JUNIOR WEEK OPENS WITH PARADE

ALL-COLLEGE SHOW DRAWS LARGE CROWD

DRAMA CLASS PRESENTS ONE ACT SHAVIAN PLAY

Best Talent of the College Unites to Help Remove Deficit of 1922 Nutmeg.

In order to help defray outstanding debts of last year's "Nutmeg" an All-College Entertainment was held in Hawley Armory last Saturday evening. The members of last year's Nutmeg board systematically canvassed the student body in selling tickets, and as a result, a good-sized crowd braved the wet, windy night to attend the show and dance.

The nine numbers on the program consisted of a minstrel skit by the Blackguards; a one act play; piano and vocal solo; singing by the Girls' Glee Club and readings by Oscar D'Esopo.

The first number of the evening was a piano solo by Mr. Susman. The hit of the Blackguards act was the "saxophone solo" rendered by Mr. J. B. Ricketts, accompanied by Mr. Archie Cohen on the shoe horn. Due to difficulty with his instrument, Ricketts was forced to abdicate in favor of Cohen before the act was finished. The audience did not appear to mind for while "Rick" busied himself with extracting old stockings from his "sax", Archie swung into some wailing jazz and the audience mumbled in monotone: "How does he do it?"

The other Blackguard numbers consisted of solos by Messrs. A. P. Bates, A. Cohen and George Snedman. The Blackguard Trio, consisting of Ricketts, Tiebot and Bates gave two selections.

Following the Blackguards' act the Girls' Glee Club sang under the direction of Mrs. J. M. Farrell.

The one act play, "How He Lied to Her Husband," by George Bernard Shaw, was presented by the Modern Drama Class under the direction of Prof. H. A. Seckerson. The play was intended by the author to be a satire on "Candida," a play written by him, for which he was condemned as a playwright by the people of London. A cast of three students presented the play here. Miss Phyllis Smith was the fickle young wife of Mr. Bumpus, a London business man, played by Allan P. Bates. Henry Aptjohn, (Cont. on page 8 col. 1)

JUNIORS PRESENT FLORAL HORSESHOE TO BRUNDAGE, CAPTAIN OF BASEBALL

CLASS OF 1924 THEN MARCHES ACROSS DIAMOND AND ATTENDS NORTHEASTERN GAME IN BODY

Senior Banquet Held Last Night.—Junior Promenade in Hawley Armory Tonight. —Guests Attending Since Yesterday Morning for Biggest Dance of Year.—Junior Play Tomorrow Night Classes Week's Festivities

A dark, windy day greeted the members of the Class of 1924 as they paraded onto Gardner Dow Field at 3:30 Wednesday afternoon to open Junior Week. The double line, composed of girls wearing dresses in the class colors, flaming orange trimmed with black, and the men in blue coats and white flannels, swinging the traditional junior canes, marched from Hawley Armory across the infield to home plate, where Miss Elizabeth Hamilton, secretary of the class, presented Captain Ralph Brundage of the baseball team with a large floral horseshoe. The juniors then filed into a reserved section of the grandstand.

Northeastern University sent its baseball team down from Boston to clash with the Argies in the first attraction of the week, and the blue and white bowed to the Engineers with a 5—3 score.

During the game a high wind blew over the diamond, black clouds piled overhead, and splashes of rain fell at intervals, soon causing the bright block of orange dresses in the grandstand to be covered with wraps.

Owing to the non-arrival of the 1924 "Nutmeg" no activity was scheduled for yesterday. Guests began pouring in for the week-end, however, and the campus took on something of a holiday aspect. Orange and black '24 posters were plastered around the walls of the college store. Until a late hour last night the sounds of hammering and shaving could be heard issuing from the Armory, as the fraternity men labored at setting up the boxes for the Prom.

As the "Campus" went to press this morning the Reserve Officers' Training Corps was holding its annual competitive drill for the Armory Cup.

This afternoon Rhode Island's baseball team, which defeated Connecticut with a close score at Kingston earlier in the season, will cross bats with Coach Crim's men before the Prom crowd.

