JUNIOR PROM AND CLASS PLAY THE BRIGHT FEATURES OF A SUCCESSFUL JUNIOR WEEK

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE—RONALD BAMFORD, CHAIRMAN DESERVES GREAT PRAISE

Tea Dance in Hawley Armory.—Class Tree Dedicated.—Peerless Orchestra for Saturday.—R. O. T. C. Competition Well Received.—Romon-Fountain of Middletown Furnishes Music for Prom.—Michael J. Farrell Coaches Successful Class Play.

The 1923 Junior Week has passed into history. The Prom, the play, the tree planting, the fair visitors, and all the other things, the memories of which we will cherish throughout the years to come, are gone, and nothing remains, but to give credit where credit is due, and to put into writing the record of the best Junior Week that the College has so far seen.

Well-Balanced Program

The Junior class has made up in spirit and determination what it has lacked in numbers, and to the executive committee, Ronald Bamford, chairman, belongs the greatest share of the honors for the success of the week. From Wednesday afternoon, when under desultory skies, the Juniors went through the opening ceremony of presenting Captain Ralph Brundage of the baseball team with a floral horseshoe, until the last round of applause. From a floral horseshoe, until the last round of applause. Of the honors for faculty and following afternoon the ball team defeated Rhode Island, 7 to 6, in an exciting game. The R. O. T. C. unit competitive drill was held before a large audience of appre-cisemen and faculty and visitors, who were unimpressed in their praise for the proficiency of the cadets in their maneuvers and in the manual of arms.

The Prom on Friday evening was the most important event of the week, attended by an unusually large crowd. From eight to eight-thirty the Rosom-Fountain Orchestra of Middletown furnished the guests with a concert. At eight-thirty the dancing started and continued until two a.m. The frenzied hollering of upperclassmen, faculty and students, was so loud as to prevent conversation. At two a.m., the dance ceased and the Promers took a well-deserved rest, making a short tour of the town. The Prom was a great success and a thrilling experience for all who attended.

1923 DRUIDS APPEAR AT JUNIOR PROM

THREE ACT COMEDY ENDS JUNIOR WEEK PROGRAM

Thomas Donahue, '24, Excels in the Role of "Spoofy"—Margaret Hall Has Leading Role as Mrs. Gubbins.

The curtain was rung down on the Junior Week program of the Class of 1924 last Saturday night when the week's festivities closed with the presentation of the well-known comedy written by Frederick Isham and Max Moller, "Three Act Comedy". The Druids of the graduating class appeared in a charm and beauty for which they are noted.

On Thursday evening the Junior-Senior banquet was held, while on the following afternoon the ball team defeated Rhode Island, 7 to 6, in an exciting game. The R. O. T. C. unit competitive drill was held before a large audience of upperclassmen and faculty and visitors, who were unimpressed in their praise for the proficiency of the cadets in their maneuvers and in the manual of arms.

ENGLISH DEPARTMENT FOSTERING GROWTH OF STATE "LITTLE THEATRE" MOVEMENT

PROF. H. A. SECKERSON OUTLINES THE FIELD.—EX-PLAINS WORK COLLEGE IS DOING TO MEET NEEDS

One-Act Plays, Best Type for "Little Theatres," Being Studied by Students.—Requests Coming in for Presentation of These Plays in Various Connecticut Towns.—Modern Drama Class, Presenting One of Shaw's Plays, Has Already Booked Outside Engagements.

The English Department of the College, headed by Prof. Howard C. Seckerson, has plans well under way by which the "Little Theatre" movement will soon be a reality in the State of Connecticut. This movement is, in brief, the bringing of drama, preferably in the form of one-set plays, to the rural community centers. The reception accorded the "Little Theatre" in some of the agricultural states of the West and South has been more than gratifying to its originators, and the enthusiasm with which people of the country entered into the new idea marks it for a permanent place in rural community life.

The Juniors of the class of 1923 who helped organize the "Little Theatre" movement have been working hard to make the movement a success.

