was given the Club through the kindness of Professor H. L. Garrigues. Among the speakers introduced by Toastmaster Garrigues, were Professors S. M. Salisbury and C. W. Fawcett of the animal husbandry department at the Massachusetts Agricultural College. Twenty-nine members and guests were present at the banquet.

ASSEMBLY

The Assembly Committee, of which Doctor Henry K. Denlinger is chairman, is to be congratulated on the type of speaker that has been presented throughout the College year. It is indeed a good thing for a college student body in a segregated community to be favored with outside speakers, that are of keen intellect and capable of delivering a thought-involving address. This assembly gathering offers a bit of recreation from the hum-drum routine of class work and is invariably interesting.

In the coming year it is hoped that the good work already accomplished by the present committee can be carried to a higher and broader plain.

SIGHT SERVICE REPLACES SPEAKER AT ASSEMBLY

Dr. Charles R. Williams of Princeton University was to speak at President's Hour on Wednesday last but was unable to appear. In his place, Dr. H. K. Denlinger led in a short song service.

Dr. Denlinger announced that Dr. Charles R. Williams of Princeton University will address the student body at President's Hour next week. On the following week Colonel Dixson of Washington will speak, and the next week the Freshman-Sophomore debate will be held during the assembly period.

Professor A. Croceau made an announcement concerning Paul Dufault, the noted tenor, and his accompanists who appear here this weekend. Professor Croceau pointed out that this is an opportunity to hear an excellent tenor, and his accompanists displayed the opportunity that they displayed at the occasion—not a single squeal was heard, and not one of them showed a sign of fear in the arms of their escorts.

The film was covered by insurance.

EX-SERVICE MEN'S CLUB TO GIVE INFORMAL PARTY

Dame Rumor has it that the members of the Ex-Service Men's Club are going to give a quiet dinner dance next Saturday night. Those present will be favored with an informal smoker. The purpose will be to get the men better acquainted with each other.

The affair is designed by and for ex-service men. The object is purely social and membership in a secret fraternity does not permit a man joining. The room, under the direction of Mr. H. M. Smart, is being made ready for the occasion. At least ten log cabins will be erected in the house of the former owner of the Animal Husbandry judging team. If a few minutes are added, the place will be repainted, curtains have been hung and poker tables installed. Plans are under way for a piano, phonograph, and pool table, although it is not known just how well they will materialize.

The men have already begun to organize a baseball team.

NEARBY RESIDENT HAS DISASTROUS FIRE

A barn and a shed owned by Timod F. Costello of Englefield were destroyed by fire of unknown origin last Saturday evening. Mr. Costello lost besides the buildings, nearly all the farm products, contents, including one Ford automobile, one horse, two pigs a quantity of hay, some ice and two loads of grain. The loss is partly covered by insurance. The owners of the buildings and the loss is partly covered by insurance. The owners of the buildings and the two houses are members of the Ex-Service Men's Club.

FORMER OWNER OF FLINTSTONE MODEL DIES

Mr. Frederick G. Crane, who donated Flintstone Model to the Animal Husbandry Department of this College, died during the summer. His death was announced by the Department on Wednesday, March 13. Mr. Crane was a powerful factor in general livestock interests, and was a good friend of the college. Flintstone Farms, formerly owned by Mr. Crane, have been the scene of much of the work done on Animal Husbandry judging trips taken by the students of C. A. C.
STAGE IN HAWLEY ARMORY BEING ENLARGED

Other Improvements To Aid College Actors

Alterations and improvements now being made on the stage in Hawley Armory will enable the Dramatic Club to put on a more artistic and efficient setting for future plays than has been possible in the past, according to Pres. George V. Hilldring, in charge of the work to be gotten under way.

"Lack of depth in the stage has always been more or less of a handicap in presenting our plays," said President Hilldring, "and this year, steps are being taken to overcome this handicap. For some years past members of the organization have felt that the brick wall at the rear of the stage should be removed, and by this removal add two or three feet more depth to the stage. For various reasons we have been unable to have this done until this year, when Treasurer R. L. Longley of the College, in conference with a committee of the Dramatic Club, agreed to pay this work to be gotten under way. Estimates for the cost of removing the entire wall were too high to allow the entire project to be completed this year; consequently only one section of the wall will be removed. This section, which is six feet long, in the middle of the rear wall, will add two or three feet to the depth of the stage, a great improvement, and at the same time it will provide a central door for scenery.