The Junior Prom, the biggest social event of the year, is scheduled to get under way promptly at 8:30 this evening, when the grand march will be led by Frederick Metzger, '24, of Norwich, chairman of the Prom executive committee, accompanied by Miss Elizabeth Service of Norwich. The dance will continue until two o'clock Saturday morning.

The process out walks with the class tree-planting at 1:30 p.m. on Saturday, followed at 3:00 by a tea dance to be given by the junior girls in the Armory. "Three Live Ghosts," the junior play will be presented by the class in the Armory at eight o'clock as the last event of Junior Week.

The complete list when the "Campus" went to press of persons who will attend the Prom tonight is as follows:

PRESS CLUB TO BE RE-ORGANIZED NEXT YEAR

PLANS BEING MADE

BY R. H. MATHEWSON

Great Need for Such an Organization at Connecticut.—Many Openings on State Papers.

According to Mr. R. H. Mathewson, if plans for the revival of the Press Club materialize, Connecticut students interested in journalism will have an opportunity next year of obtaining service to the college and to people and at the same time render valuable experience in news-writing of the college. Mr. Mathewson, who is one of the class of '22, and is now employed in the Extension Service of the College, has made a brilliant record in publications while a student at Connecticut, and his experience in this line of work qualifies him to point out the field of service that a live press club can render the College.

In brief, the plan most favorably considered, calls for a Press Club that will, first of all, correspond with newspapers in all parts of the state. This includes journals of the small towns as well as the dailies of the larger cities, and in so far as is possible, the Club will have each member corresponding with his local paper at home. The benefits of such a service, as pointed out by Mr. Mathewson, lie in the news of this College that is put before the people of the state. At present the College has no medium through which its work and activities can be put before the people of Connecticut, and except for the Hartford "Times" and the Hartford "Courant", both of which have paper correspondents, the College receives little or no publicity.

"Such a condition is deplorable," said Mr. Mathewson, "and it offers a wonderful opportunity of service to the College to such an organization as the Press Club. Friends of the College want to know what is going on here at Storrs, and a live Press Club, acting as correspondent for the various Connecticut newspapers, could deliver the news."

"To students interested in journalism and those who want to gain valuable experience in writing, a Press Club as outlined offers unlimited possibilities," said Mr. Mathewson, "and further, the

AGGIES TAKE SEVENTH AT INTER-COLLEGIATES

JACOBY WINS TWO MILE WITH EASE

Captain Steere Places Third in Mile.—Carl Dossin Gets Third Honors in Pole Vault.

Coach Daly’s charges duplicated their good showing of last year at the Eastern Intercollegiate Athletic Meet, held in Springfield, Massachusetts. Competing against ten eastern colleges, handicapped by a soggy field and occasional showers, the Aggie team captured seventh place.

Boston College was first with forty-six points, compared to Springfield’s 32 and Northeastern’s 28. Others scored as follows: Holy Cross 17; Norwich 11; University of Vermont 10; Connecticut 83; Mass. Aggie 88; Trinity 3.

Jacoby furnished the sensation of the meet, finishing first in the two mile run, time 10 minutes, 20 seconds. Lermon of Boston College stayed with "Jake" until within two hundred yards of the finish, when the Aggie boy showed his farewell, and simply left him stuck in the mud.

Captain Paul “Happy” Steere, running in his usual flashy form, finished third in the mile. This is his last appearance at the Intercollegiates in Springfield as he graduates in June. Carl “Sooch” Dossin, winner of the pole vault against Mass. Aggie, cleared the bar at ten feet nine inches, clinching third honors. This was Dossin’s last performance at Springfield as he is graduating this year. The above three men placed last year in the Intercollegiates.

Thursday morning, with the addition of Coach "Stev." Daly, Prof. Roy Goyer, and Clayton Buckingham, acting manager in the absence of the manager and assistant manager, made the trip. They were lated by Captain Steere, Jacoby Dossin, Hankowitz, Syl, Cleland, Johnson, Quigley, Squires, Barry, Shafter, Lawson and Velhage.

On Thursday Coach Daly’s protégés will journey to Rhode Island State for their last meet of the season. Advancing dopes to another win over “Rhody,” who succumbed to the local aggregation last year on Gardner Dow Field. This will make the eighth consecutive victory for Coach Daly’s men, a record unequaled by any other Aggie team.