Professor H. A. Seckerson

Prof. Seckerson, when interviewed, unfolded his plans sufficiently to show that he has developed them to the fullest extent. The first "Little Theatre" will be developed here at the college, and it will be almost entirely student production. This means not only in the acting, but also directing, managing, costuming, and if possible the play-writing. The value of having it entirely a student affair lies in the training received by the participants. Such training will enable them to assume the leadership in producing like plays in the community in which they settle, and therein lies the opportunity for C. A. C. students to help put the movement across.

More Students Needed

"We hope," said Professor Seckerson, "that a large number of students will engage in this work. The modern drama class has already shown a fine spirit of cooperation in producing one

Laubscher Pitches Well.—Team Garners Ten Hits.—First Victory Over Rhody at Baseball in Five Years.

Under ideal weather conditions, and before a large and colorful crowd gathered for the Junior Prom, Coach Crim's hopes were answered their third victory of the season, when on Friday afternoon they defeated the ball team representing our old rival, Rhode Island, by the score of 7 to 6.

Going into the last frame one run behind, the team braced and aided by some poor fielding by the guardians of the visitors' inner works, scored the deciding tallies. Metelli started things off by singling over short, his first hit of the game. Laubscher secured a life when, with an easy double play in sight, Kirby fumbled his grounder. White fanned, but Cook missed Capt. Brundage's grounder, filling the bases. The Rhody infield was plainly rattled and when Turner faced Alexander, he had lost his poise. "Louie" caught a fast inside ball square on the but and sent it with terrific force past third base far into the outfield, scoring Metelli and Laubscher with the winning runs of the game.

From the start the lead see-sawed back and forth. Rhode Island chalked up three tallies in the third on an error and three hits, one of them a

MARKS END OF PERFECT YEAR AGAINST TRINITY

Makofski and Jones Hit Well.—Loose Playing by Both Teams.

In a game that was featured by heavy hitting by both teams, the Aggies completed their athletic year against Trinity by beating the Hartford boys 8 to 6. This year the two teams have met once in football, twice in basketball and once in baseball. Each time the Connecticut team has been victorious. Were the two teams to meet on the cinder path there would be no doubt as to the outcome, but Trinity realized that Steve Daly's charges would be too strong for them and would not schedule a meet.

White started the game for Connecticut, and although the Trinity batters got only three hits off him in three innings, these were bunched and resulted in runs, when coupled with errors on the part of the Aggie infield. Laubscher relieved White in the fourth inning, and while he was in the box, the Trinity batters failed to get a single safe hit. However, Lord was sent into the box in the sixth inning to save Laubscher for the Holy Cross game. Lord was hit hard but most of the hits were scattered, and a large percentage of them were of the scratch variety. Trinity bunched hits off Lord for one run in the seventh, but that was the end of their scoring.

The Aggies secured fourteen hits off the delivery of Newman, Makofski leading the slaughter with three singles to his credit. Alexander, Brundage, Laubscher and O'Brien each collected two safe clouts, Brundage hitting a double.

For Trinity Jones was the leading hitter with two singles and a double to his credit. Cronin and Ortgies also hit well.

Trinity started off strong in the first inning, getting two runs. Their lead did not last long, however, for the Aggie batters got going and drove three runs across the plate in the second inning, and added three more in the third. For a while it looked as though Trinity was going to over come the lead for they got one run

CONNECTICUT WINS LAST TRACK MEET FROM RHODE ISLAND STATE

"Steve" Daly's Team Finishes Perfect Outdoor Season

The Connecticut Aggie track team ran away with Rhode Island State at Kingston in the field events last week Thursday, but the Kingstonians made a strong comeback in the field events and nearly tied the score, only five points separating the two teams at the finishing of the last event.

Jacoby and Slay were the star performers for Connecticut. "Jake" taking first places easily in both the mile and two mile events. Slay captured first in both the 100 yard and 220 yard dashes. He also took a second place in the 440 yard dash. Johnson also captured a first in the broad jump, a second in the long hurdles, and a third in the high hurdles. Other men who took first places for Connecticut were Velhage in the half mile, Dossin in the pole vault, and Purple in the javelin.