Mr. Hilldring explained that this opening in the wall will make it possible to give the scenery a firmer setting, a condition which has been lacking in previous productions. In "With the Law," the club's last production, some difficulty was experienced in manipulating the various curtains and props, due to the warped condition of the scenery and lack of overhangs. Present plans call for correction of these faults by the installation of overhangs which will give strength and rigidity to the wings and other pieces of scenery. Additional braces on the sides will also help to overcome these difficulties.

The lighting effects of the stage are to receive attention also; several minor defects needing correction.

"With these improvements completed," said Mr. Hilldring, "the Dramatic Club will be able to carry on its work much more efficiently and in a manner that will add to the quality of its productions."

A small boy who was sitting next to a very haughty lady in a crowded car kept on sniffing in a most annoying manner. At last the lady could bear it no longer and turned to the lad.

"Boy, have you got a handkerchief?" she demanded.

The small boy looked at her for a few seconds, and then in a dignified tone, gave the answer:

"Yes, I have, but I don't lend it to strangers."

KAMPUS KLIPS

SO THE STORY RUNS

In a recent letter to the Breeders' Gazette, F. M. W. of L. County, Nebraska, got an auction sale and an account of a wedding mixed. The resulting article was as follows:

Married at the home of the bride's township one mile north and two miles east of Mr. and Mrs. John Jones, highly respected citizens, according to Thursday, January 27, Miss Ethel Drinkwater, by the Rev. 18 head of Short-horns consisting of four bridesmaids dressed in pale blue and carrying calves by their sides. They had tulle veils sired by the noted Kentucky Jack Bomhina 3rd. Also forty-six head of hogs including the groom's father from North Dakota, where he is engaged in missionary work and is immersed by the double process. The shawls are thirsty and all relatives of the bride and groom. They all gathered in the spacious dining room after the ceremony and partook of 300 bushels of seed oats, 100 bushels of corn and ten large sacks of millet and alfalfa. The bride is the youngest daughter of one trusty Incubator, capacity of 600 eggs, one John Deere five room cottage and a two room cottage, after which they drew 10 percent interest from date. Free lunch at noon.

THE OPENING OF THE BASEBALL SEASON

The game opened with Molasses at the stick. Small Pox was catching. Cigar was in the box and had plenty of smoke. Horn was playing first base and Fiddle was playing second. Corn was in the field. Apple was umpire. When Axe came up to bat, he chopped one and made a Cake walk and Sawdust filled the bags. Song made a hit and Twenty made a score. Every foot of Ground kicked and they cheered. Needle tried to umpire, he was sharp enough but only had one eye. Ice kept cool until he was hit by a pitched ball, then you should have heard ice cream. Cabbage had a good head and kept quiet. Grass covered a lot of ground in the field. Organ refused to play. Hornet stung the ball but it fell into the hands of Clock. Bread leaked around until they put him out. In the fifth inning Wind blew around what he could do and Hammer began to knock, then the Tovers began to leave. Knife was put out for cutting first base. The crowd roosted Peanuts all through the game and everybody kicked when they put Lightfoot out. Then Meat was put out at the plate. The score was 1 to 0 and the game was over. Door said that if he had pitched he would have shut them out. There was a lot of betting on the game and Soap cleaned up but Eggs went broke.

THE FRONT LINE
The above heading for the column does not imply that the writer saw service in France, nor does it mean that he is going to take up the cudgel in behalf of the ex-service man; it is simply a recognition of the fact that much of the matter that has passed for philosophy in this column during the last year has been something else;
what, we don't know, and we venture to assert that no one else knows either. The Campus Philosopher desires more freedom than his old commission gave him. At times in the future, as in the past, he will probably be cynical, inane, foolish, moonstruck, baffled, satirical, adolescent, unconscious or humorous.
But the real reason the Campus
Philosopher has discarded the old name is that he knows very little as yet about philosophy.