T. F. DONAHUE PRESIDENT OF ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

Member of Class of ’24.—Active in College Work.—F. Wallace Johnson, Vice-President. —Thomas F. Fitzgerald, Sec.—Treas.

At the annual election of the Athletic Association held last Thursday night, Thomas F. Donahue was elected president for the coming year. Donahue is a prominent member of the class of 1924 and has been active in many organizations on the Hill. "Tom" has been a candidate for the

NORTHEASTERN WINS FIRST GAME OF JUNIOR WEEK FROM CONNECTICUT

RICHARDS A PUZZLE TO AGGIE BATTERS AFTER THE SECOND FRAME

Errors at Inopportune Times the Cause of Defeat.—Game Played Under Threatening Skies.

Although Captain "Kid" Brundage received a floral horseshoe from the junior class before the game, (said article supposed to bring good luck), Richards was too much of a puzzle to the Connecticut batters yesterday afternoon, and Northeastern won the first game of Junior Week by a score of 5 to 2. The game was played in a drizzle, but despite the weather, both pitchers did excellent harling, loose fielding at critical moments being the cause of Connecticut’s defeat.

At the start of the game it looked like an easy victory for Connecticut, as Richards was wild. Ganem walked and stole second base, O’Brien popped up an infield fly to Richards, Metelli got a free trip to first base, and Laubscher singled, sending Ganem across the plate with the first run of the game. Brundage hit to the pitcher, who made a bad throw to third to catch Metelli, and the bases were full. Connecticut failed to add to the score for Metelli was forced out at home, and Fitzgerald was thrown out at first. During the first three innings, Lord mowed the opposing batters down in one-two-three order, while Connecticut gathered two runs in the second on hits by Baxter and O’Brien; free tickets to Laubscher and Ganem; and an error by Sherman. Connecticut’s scoring for the game ended right there, however, for only three Connecticut men got to first after that, and Metelli, who walked and one hit on base, Richards seemed to improve as the game went on, for only twenty-three men faced him in the last seven innings.

The big inning for the visitors was the fourth, when they gathered three runs on three hits and two errors. They gathered one more in the fifth on two hits and a sacrifice, and another in the eighth on a hit and an error. All of Connecticut’s three errors let runs across the plate.

BATTER UP!

Socco Metelli may be one of the smallest catchers in baseball, but what he lacks in size he makes up in heart. With four years’ experience in college baseball, he knows the game from A to Z.

CCCC

The Aggies were cheated out of a chance to defeat Wesleyan last year when old Jupe Pluvius had a little game of his own. Few of the days on which the Aggies have played have been good baseball days.

CCCC

The juniors have had it pretty easy the last few years, with the captain in the backstopping position. Captain

RHODE ISLAND WILL PLAY HERE FRIDAY

GAME WILL BE A FEATURE OF JUNIOR WEEK

Laubscher Will Probably Hold Visiting Batters in Check.

Rhode Island State will be the visitors on the Hill tomorrow afternoon when they cross bats with the Aggies in the second encounter between the two teams this season. In the game at Kingston errors were largely responsible for the runs scored by the Rhode Island nine, which enabled them to defeat the Aggies 5 to 4. The Aggie infield is working more smoothly than it was, however, and if they show the pep they have displayed in practice, the home team ought to play almost errorless baseball. Ganem is back at his old position at third base and is displaying all of the pep that he had before his recent slump, and O’Brien is playing great ball at short, in addition to hitting the ball regularly. Fitzgerald is still uncertain in his fielding at second base, but is one of the best backs in the team. Baxter looks good at first base and if he keeps up the pace he has been setting, he ought to hold down the sack for the rest of the season. He has also improved in hitting lately.

Laubscher will probably be sent into the box against the visitors, and should hold back better. Although he let Rhode Island down with but four hits, and is expected to put the Indian sign on the opposing nine tomorrow afternoon with a two-run lead, he will probably be sent to the box by Coach Keeny, as he held Connecticut scoreless for six innings.

Metelli will be on the receiving end of Laubscher’s port side flings. Capt. Brundage will play in left field, with Makofski in center and White in right field.