Strong, Rhode Island freshman, ran a good race in both the mile and two mile events, but could not keep the pace set by Jacoby, and had to be content with second places in both events. McNepesh of Rhode Island took first place in both the discus and hammer throw, beating Wardle in the latter event by only seven-tenths of a foot. Fort took first place in the low hurdles, and second place in the pole vault.

The quarter mile was the best race of the day. Tower, after being left

OVER THE FENCE

We have a clear claim to the title at the top this week. "Grumpy" White gave one of Edward's hits a ride over the center fielder's head for a homer in the fourth inning. It was the first home run of the season made by an Aggie.

The fifth was the big inning for Connecticut. Mokoiski opened with a single, Baxter sacrificed and Ganem walked. A pass to Laubischer and singles by O'Brien and Brundage followed in quick succession. When the smoke of battle had cleared, four Aggie runs had crossed the plate. The Engineers soon regained the lead however, and were apparently on the road to an easy victory when "Louis" Alexander heard his return to the game in a manner which greatly pleased the assembled rooters. For Rhode Island, Turner did the best work on the mound, while Johnson and Pisto showed up well at bat and in the field.

Laubischer pitched a fair game, holding the opponents to nine hits, and Alexander heralded his return to the game in a manner which greatly pleased the assembled rooters. For Rhode Island, Turner did the best work on the mound, while Johnson and Pisto showed up well at bat and in the field.

SENIOR PRIVILEGES

At many colleges in the country seniors are accorded various privileges which are not enjoyed by members of the junior and sophomore classes. These privileges are granted by Student Governments, or are handed down from class to class by tradition and form an important phase of college life. The members of the senior class are men and women who have completed three years of college work and many institutions feel that they are entitled to certain things which the underclassmen are not. This is particularly true of older colleges where traditions have had years to develop. Compared with these traditions, comparatively new young college and such traditions are yet in their infancy. Commencement is near at hand and with it another class will go out from New Haven. Before the class of 1924 graduates there is ample time for the development of ideas which will give seniors certain privileges which will make them more honored in their position on the campus and at the same time enrich the traditions of Connecticut.

WINNERS OF AMORY CUP

Last Friday the competition for the Amory Cup was held by the members of the Reserve Officers Training Corps. The coveted trophy was captured by Company "A." The unit has been in its present organization for the past year and real work was needed by any company to annex the trophy, so keen was the competition. Company "A," captained by L. J. Round, not only won the cup but men from its ranks also won the individual prizes offered to members of the various classes. The event was well carried out and formed one of the important affairs of Junior Week.

JUNIOR PROM IS SUCCESS OF WEEK

MANY VISITORS ATTEND COLORFUL AFFAIR

Grand March led by W. D. Lawson, Senior Class President—Music by the Ronald-Fountain Orchestra of Middletown.

The apex of success on the social calendar for 1923 was reached on Friday evening, May 18th, when the junior class held its traditional promenade. The grand march led by Wilbur D. Lawson, president of the class, with Miss Marian J. Hills, began at 9:30. About 150 couples danced to the music played by the Roman-Fountain orchestra of Middletown.

Contrary to the custom of other years, the Prom favors were presented by the fraternities instead of by the dance committees. Elsa Lambdas Sigma and Phi Mu delta gave silver vanity boxes; Alpha Phi, leather hardy-case; the Shakespearean Club, beaded bags; Phi Epifson Pi, silver pencils; Alpha Gamma Chi, Rhein Rheifers, and Sigma Phi Gamma gold vanity cases.

The fraternity boxes were attractively decorated in pastel shades; the general effect being artistic and in keeping with the season of the year. A Shiek in the person of R. S. White, representing a Middle Eastern atmosphere to the Alma Gamma Rho Egyptian tent. The ceiling of the Armory was covered with an interlacing of bunting in the college colors. During intermission, refreshments were served.

Those in the receiving line were President and Mrs. Charles L. Beach, Dr. and Mrs. Edmund W. Sinnott, Professor and Mrs. Howard A. Secor, Professor and Mrs. Jerard A. Manter, Dr. Henry K. Denlinger and Miss Williaemena Buckler. Much credit for the great success of the dance is due the executive committee, whose members were Frederick Metzger, chairman, Leon Kaplan, assistant; Alfred Nelson, and to Hillard Cronin, chairman, Lawrence Castiglione, and Norman Platt, who were in charge of decorations. The Prom ended at two o'clock.

