WELCOME TO THE CLASS OF 1927

ATTENTION ALUMNI!
The "Campus" Needs Your Support

A copy of the first number of the Campus is being sent to every member of the Alumni Association, together with a subscription blank and it is hoped that every loyal alumnus will fill out the blank and return it with two dollars to the subscription manager. The Campus needs your support and you, in turn, need the Campus. It is the only way to keep in touch with the activities on the Hill and should be in the hands of every graduate of Connecticut who is at all interested in the affairs of his or her Alma Mater.

The Board admits that in the past there have been many mistakes in delivery of the paper and that numerous subscribers have been rightly indignant over its non-arrival. For this we are truly sorry and have done all possible to rectify the mistakes. For the present year, however, we have completely revised the circulation end, installed two men who have the task of attending to circulation and subscription alone, and we trust that mistakes will be reduced to practically nil.

Give it a fair trial for another year and we will guarantee you will get your paper regularly, be closely connected with the College by this means and at the same time aid in supporting your college publication.

PRESIDENT'S RECEPTION WILL OPEN SOCIAL YEAR

FIRST EVENT OF YEAR FRIDAY IN ARMORY

President and Mrs. C. L. Beach Will Receive—Members of the Senior Class to Act as Ushers—Dancing to Follow Reception.

The social year on the Hill will be opened on Friday night when the annual President's reception to the student body will take place in Hawley Armory at eight o'clock. This event has always been an important one in the Connecticut calendar in that it is the first of the new year and enables old friends to meet each other and at the same time to get acquainted with the new members of the student body.

The reception will start at eight o'clock with President and Mrs. C. L. Beach, together with other prominent members of the faculty at the receiving line. During the reception concert will be given by the Peerless Orchestra of Willimantic, after which dancing will be in order for the remainder of the evening.

LARGE REGISTRATION EXPECTED TODAY

One hundred fifty in entering class Housing Problem Acute.—Enrollment of College Expected to Exceed Five Hundred.

One of the largest entering classes in the history of the institution will enroll in the various divisions of the college on Tuesday, September 18. There are at present more than 150 applications for registration in the secretary's office, which augurs well for a large Freshman class. Forty-five of the new students will take the Agricultural course; eighteen will be special students; and the Agricultural Science and Mechanical Engineering departments will attract thirty and twenty-two respectively.

It will be a big problem to find suitable quarters for the incoming students, since it is very probable that the men's dormitories will be insufficient to accommodate all those desiring rooms. The same conditions will no doubt exist at Holcomb Hall for there will be approximately thirty-five new co-eds, two enrolled in Science, the remainder in Home Economics, which is a slight increase over last year's entering class.

New Rules and Cut System During This Year

Cuts will be Penalized by Reduced Credits—Perfected Attendance and Good Marks to be Rewarded by Bonus.

New rules governing absences and the grading of college work go into effect with the opening of college today. In view of this a brief extract of the more important of these rules is given in order to familiarize the students with the new system.

From now on, no absences will be excused for any cause whatever. This marks a radical change from the policy followed in the past when absences due to sickness, trips of athletic teams or other similar reasons, were excused. Under the new system, proviso is made whereby a bonus of one-tenth the credit carried by each course is offered for perfect attendance. Thus any student who attends a three-credit course perfectly in the first semester, receives not three but three and one-tenth credits. For every absence, one tenth of a credit is deducted. One may therefore be absent three times from a three-hour course in a semester and still earn three credits. According to the report sent out from the secretary’s office, a student carrying a normal schedule will be able to take seventeen cuts without getting any less credit for his semester’s work.

A student who enters a course late will be penalized for all the classes he has missed, and the same holds true for students who change courses. Absences which prolong a Thanksgiving giving, Christmas, or Easter recess will carry a penalty of two-tenths of a credit for each class missed.

Excessive cutting will be penalized by deduction from the credit limit of credit, probation, or suspension.

Two cuts a semester in College Assembly will be allowed without penalty for college students, and one for students in the two-year classes, that is, on the honor roll who will be penalized only one-tenth of a credit.

Excessive cutting will be penalized by deduction from the credit limit of credit, probation, or suspension.

AG. CLUB PLANS FOR BIGGEST YEAR EVER

Membership Campaign to Start at Once

The Agricultural Club has already formulated plans to make the year 1923-24 a banner year in the history of the College. For the benefit of the enrolling class, last spring a movement was started to make this one of the leading activities on the Hill. Several joint meetings were held between heads of the Agricultural Departments and active "Ag" men. At these meetings it was concluded that the "Ag" Club is an essential and vital part of this College, and a program was formulated to make it such an activity. This year's features will include an entirely different and original fair, live social gatherings and meetings with well-known outside and local agricultural leaders. Previously the faculty were not members, but now President beach and nearly all of the members of the staff are members. They are waiting for the student body to do its part.

To do this all the real live "Ag" students on the Hill must get back of the "Club", into it, and push. To you especially, the members of the incoming class of 1927, the "Ag" Club is looking for active "booster's" of one of the best activities of the college. Freshmen should become members of the club at the start, as it is the activity that can most truly give you the training you are on the Hill for.