FROSH BEAT FACULTY IN WELL PLAYED GAME

Final Count 5-2.—Ende Performs Brilliantly on Mound for Frosh.

The freshman baseball team made their first appearance of the season very impressive by defeating their Professors five to two on Monday. Ende, pitching for the first year men, hurled a brilliant game allowing the Faculty only three hits, and he, as well as his colleagues, had the faculty pitcher, although striking out eight men, allowed his opponents eight bingles.

The Frosh were the first to score when Mehaffey and Moore crossed the plate in the first inning. The runners added two more in the fourth and one in the fifth when the Faculty made their runs in the second and fourth innings.

Moore and Donovan were the heavy hitters for the Frosh, Moore clouting the ball for two triples and a single, while Donovan got a double and single. This contest was the best seen in the interclass games this season, both teams playing good ball and making few errors.

THE COMPETITION DRILL

One of the events of Junior Week which has received less than its share of attention and comment is the competition drill which will be given by the members of the local unit of the Reserve Officers Training Corps. The battalion has been hard at work during the year and promises to be in the best form for the drill on Friday morning. Military training is one of the important courses of the college and officers are appointed to carry on the effort and endeavor. This year the unit has been whipped into shape after a season of intensive training and the men will be out to do their best on Friday. A large audience always makes a person strive to do his best, and who is there who is not appreciative of a display? To show how the soldiers that the college has an interest in their activities it is hoped that there will be a large gallery to view the drill of the present Junior Week.

COMMENCEMENT

Commencement, that time which marks the close of another year in the history of the College, is but a few weeks away, and when it is over another class will have passed from the doors of our Alma Mater. The Class of 1923 has arranged an entertainment for the enjoyment of the College and its alumni and friends. The old Aggie spirit was revived and each number on the program was received with well merited applause.

Once again the social calendar of another college year is nearing its climax, and will have passed ere the week is ended. The large student body, consisting of one big dance, one banquet or one play are the joys and festivities centered. It is the grand total of all the scheduled events which the members of the Junior Class hope to put across in the usual good manner so characteristic of the events of the "Big Week" of the year.

Underappreciated as they are, by small numbers, the Juniors are not to be undone and are working diligently, every last one of them, to make the best possible time for all those who desire to take part in the activities on the hill during the coming three or four days. The Juniors may be small in number, but apparently they are out to prove to the world that endeavor counts more than numbers when it comes to staging the many events for the "big time" of the college year.

The "movies" on May 26 will be for the benefit of the Class Council, and the intercollegiate debating teams. All dances but the first and last will be "cut-ins."

CLASS PLAY TO CLOSE JUNIOR WEEK EVENTS

COMEDY IN THREE ACTS HAS POST-WAR PLOTS

Had Successful Run in New York and in Movies.—M. J. Farrell is Coaching Cast.

Completing the list of events for Junior Week is the play "Three Live Ghosts," to be presented by a cast from the junior class in Hawley Armory, Saturday evening, May 19.

The scene of the play lies in England, among people of the poorer class. The three live ghosts are two Englishmen and one American, all ex-service men, who have been declared dead by the English government, but who are very much alive. One of the ghosts, "Spoozy," a sufferer from shell-shock, has a mania of helping himself to anything he sees and thinks he wants. A number of amusing situations are afforded by "Spoozy's" affliction.

The play is a comedy in three acts taken from the book bearing its name. The play has had a long run in New York City, and has been reproduced on the moving picture screen. The cast is being coached by M. J. Farrell.

FACULTY ELECTROTYPING DELAY 1923 NUTMEG

No Blame for Board or Printers.—Delivery Promised Before Commencement.

The Nutmeg will not be delivered Junior Week. The trouble, however, this time is not with the printers or engravers, or even with the editorial board. The border, which has already been remade once, has had to be scrapped again, because of faulty workmanship, and the third set of far-famed Aggie spirit. Two or three days mean little in a summer's work or vacation, and with the many events planned for the week, all those that stay will feel amply repaid.

SOPH'S GUESTS OF '26 AT SATURDAY TEA DANCE

Last Saturday afternoon the Freshman class gave a dance in Hawley Armory in honor of the Sophomores. The dancing was from three to five, being attended by a large number from both classes. As a novelty number, there was a Paul Jones dance on the program that proved to be very entertaining to the guests present. Although the dance was of the tea variety, no tea was served but ice cream and home made cake were served during intermission by the pretty co-eds of the upper classes, and the tea, which was furnished by the college orchestra.