JUNIOR WEEK

Another Junior Week has come and gone. The one just past will do down in history of the College as one of the most successful at Connecticut. Fair skies lent additional enjoyment to the latter part of the week, making the college campus appear at its best. All of the various events were well planned and carried out. The week was largely attended and many fair visitors were on hand to enjoy the big dance of the year. On Saturday the Tea Dance and Junior Play concluded the program for the week and formed a fitting ending for the festivities. Alto handed back by lack of numbers the class of 1924 "carried on" with the true Connecticut spirit. The Juniors deserve much credit for the successful week.

JUNIORS AND SENIORS AT ANNUAL BANQUET

LAST TIME THAT 1923 AND 1924 MEET TOGETHER

Dr. H. K. Denlinger, 1924 Advisor, is Toastmaster. — College Orchestra Furnishes Music.

Juniors and seniors met together for the last time at an interclass affair when about one hundred members of the classes of 1923 and 1924 gathered for the annual Junior-senior banquet in the college dining hall last Thursday evening.

The tables were arranged in three rows the length of the dining hall with a fourth row across the south end of the hall for the toastmaster and speakers. Banners of the two classes were used for decorations. On the tables were large bouquets of white carnations. Music was furnished by the college orchestra.

Dr. H. K. Denlinger, junior class advisor, acted as toastmaster. He introduced as first speaker W. D. Lawson, president of the junior class, who gave the class welcome to the seniors. The response from the seniors was given by President L. H. Benmont. The toastmaster then introduced President C. L. Beach, Dr. E. W. Sinnott, senior class advisor, and Prof. G. H. Lamson. As a novelty that added to the enjoyment of the evening, the toastmaster led the classes in two songs three songs appropriate to the occasion. The banquet was ended by everyone singing the Alma Mater.

The following menu was served:

- Fruit Cocktail
- Consomme Princess
- Bread Sticks
- Olives Pickles
- Brolled Chicken Creason
- French Fried Potatoes
- Asparagus Tips
- Rolls Butter
- French Fruit Salad—Mayonnaise
- Cheese Fluffs
- Apple Pie a la Mode

MAY DAY

Throughout the past year the co-eds have been more active than in the past and many good projects have been formed and advanced by them. The Glee Club gave a very creditable performance and several other organizations have been organized by the members of the fair sex at Connecticut. In the revival of an old custom at Connecticut the girls have planned an alternative pageant for the May Day, May 26, and have employed all the feminine arts to make it a success. Intricate dances in gorgeous costumes have filled the background of the event which will take place near Whitney Hall. In order to show the proper spirit of appreciation it is the duty of every student at Connecticut to be on hand for the affair and help to make the pageant a success.

COMMENCEMENT PLANS NEARING COMPLETION

ENTERTAINMENT AND BUSINESS ON PROGRAM

Will Mark Five Year Reunion for Classes from '83—June 9th is Alumni Day.

Commencement this year will mark the Five-year reunions of the classes of '83, '88, '93, '98, '03, '08, '13 and '18. The Field Secretary has made an effort to reach all the old graduates of the classes listed above by sending out correspondence through the various class secretaries. Several replies have already been received from invitations sent out. The class of '98, another of the old classes, is working especially hard to get together.

It is rumored that the class of '18 which originated the pajama parade for the benefit of the freshmen will appear in pajamas.

Work is being done to get all the recent classes together that graduated since 1916, back for the reunion. The secretaries of these classes have been requested to write their members to this effect.

A program has been arranged for the week end which will include not only entertainment events but an important business meeting of the Alumni Association in the Armory. It is expected that a new financial policy will be adopted in connection with the activities of the Field Secretary's office.

The two big days of Commencement are June 8th and 9th. Class Day, for which some of the Alumni will be back, comes on Friday, the 8th, and the reunion, for which all the Alumni will be back, on Saturday, June 9th.

