State College Players Give First Long Play

Wilde's Farce Tonight

New Material Has Been Added to Repertoire—Players Have Humorous Experiences in Journeys Around State

This evening the State College Players will produce at the Armory what is considered the funniest farce ever written, "The Importance of Being Earnest," by Oscar Wilde.

"If you miss it," says Prof. Secorson, "you will lose the chance of a lifetime. It is worth the price of admission just to see how naturally and gracefully Maureen can fold his knees and propose to a girl, or to hear Parker, in the role of Algdy, expand the gentle art of Bunburying."

Go to Willamette

After a brief interruption of their activities for the purpose of preparing some new material, the State College Players resumed their journeying last week, and added a new chapter to the interesting history they have been making during the past six months. On Thursday, November 1, about four hundred Willamette High School students greeted a performance of "The Thysting Place" with storms of laughter and applause; and on Friday evening, November 2, the audience that gathered in the auditorium of the new Windham School was equally appreciative and enthusiastic. At the latter place, the two plays that constituted the program were followed by a dance in which the Players participated; then the ladies of Windham greeted the entire company in a classroom and served a delicious luncheon of coffee, chicken sandwiches, and cake.

Varied Experiences

Some day the complete history of the Players and their doings will be recorded for the delectation of those who are interested in them—and it is to be hoped that everyone is interested. Then it will be known how Lawson acquired a flowing mustache at Pachaug; how, at the same famous place, Lawson and Moore heroically saved the Congregational Church by extinguishing an incipient conflagration with a huge kettle of coffee; how several members of the troupe won their spurs as barkers at the Woellet Fair; how Littleworth became an auctioneer at Groton; how Miss Pierport, as Mrs. Briggs, amazed all her friends and relatives by her display of historic talent.

Next week is the Rhode Island Special. Get your tickets early and be at the mass meetings.

AG-Club to Hold Barnwarming Dance

Annual Fair Abandoned

Farmers Will Hold Big Social Event December 8—Harvest Queen to be Chosen—Fair Will Be Held in 1924

At a special meeting of the Ag Club held the first of the month it was decided to drop the Ag Club Fair for this year, as it was felt that the time was too limited for the production of a real exhibition. There were several sentiments however that this feature should not be left out peremptorily and a committee was appointed to look after next year's fair.

Several novel substitutions were suggested in the discussion that followed; that of a barn warming meeting with the most approval. The idea comes to us from the University of Missouri, where it is one of the largest and best social events of the year. As no barn is available it will probably be held in the Armory on December 8, the night scheduled for the Agricultural Fair Dance. Rural costumes, a Harvest Queen, and numerous stunts are among the schemes being worked out by the committee in charge.

“HOP” Arrangements Complete—November 23

Four Moonlighters on Dance Program—Norman Cloutier of California Ramblers Will Lead Orchestra

Arrangements for the Football Hop Friday, November 23, were practically completed by the committee, with arrangements for the orchestra to be led by Norman Cloutier, Hartford musician who traveled for some time with the famous California Ramblers, symphony and dance orchestra. The pianist, Ed Woods, also traveled with the California Ramblers.

The decorations in charge of Haig Djermianian will be practically the same as for the other formal dances with slight effects from the moon in the four moonlight dances.

Patrons of the dance are to be: Pres. and Mrs. C L. Beach, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Dole, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Geyer and Dr. and Mrs. E. W. Simmons.

Programs for the dance which may be reserved at the Bookstore will be limited in number.

Following a half hour concert, from eight-thirty until nine, Mr. Lawrence V. Castiglione will lead the grand march.

The order of dances is:

1. Tell Me a Story
2. Great White Way Blues

PI KAPPA DELTA TO INSTALL LOCAL CHAPTER

Annual Banquet After

Faculty Members and Freshman Debate Team Will Be Present—E. R. Denlinger, Mr. Charles D. Christoph, E. L. Collins, '23, Oscar D’Esopo, 24, William Huttun, 22, Lawrence A. Loeb, 26, and Samuel Wilkes on 36, together with Mr. Leon E. Hickman, the installing officer, will attend the football games on Dow Field in a body.

Each member will wear a red carnation in his buttonhole, as this is the official flower of the fraternity.