The reception committee was as follows: Miss G. L. Sharfenstein, Miss Lucyle Tooth, Miss Marian Bem, Miss Laura Kittner, Professor Willard Wattles, Mr. William O'Brien, Mr. Harold Wardle and Mr. Edward MeHaffey.

The "movies" on May 26 will be for the benefit of the Class Council, and the intercollegiate debating teams. All dances but the first and last will be "cut-ins."
The First Electrochemist

NITROUS oxide, according to the science of a century ago, was "the principle of contagion when inspired by animals in the minutest quantities." Mere say-so.

Imaginative yet skeptical Humphrey Davy, who believed in experiment rather than in opinion, "inspired" it and lived. This was the restless desire to test beliefs that made him one of the founders of modern science. Electricity was a new force a century ago. Davy used it to decompose potash, soda, and lime into potassium, soda, and lime, thus laying the foundations of electrochemistry. With a battery of two thousand plates he produced the first electric arc—harbinger of modern electric illumination and the electric furnace. Davy and Napoleon met on a raft to sign the Treaty of Tilsit while Davy was revealing the effects of electricity on matter. "What is Europe?" said Alexander. "We are Europe!"

The treaty was at that time an important political event, framed by two selfish monarchs for the sole purpose of furthering their personal interests. Contrast it with the selfless efforts of Sir Humphrey Davy. His brilliant work has resulted in scores of practical applications of electricity in industry and a wealth of chemical knowledge that benefit not himself but the entire world.

In the Research Laboratories of the General Electric Company, for instance, much has been done to improve the electric furnace (a development of Davy's arc) and new compounds have been electrochemically produced, which make it easier to cast high-conductivity copper, to manufacture special tool steels, and to produce carbides for better arc lamps.

DRESS PARADE IN SEWING CLASS

Paris is not the only place where fashion shows excel as was proven by the girls in Miss Scharfenstein’s sewing class. They made splendid models in their latest gowns, which they displayed in the assembly room at Slocum Hall on May 10. Each girl had her turn at exhibiting the gown of her own art and handiwork. The graceful lines of the dresses were partly creative, partly on account of the gracious posture of the models.

The fashion show was a problem as well as a pleasure for the class, as every girl had to criticize the garment worn by the model and grade it accordingly. Due to the unusual neatness, finishing and general appearance of the dresses the grades ranked fairly high, much to the delight of their instructor.

LECTURE BY DR. INGRAM

Members of the Monticth Art So­ciety were invited to attend a lecture on “Health and Beauty” given by Dr. Ingram of Hartford, under the auspices of The Mothers’ Club. The lecture started at eight o’clock with a very attentive audience, many of them being co-eds.

Dr. Ingram emphasized the fact that real beauty was obtained by regular exercises in the open air and the eating of proper food instead of the popular use of cosmetics.

After the lecture tea was served to the audience by the kindness of Dr. Ingram. The girls aided in the entertaining by the singing of several songs.

MAY DAY FESTIVAL

Plans are now being carried out for the May Festival which will be held Saturday, May 26. At a meeting of the W. S. G. A. the May Queen was elected by a secret ballot. No one ex­cept the committee knows yet who is the lucky senior to whom we are all to do homage. A temporary stage will be erected between the pines near Whitney Hall. The audience will be “comfortably” seated on the hill sloping down toward the “stage.” The Queen will come in and give the keynote, and the girls in waiting will be a pretty picture against the dark background.

The Glee Club, under whose auspices the pageant is being given, will act as ladies in waiting to the Queen. Under the direction of Mrs. Farrell some classical music is being studied which we are sure will please the Queen.