The senior class has been cooperating with the Alumni committee to make this the finest commencement in the history of the college.

At noon, June 9th, there will be an Alumni luncheon in the dining hall, followed by the Alumni Association in the Armory at 1:15 p.m. After the meeting, a feature of the afternoon will be a baseball game between the Alumni and the Varsity. The Varsity will have to stop, for the Alumni team will include many old players, some of whom are now professionals. Batteries for the Alumni will probably be "Kuk" Johnson, "Deac" Savin, and "Connie" Mahoney. Plans are being formulated for holding one of the famous Storrs barbecues on the evening of Commencement day.

The feature of the evening will be a concert and dance, the concert to take the form of a vaudeville program of about six numbers including the Men's Glee Club, a one act comedy, coached by Prof. H. A. Seckerson, and an aesthetic dancing by the co-eds. Incidentally it will be the first appearance of the Glee Club in the Armory this year. The program will last from 7:00 to 11:00, followed by dancing until 12:00 p.m. The Peerless Orchestra will play. The evening is planned as a last good time for the (Cont. on page 8 col. 1)

Four Army Officers Act as Judges—Inspection Follows Competitive Drill.

One of the events during Junior Week was the Competition Drill by the R. O. T. C. unit on Friday, May 18. Classes were suspended during the morning in order that those interested could witness the contest. The drill and prizes were as follows: best freshman bronze medal; best sophomore, bronze medal; best junior, silver medal; best senior, gold medal; and best drilling company of the battalion, the Amory Cup. All of the contests were close, but the judges finally decided to award the freshman prize to Raymond Holtz of Company A. The sophomore prize to Henry K. Buckingham of Company A, the junior prize to Howard I. Stob of Company A, and the senior prize to Captain Leslie H. Bemont, also Company A. After the individual contests were over, the company contest for the Amory Cup was held and the judges gave the decision to Company A, after which President C. L. Beach awarded the cup to Captain Leslie H. Bemont. After the competition the judges inspected the rifles and uniforms of the men, after which the companies passed in review and were then dismissed by their commanders.

The judges of the competition were Capt. A. G. Knight of Rhode Island, Capt. Joseph Church of Rhode Island, Capt. J. B. Morrison and Lieutenant Haleston. It has been the custom in the last few years for the Company riding the Amory Cup to have a company smoker and plans are now being made for a smoker to those men of the winning company.

(Cont. from page 1 col. 1) was the play "Three Live Ghosts," presented by a cast from the junior class in Hawley Armory on Saturday evening. The play was coached by Michael J. Farrell, who worked with an entirely inexperienced cast. The production is said to be one of the finest presented on the Hill in recent years.

Saturday night one of the great pictures of the year will be shown at Hawley Armory. The entertainment committee has secured "The Old Homestead," as the feature attraction. Dancing will follow the picture.

UNDERCLASSES DEBATE AT PRESIDENT'S HOUR

U. S. Entry in World Court is Subject—Judges Withhold Decision on Violation of Technicalities.

The first annual Sophomore-Freshman debate was given during President's Hour Wednesday, when the class of '25 upheld the affirmative against the class of '26 in the question: "Resolved: That the United States should enter the World Court." Messrs. H. A. Seckerson, E. W. Sinnott and M. Dawson were the judges.

The speakers for the affirmative were G. W. Warrek, J. W. Baybeck, and S. R. Greenblatt, with W. M. Levy as alternate and Oscar D'Esoho coach. The negative was upheld for the freshmen by E. W. Nelson, J. H. Davidson and C. H. Eke, Davidson alternate, speaking in place of Moore, and Lawrence Loeb, coach. The time allowed for the speeches was five minutes for constructive argument and three minutes for rebuttal.

The argument for the affirmative was based principally on the need of a World Court and the necessity of the United States belonging to that court. The argument for the negative was based on the idea that the World Court is a political organization furthered by politicians for personal gains.

The decisions of the judges were: One for the affirmative, one for the negative, and one withheld for violation of technicalities. The decision of the audience seemed to be in favor of the affirmative. Under the circumstances, the captains and coaches of the teams agreed to waive a decision from the judges.