With the exception of athletics and publications it is the best means of showing the public what we are accomplishing here, and thus we can put our Alma Mater on the map.

DUNHAM POOL OPENED FOR FIRST TIME IN AUGUST

Spacious Tank Now Ready for Use—Football Men Enjoy Swimming After Practice.

The New Dunham Pool in Hawley Armory which was dedicated last commencement was opened for use during Farmers' Week early in August and has been used by the summer residents during the balance of the vacation.

Students returning to the Hill will have their first opportunity of clearing the inviting waters of the commodious pool which is now in full working order. The first group of men to show their skill as swimmers have been the Aggie football hopes, who find that a plunge after a hard practice does much to keep them in fighting form.

A regular schedule of the hours during which the pool will be open to the student body at large will be posted in the near future. Classes in physical education will also make use of the tank as swimming has been added to the course of instruction in that department.

COUNT RUMFORD
1753-1814
Born Benjamin Thompson in Massachusetts. Charged with being a Tory, went to England, and became Under-Secretary of the Colonies. Later, in Bavaria reorganized the military department and was made Count Rumford. Return to England and engaged in scientific research. Founded the Rumford professorship at Harvard.

He watched the pot as it boiled

Thousands of people had watched the boiling pot, but Count Rumford wondered why it boiled. He did more than wonder; by scientific research he found out for himself.

And Rumford laid the foundation of the greatest generalization the human mind has yet conceived—the law of the conservation of energy.

Scientists in the Research Laboratories of the General Electric Company are devoting their lives to pure research, carrying on the work of Rumford and other pioneers of modern science. By methodical investigation, the frontier of scientific knowledge is being pushed steadily forward.

TO THE CLASSES OF '24, '25 AND '26

It is a freshman rule that every member of the entering class shall subscribe to the Campus. This is an excellent regulation and insures the paper of at least one hundred and fifty subscriptions. However, many members of the upper classes find it much easier to read their room-mate's paper than to part with their own shekels and read their own. Why let some one else buy a paper "for the room" and thus deprive the Campus of its means of existence. With due regard for the delay of the past year in securing subscriptions, which discouraged many prospective buyers, there were still several who withheld their Iron boys when they could have been easily utilized by the paper.

This year the Board promises that each and every member of the student body will be approached by a representative of the Campus during the first week of college so have your two dollars on the fire.

Start the year right—and if this hasn't touched you, consider—what would the college be without a paper?

RULES OF NEW ENGLAND COLLEGE CONFERENCE

Connecticut a Charter Member. — First Year for Aggies Under the New Ruling.

With the opening of college this week, the code of the New England College Conference on Intergeneric Athletics, of which Connecticut is a charter member, becomes effective. The conference, which includes the state colleges of Maine, New Hampshire, Massachusetts, Rhode Island, and Connecticut, was formed for the primary purpose of bringing about closer cooperation between the various New England colleges in the maintenance of high standards of eligibility and in the administration of intercollegiate athletics. Some idea of how well the conference will accomplish its purpose may be obtained from the following rules of eligibility which are taken from the conference code.

Only bona fide students, regularly enrolled as a candidate for a bachelor's degree or its equivalent, may play on varsity teams.

Students who have played on a varsity team of another college and then transferred, must be in residence one year, including a full season of the sport in which he last participated, before he shall be allowed to play on a varsity team.

No man who has made a varsity letter in one institution and then transfers to another college shall be allowed to play.

No freshman shall be allowed to play on a varsity team.

No person shall be allowed to play who receives any gift, remuneration, or pay for his services on a college team.

No person shall be allowed to compete in varsity intercollegiate athletics for more than three years in the aggregate.

No graduate students shall be allowed to play.

No person shall be allowed to play under an assumed name.

No person delinquent in studies, as defined by the regulations of the college in which he is registered, shall be allowed to play.

No person shall be eligible to play who, during the college year, has engaged in any athletic contest not connected with his institution. Exceptions are made to this rule in the case of students playing summer baseball, provided they play on teams which are not under the control of the National Baseball Commission, and in the case of students who are members of alumni teams of the preparatory schools.

The above rules are in effect at present and here at Connecticut, the work of the teams under the new regime will be closely watched by all interested in the athletic welfare of the college. The concensus of opinion among followers of Aggie sports seems to be that the first year will find Connecticut teams under a handicap, due largely to the new freshman rule, but as pointed out by others, this disadvantage will be largely overcome when beginning this year, the freshmen will receive an intensive and thorough grounding in the fundamentals of the game which will make them valuable varsity material.

CONNIE SAYS

The best assortments of collegiate stationery, for men and women, that you ever laid your eyes on! Prices range from $0.75 to $2.50 a box. If you can look it over and not purchase—well the odds must be laid rather deep.

Why bring your blankets from home when you can purchase a pair of army blankets at the exceedingly low figure of four and one-half berries? Yes, you can buy one for two-fifty.

All college students need a fountain pen and if you have neglected to purchase yours, the Campus Store can furnish you with one which will fit your pocket and purse: Sizes for men and co-eds and the prices range from $2.50 to $7.00.