Mr. Gayer is preparing a May Pole Dance which will follow the blue and white color scheme. WOMAN'S GOVERNMENT ASSOCIATION MEETS

PRES. DUNN EXPLAINS W. S. G. A. ELECTIONS

Lemonade and Peanuts to be Sold by Girls at Remaining Games

Arrangements for the faculty tea at Holcomb Hall last Sunday were discussed at a meeting of the Women's Student Government Association last Thursday afternoon. President Dunn stated that the main object of the meeting was to explain to the girls, especially the freshmen, the method of selecting officers for the Association. Election tellers will be appointed in the near future. They will go to each girl and receive from her a slip of paper on which she has written the names of three nominees for president, vice-president, and secretary-treasurer. The names of the three highest for each office will be posted on the bulletin board about three days before the next meeting, at which time they will be voted upon. The President will be a girl from the junior class; the vice-president from the sophomore class and the secretary-treasurer from the freshman class. The officers of the Student Government at the present time are: President, Margaret Dunn; vice-president, Elizabeth Hamilton, secretary-treasurer, Laura Kittner. These girls, with the house chairman, Gertrude Fiske, and a freshman representative, Doris Barton, form the Student Council of the Association.

Announcement was made that lemonade and peanuts would be sold at the three remaining baseball games for the benefit of the silver and china fund.

SOPHS DEFEAT FRESH IN LIVELY GAME

The second Co-ed baseball game of the season was played between the freshmen and sophomores. The game was an unusually lively one, despite the fact that the freshmen started off rather slowly but with one run to their credit at the end of the first inning, while the sophomores were eight points in the lead. By the end of the sixth inning, however, the score was almost even, due to some extent to Miss Grant's excellent pitching for the freshmen, while Miss Clark showed her usual ability in batting for the sophomores. The final score, nevertheless, pronounced the sophomores as the victors, reading 33—26.

There is another game between the juniors and freshmen to be played before one round is completed, and it possible another set will be played before the championship is decided.

CO-ED TENNIS TOURNAMENT OPENS SOON

The Co-eds are looking forward with great anticipation to the coming season of tennis, the sport which succeeds baseball.

Matches will be played, for the first part, between the girls in their own classes; and by the process of elimination, the four best players of each class will be chosen for inter-class tournaments. The method of procedure for the tournaments is as follows:

First of all, four groups of singles will play three sets, with the winners of the singles chosen for one group of doubles. In order to play in the doubles, one must win two of the three of the sets of the singles. Each winner of the singles and doubles obtains one point for her class. At the finish of all the tournaments, the scores of each class will be counted, and the class obtaining the highest number of points will be champions in that sport. The schedule for the tournaments is as follows:

Sophomores vs. Freshmen
Juniors vs. Sophomores
Freshmen vs. Juniors

The courts are being marked and will probably be completed this week.

FACULTY TEA AT HOLCOMB HALL

On Sunday, May 13, from 3 to 5, the doors of Holcomb Hall were opened wide to receive the members of the faculty. Miss Sprague, Miss Sarfenchein, Miss Rose and Miss Landberg received, assisted by several co-eds.

The entire building was open to inspection and many visitors who had not previously seen it, enjoyed a visit. The halls with music, a bright and colorful decoration, and Miss Smith's excellent tea, made you forget there was any traffic outside.

Lucas is in the large living room with flowers and in the small living room with flowers and candles. Tea was served in the small living room by Miss Hallock, Miss Tuttle, Miss Morris and Miss Wattle. Mrs. Farrell and Mr. Bulbullon filled the halls with music the entire afternoon. Miss Levitow played and also accompanied Miss Mishkin who contributed to the pleasure of the afternoon by singing.

CLASS DRESSES COLOR CAMPUS

By Wednesday morning every happy Junior Co-ed had finished her attractive and black dress. All of the other girls good-naturedly refrained from wearing orange dresses so that 1924 might have a free field in which to display its Junior Week costumes. The Junior girls will wear their dresses to all campus activities except the Prom until Saturday.

Our Easy Payment Plan is Going Big

There's lots of young fellows like yourself that long to get out on the open road with a motorcycle and enjoy big days of this regular out door sport.

Cost? Less than that of an average show. Some of these fellows have investigated our easy pay-as-you-ride plan on new and rebuilt motorcycles. As soon as we told them how easy it was for them to own a motorcycle on this plan, it didn't take them long to pick out their motorcycle.

Come on over tonight. Here in this big stock of ours is your motorcycle. You can select your machine and begin to ride this week.