Installation at 6:15

Following the games a brief recess will be declared, after which the candidates, together with four members of the faculty who have been invited to witness the ceremony, will be initiated and installed at 6:15 in the Faculty Club room.

Directly after the ceremony, the group, augmented by Malcolm L. Stomb, E. C. Minta, and Louis Belden, speaking members of the freshman debating team, will go to "Mary Anna" in Willamette, where the Pledge of the local chapter will be held.

In inviting the members of the freshman debating team to be present, at its first banquet, the fraternity is establishing a precedent which it intends to follow out in future years. It is thought that this will interest the prospective members of the freshman class as regards debating in the fraternity, and in debate.

After the banquet, the following speeches will be made:

"Greeting": E. L. Collins, '23, President, Conn. Alpha.

"Toastmaster": Dr. Henry K. Denlinger.

"What Pi Kappa Delta Has Meant to Me": Leon E. Hickman.

"What Pi Kappa Delta Has Meant to Me": Professor E. I. Collins.

1924 Nutmeg Board Has Annual Started

Class Pictures Taken

Printing Contracts Ready for Signatures—New Features to be Incorporated in Book.

According to C. J. Diodani, editor-at-large, who has finished all necessary material for this year's Nutmeg, the board under way. Business manager T. J. Kennedy states that the subscriptions and advertisements are coming in good this far.

Dedicated to "Prexy"

This year the book is to be dedicated to President Charles L. Beach, who, the class feels, is one of the best friends that the student body of this college ever had, and who has worked unceasingly for the growth of the institution.

As to the actual work on the book, the 'printing' contracts are ready to be signed; an early signature insuring an early start on the work. As in about a week the faculty section will be finished and placed in the hands of the printer. Several new and distinctive features will be inaugurated in this year's Nutmeg in an endeavor to put it ahead of previous editions.

Radio Station Formally Opened Next Week

Varied Types of Material to be Broadcasted Three Evenings Weekly.

Formal opening of station WABL, the college radio broadcasting station, will take place at 8 p.m., Friday evening, November 16, according to the announcements of the committee on programs.

Eight types of material will be used for the programs at the start. These include weather, music, the egg laying contest, one-minute talks descriptive of the college and its work, timely information from the Extension Service, sports, and emergency material. The committee is at present endeavoring to arrange for the broadcasting of the state market reports.

Stemmons Radio Editor

Mr. Walter Stemmons, agricultural editor of the College, has been appointed Radio Editor, and all material to be broadcasted must first be approved by him.

For the present programs will be broadcasted three times each week, on Monday, Wednesday and Friday evenings, the programs beginning at 8 p.m. Weather reports, and, if possible, market reports will be broadcasted on each of these evenings, while on Friday evening a strong general program will be added.
AGGIES TRIUMPH IN SECOND HOME GAME AND SMOOTHER C. C. N. Y. 1-9-0

SWIM LEADS ATTACK WITH BRILLIANT RUNNING

Visitors Have Little Offensive Power.—Fumbles and Penalties Prevented a Much Larger Score.—Aggie Machine Shows Offensive Power.

Coach Dole's Aggie gridsters succeeded in rolling up only nineteen points against the weaker City College eleven last Saturday on Gardner field before a large crowd of visiting alumni. The metropolitan eleven was helpless before the Aggie defense and was not dangerous at any time during the game. Three times in the first half and twice in the final period Connecticut advanced the ball far into New York territory but failed on the final dash.

Offense Gets Going

The long awaited Aggie offense broke out in the form of a spectacular demonstration of the driving power of the Blue and White backfield. Swem was the individual star of the game. Time after time, he reeled off over thirty yards and was responsible for the advances to the touchdowns. On the first play after the kickoff, Connecticut fumbled. City College recovered the ball, but kicked after three unsuccessful attempts on the Aggie stonewall.

Donahue Scores

The first quarter ended with no score but characterized by brilliant playing by the Nutmeg team. Connecticut started a battering offense in the second quarter which resulted in the first touchdown. In rapid succession the Aggie backs pierced the New York line for long gains. Donahue finally took the ball over, and Moreland failed to make the kick. For the rest of the second half, Swem and Donahue raced around end for long gains, but did not add another score.