I like to register
a protest
(Will Hays
sanctioned
use of "register")
why it is that in this column whenever the point in a line or phrase depends on a certain word
my friend
Gane
who prints
this sheet sets up the word.

I don't want him to take offense at the above, but a stitch in time may save nine epigrams.

However, on second thought, he probably figures they aren't worth saving.

Recently we entered the appended lyric in an intercollegiate poetry contest:
Roses are red,
Violets aren't white;
But use your head—
Smash the light.
We did not receive a prize.

ON SHOVELS
The shovel is an important instrument. Formerly its use was confined to farmers, who, when spring tripped in, removed the winter's accumulation with the tool. Of recent years the shovel has come into a more general demand, that is to say, generals in the army used it a great deal during the war.

ANIMAL HUSBANDRY DEPT.
ISSUES ILLUSTRATED BOOK

The Animal Husbandry Department of the College has recently published a book illustrating the College livestock. The book contains pictures of Dragon, the Perccheron stud and Flintstone Model, the Shorthorn bull raised by the College, which took second at the International livestock show in Chicago. Many of the other prize winning horses and cattle as well as some of the sheep and swine are pictured.

The Right Honorable William Randdolph Hearst, Dean of American Moras, was one of the first men to realize the value of the shovel. By constant use of this implement he has amassed a fortune.

College professors, quick to appreciate the shovel's aesthetic significance, followed Mr. Hearst's lead and adopted the tool for classroom use.

Their students, curious as to the source of the new and copious "line", investigated. They found that scocels have other functions to perform than their normal ones in dairy barns and on state roads.

Whereat the "studs" did with one accord heave most valetudinarily;
and they were rewarded, for the shovel never broke.

Debaters have long used the shovel.
Speakers at College Assembly are acquainted with the principle whereby it operates.

And so we might rave about the shovel forever. But the sad fact is that we have several English classes to prepare for on the morrow—still, we may be able to shovel through.

Work is well under way on the May Carnival which will be held May 26, on the front campus. Singing and dancing rehearsals have begun and the costumes are all planned. Miss Gertrude Moyer states that every girl in college has been called on to help in one way or another in order that the affair may be as great a success as possible.

The girls are divided into groups, part of which will be the Queen's ladies-in-waiting, and the others the Queen's entertainers. The May Queen herself, who will be the most popular girl in the Senior class, will be elected by the girls in the near future but her name will not be given out until the day of the carnival. Due to the limited number of girls in the college for an affair of this kind, the committee may call on some of the stenographers to assist in the singing, although the girls are endeavoring to make this their own activity, and to carry it through alone if possible. It is hoped the affair will become an annual performance.

CONNECTICUT DAY PLANS NEARING COMPLETION

Athletic Field Will Receive Greatest Attention.—Co-eds to Act as Water and Doughnut Carriers.—Baseball Game and Outdoor Luncheon Will Close Day.

The various committees have been hard at work during the past week and the plans for Connecticut Day are rapidly nearing completion. On Tuesday, May 8, the entire body with the aid and supervision of the faculty, will make a mass attack upon the athletic field, the grounds in general, and the cemetery.

The setting sun, sending its lengthening shadows across the hills, will see a rejuvenated campus. As usual, the greatest work will be done on the athletic field, where the track, diamond, drainage system, and tennis courts are badly in need of attention. However, the approach to the dining hall, the cemetery, and other points of interest will not be neglected.

The co-eds, as has been the custom in the past, will carry out water and doughnuts to the laboring Aggies. In the evening on Gardner Dow Field an open-air luncheon will be served by the girls. A twilight game of baseball, with the famous umpire, Mr. J. Bradford Ricketts, of Norwich, holding the indicator, followed by a dance in Hawley Armory with the famed College Symphonists session furnishing the music, will bring the eventful day to a close.

"Beyond the Horizon" may be described as a grim tragedy of American life. Since it was written several years ago, it has been produced throughout the United States together with several other of Mr. O'Neill's plays, and has been successfully produced in England and France. Michael Farrel has been given charge of the coaching of the play, and Mr. Christoph of the English department, has agreed to take charge of the staging of the play which is a difficult task in this production. Try-outs for the cast will be posted on the bulletin board.