Give your room a treat and yourself something to look at when you gaze at the wall when wrapt in thought. That bare spot on your wall would look much better if covered with a Connecticut banner. We have them, all styles and sizes, $7.50—$7.50.

Connecticut stickers for your bag or suitcase—the latest out. Advertise the college and let people know that you are a collegiate even when you travel. Two bits for a whole dozen.—Adv.
LITTLE COUNTRY THEATRE
HAS MANY ENGAGEMENTS

State College Players Appear at Fall Fairs

The "Little Country Theatre Movement," started by Professor H. A. Seckerson this spring, has been very successful during the summer. A small group of students with Professor Seckerson made two tours in June presenting programs to five Pomona Granges. During Farmers' Week at Storrs the State College players gave three plays, "The Trysling Place" by Tarkington, "Sham" by Tompkins, and "How He Lied to Her Husband" by Shaw. The same week they went to Mansfield Center, and on August 23 they played before the New England Grange Lecturers' Conference at Amherst, Massachusetts. The time has been too short to fill all the engagements asked for. However, during the week preceding the opening of college the following program was carried out: Tuesday night at Andover, Wednesday at Storrs, Thursday at Coventry Grange Fair and Friday and Saturday at Wolcott Fair.

The troupe hopes to be able to continue its work throughout the year so that it will be in readiness next fall to fill its engagements and especially at the Eastern States Exposition at Springfield and at several local fairs.

ORGANIZATION OF CO-ED ATHLETICS FOR YEAR

Advanced Class in Physical Education for Women

Organization of co-ed athletics has been poorly managed in past years and plans for betterment made will be made for the coming year.

Although basketball is the only sport in which co-eds compete with other colleges, field hockey, indoor baseball, bowling and tennis are played extensively and interclass schedules have always been attempted. The difficulty in carrying them out has been the initiative has not been a sufficient number of girls. Also no one has been directly responsible for the teams, with the result, that once a season one team has been on a game when the other didn't know that one was supposed to be played. And sometimes one class with a good baseball team has wished to play baseball captain or manager, another which has not had even a chance to try to remedy this condition, a girls' athletic meeting will be held Thursday, September 25, in the Assembly Hall at four o'clock in the afternoon. Wednesday, September 26, and some sort of a system adopted. Mr. Goyers hopes to have golf clubs, baseball bats and balls, and tennis balls, which can be left in the dormitory for the use of the girls if there is someone who can oversee the use of them.

The swimming pool has been used all summer and will be opened for the use of the co-eds two afternoons and evenings a week, probably Tuesdays and Thursdays.

An advanced class in physical education for women will be given this year. It will deal somewhat with sports but chiefly with the development of leadership in games and drills.

WILLIMANTIC WOMEN'S CLUB ENTERTAINED

Wednesday afternoon the Storrs' Women's Club entertained the Willimantic Women's Club in the Armory at Storrs. About a hundred and fifty people were present. A delightful lunch was artistically served on tea tables. A program was given as follows:

Many Additions Made in Equipment.
—Two Hour Drill Period on Monday Morning—Twenty Juniors in Advanced Courses.

During the summer all the equipment of the local unit of the Reserve Officers' Training Corps has been overhauled and cleaned and a new store room in the basement of the Armory has been fitted up as a gun room. In addition a large supply of ammunition has been received which will allow actual firing of the 87 mm. machine gun, automatic rifle and 45 automatic. Sergeant Zimmerman has been in charge of cleaning and moving the equipment and reports that it is in the best possible condition and that the Connecticut battalion will be one of the best outfitted units in the corps area.

Captain C. R. Crim will be commandant for the year and will have as his assistants Lieutenant G. C. Pasmore, together with Sergeants Zimmerman and Garvey. Sergeant Garvey is a newcomer and will be in charge of supplies and assist in drill.

One of the most important changes for the year is the two hour drill period which will replace the former schedule of two one hour sessions. By means of the new system more work will be accomplished and it will also be a great convenience to students as it will necessitate donning the O. D. for only a single day in the week.

At the present time it is expected by those in charge that there will be twenty juniors in the advanced course which will be a considerable advance over previous years, as in 1922-23 there were only six and Connecticut had the smallest enrollment of any New England College at the summer camp.

Mr. G. S. Torrey, the college registrar, and his assistants are making adequate arrangements to handle 400 students on registration day. The new system of marking and the loss of credits through absences will have a tendency to prevent a number of those late arrivals which have been so common in past years. It is also expected that the increase in scholarship to students living outside of Connecticut will materially decrease their number, and so make it possible for the college to care for the ever increasing number of young people throughout the state who desire the kind of education that their state college affords.

Twenty-seven young men have already signed their desire to enroll in the Two Year Course in Agriculture, and no doubt many more applications will be in the secretary's office before classes begin in November. With a fair percentage of Senior Two Year men back and the usual number of special students it is expected that the total enrollment in the college for the school year of 1923-24 will far exceed 500, and an increase of 100 percent in the past five years, which is a fair indication of the growth of the college.