Nicholas Enigh did not return to college this year. "Nick" has a long list of activities to his credit, chief of which are varsity baseball and football, class basketball, secretary of the Variety Club, Football Banquet committee, hockey team, chairman Mid-year Informal and member of Live Stock Judging Team.

Activities carried by "Jim" Mullane include varsity baseball, class basketball and football, class treasurer, Mid-year Informal committee, chairman Football Banquet committee, and chairman Cane committee.

"Jeff" Revale has been engaged in several activities in his time on the Hill, the most important of which are manager of 1922 football team, Campus Board, Nutmeg Board, Athletic Council, Junior Play committee, class football and Blackguards.

Harold Stock has been active in drama activities and Publications. He served as editor-in-chief 1922 Nutmeg, associate editor Campus, member Dramatic Club, Social Committee, Glee Club, Blackguards, class football and baseball, and Junior Play committee.

CONGRATULATIONS!

To the Class of '23

It is our wish that your entry into dairy farming will mark the beginning of an even more prosperous era for the industry.

GOOD cows and good feed are the main factors of prosperity in dairy farming. You have known the vital need of corn gluten feed in the cow's ration, and should depend on it to supply your mixture's basis of protein.

BUFFALO Corn Gluten Feed and Diamond Corn Gluten Meal furnish corn protein most economically. When you start dairying for yourself, don't experiment. Play safe by feeding either or both of these proven milk producers that are in

PROFESSOR C. B. GENTRY
TO LECTURE IN SOUTH

Prof. C. B. Gentry, Dean of Teacher Training and State Supervisor of Agricultural Education will deliver a series of lectures in the University of Tennessee at Knoxville from June 11-12. The lectures will be given before about ninety teachers of vocational agriculture who will be working in the various high schools in the Tenn. next year and some members of the faculty of the University of Tenn. The work to be given by Prof. Gentry will be similar to the work which he gave last summer in the University of Arizona at Flagstaff, and will be on the general topic of the organization of courses of study in vocational agriculture for high schools.

The co-eds are busily at work again to earn money to secure additional conveniences for Holcomb Hall. This time they are anxious to have a set of silver and china for their own use when they wish to entertain. The expense is being met by the co-eds who are selling peanuts and lemonade at the remaining baseball games. So far those who have been called upon to act in the capacity of salesmen have co-operated generously.

CO-EDS TO PRESENT MAY FESTIVAL ON SATURDAY

The Girls’ Glee Club has undertaken the planning and responsibility of a May Day Festival or Pageant which will be given this Saturday afternoon at three-thirty on the campus, opposite Holcomb Hall. The committee in charge of the Festival consists of Miss Gertrude Morses, Miss Florence Teeter, Miss Laura Kittner and Miss Louise Benn. All the girls in college are cooperating for its success. Mrs. M. J. Farrell, Mr. R. Gayer and Miss Louise Benn are doing the coaching. The revised program is as follows:

1. Hymn of Junior Week
Heraldis
Elnora Elizabeth Services
Jester
Anne Flanagan
May the Maiden
Glee Club
Entrance of Queen
Swedish Dancing and Weave
Royal Summer Comes Apace Glee Club
Daisy Dance
Garlands Bright and Fair
Glee Club
Byrdie Dance
Come Ye Fairies
Irish Lilt
Dance of the Elves
Then Trip It
Blue Danube Dance
May Pole

TEA DANCE IS PRETTY JUNIOR WEEK EVENT

One of the most attractive festivities of Junior Week was the Tea Dance in the Armory, Saturday afternoon from three to five. Under the canopy of blue and white bunting, the girls in their different colored dresses made an interesting picture in the afternoon sun.

The color scheme was orange and white. Both the flowers for the tables and the refreshments were of these colors. Two seniors, Marion Toole and Ennilie Dillion, poured.

The Peerless Orchestra played for dancing. The committee in charge of the dance was Anne Flanagan, chairman, Hazel Palmer and Elizabeth Hamilton.

MILLINERY CLASS HAS PICNIC AT FIFTY FOOT

On Tuesday of this week Miss Annan’s millinery class went on a picnic to Fifty Foot. Each girl invited a guest, so that there were about forty in the party. Mr. and Mrs. Dorsay and Mr. and Mrs. Ellis acted as chaplains. The picnic lasted from 5 until 8 o’clock, and was in the form of a bacon bun, though several cakes were donated as a special treat. The girls all wore knickers and sweaters and enjoyed the hike in the woods to the foot. Fortunes were told for part of the entertainment.

CO-EDS PLAN FOR THREE SORORITIES

Something a little more tangible than hints about sororities are at last coming from the girls at Connecticut. Until this year, there have not been numbers enough to make any such divisions as the formation of sororities would necessarily do. There are now the nuclei of three different sororities, which will be the right number for the size of the college and the natural divisions of the girls here. These sororities are not yet recognized by the organizations on the Hill.

These are days of equal suffrage; this is a co-educational college. The girls are trying hard to set their standards of scholarship and their repute for support of college and campus activities as high as possible. It is acknowledged by the majority that fraternities have helped the men in these matters so why should the women not be given an equal chance.

ALUMNI RETURN FOR JUNIOR WEEK

Many of the Alumni were back for Junior Week. Among those who stayed in the dormitory were Miss Anna Larsen, 21, Greenwich; Miss Ella Nelson, ex-25, Waterbury; Miss Viola Erickson, 22, New Britain; Miss Leah Godieh, ex-24, Bridgeport; Miss Marion Jacobson, ex-23, Manchester; and Miss Ruth Chapman, ex-24, Waterbury; Miss Lola Murphy, ex-25, Bridgeport.

SOPHS CONTINUE TO WIN IN CLASS BASEBALL

The Sophomores defeated the freshmen in a loosely played baseball game recently by the score of 14 to 7. Miss Grant, the fresh hurler, was unable to pitch and this weakened her team. All of the games played thus far have been won by the sophomores. The team has beaten the Juniors once and the freshmen twice.

The remainder of the schedule is as follows:

- Juniors vs. Sophomores
- Freshmen vs. Juniors
- Freshmen vs. Sophomores

If possible, these three remaining games will be played this week, thus leaving the last two weeks free for the tennis tournament.

Tennis surely has greater powers of attraction for the co-eds of Holcomb Hall than all of the other enterprises on the Hill. Certainly nothing else unless possibly a Main Building fire or a trip to Kingston has ever gotten them out of bed before six o’clock. One should observe the tennis courts these early mornings of late.

of Shaw's plays as part of the recent All-College entertainment, and requests have been received by the department for additional engagements from various granges of the state and other community centers. In order to train the largest number possible, our need is to have a greater number of students take up the work. Not only will the knowledge of drama thus obtained be valuable to them, but they will also have the satisfaction of knowing they were pioneers in the "Little Theatre" as Connecticut will know it.

Movement Suggested by Thrush State

"As soon as our company has reached the proper stage of development," continued Prof. Secerson, "we shall extend the scope of its usefulness. Requests for engagements already received would seem to indicate that throughout the state there is a growing curiosity among the rural population to know more of the "Little Theatre" and its possibilities, and the college company would be taken on a tour as a first-hand example of what any community can accomplish in this line. A member of the English Department would go with the company on all of its trips to explain just how the "Little Theatre" is run and tell something of its history in other parts of the country, and at the same time offer to the community the assistance of the college in the organization of its own "Little Theatre." Once organized, the new company would continue to receive the aid of the College in numerous ways. Possibly some additional direction might be necessary, or recommendations for a play desired—all this, and other problems, could be met and solved more easily with the aid of the English Department at the College."

OUR EASY PAYMENT PLAN IS GOING BIG

There's lots of young fellows who we think like yourself that long to get out on the open road with a motor cycle and enjoy big days of this regular outdoor sport.

COST? Less than that of an average show. Some of these fellows have investigated our easy pay-as-you-ride plan on new and rebuilt motorcycles. As soon as we told them how easy it was for them to own a motorcycle on this plan, it didn't take them long to pick out their motorcycle.

Come on over tonight. Here in this big stock of ours is your motorcycle. You can select your machine and begin to ride this week.