At the beginning of the second half, Swem fumbled the kick-off which was recovered by the Aggies. (Cont. on page 7 col. 2)

SIDE LINES

Although the Rhode Island game at Kingston next week looms so large on the Connecticut football horizon as to obscure everything else, nevertheless none of should forget that one of the fastest college eleven's going comes to Storrs tomorrow for the last home game.

Saint Stephen's always turns out a fast team which plays the open game. This year even more than last year they have distinguished themselves by the success they have shown with the aerial attack. When on the defensive the Aggies will have to be alert every minute for the long overhead heaves of Deforia, a full-blooded Indian, who is the Saint's best bet as a passer.

We know that schedule-makers face serious problems, but we are extremely sorry that St. Stephen's, a team which is playing here for the fourth successive year, and which has improved each year, will not, according to rumor, be on the Aggie schedule next fall.

If there is one game on the schedule which is a good one to watch, it is the game with the Saints. They always play clean and hard, and get off some spectacular work. And, their record of recent years is all the more remarkable when we remember that they have only a little more than 100 students in the college.

The St. Stephen's-Connecticut games have resulted as follows:
1920 Conn. 63; St. Stephen's 0
1921 Conn. 21; St. Stephen's 0
1922 Conn. 12; St. Stephen's 12
Let's win again this year.

According to the way the teams from which players are selected for the Hartford "Courant"'s All-Connecticut eleven are going this year (Williams, Springfield, Trumbull, Wesleyan), several Aggies and Connecticut should be on the mythical eleven when (Cont. on page 7 col. 1)

INTERCLASS RUNNERS TO COMPETE NOV. 21

ANNUAL CROSS COUNTRY

Each Class and School Eligible.—Keen Competition Last Year.

The annual interclass cross country run is set for Wednesday afternoon, November 21, at four o'clock sharp, to start in front of the Armory.

The meet is open to all classes in the college and the School of Agriculture, the latter being considered as one class. Every year recently the classes have put out good teams making keen competition in the run; in fact, last year the first four men to finish the run represented each class, and all were within twenty-five feet at the finish.

Last year, this college put out a cross-country team that made a creditable showing at Rhode Island. This material is if it is possible to put out this season, owning to the incentive of a team from the college, but if good prospects show up in the interclass run, a team will be assured for next year.

First Five Count

For this event the first five men from each class shall constitute the team, though any number of men may run. The more who enter, the better the run.

Although the matter of interclass cross country awards is up to each class, it is the opinion of the track manager that at least the first seven men to finish should get medallions, regardless of which class wins the meet.

UNDEFEATED FRESHMAN PLAY LAST GAME

Team in Fine Shape for Contest.—Andrew Will Probably Start, Tho Bothered by Injured Ankle.

Connecticut's freshman team, which has yet to feel the sting of defeat, meets the strong team from the School of Agriculture at Mass. Aggie on Gardner Dow field this afternoon.

So far the yearlings have played five games, of which they have won three and tied two. Their great defensive power is shown by the fact that they have only been scored on once.

If the fresh can come through today, they will have made a strong showing as the first freshman team ever to represent Connecticut.

The first five positions are unsettled. There is a possibility that Vickers, who played well when he got into the line (Cont. on page 6 col. 4)

AGGIE FRESHMEN WIN BIG GAME 3-0

DEFEAT RHODY FROSH

"Sam" Andrew, Though Hurt, Boots Field Goal in Fourth Quarter Which Wins Game.—Work of "Rosey" Ryan Stands Out in the Line.

Winning their big game from the Rhode Island freshmen 3-0 on Dew Field last Saturday, the Connecticut men continued their undefeated record. This was the first game between freshman teams of the two colleges, whose varsity teams have called their annual football contest the big game for 26 years.

Rhody Outplayed

The game was a desperate battle throughout, with the last played Rhode Island frosh fighting from the first sound of the whistle.

Connecticut clearly had the edge on the Kingston team, whose line did not pierce the powerful Aggie line. On the other hand, Connecticut sent its catalyst, Reeves, together with the other backs, through the Rhody forwards for good gains.

Rhode Island kicked off, and Schofield immediately made it first down for Connecticut with a 17 yard dash. Later in the quarter Rhody intercepted two Conn. passes, but failed to gain on them.

Lundmark, the Kingston quarterback, scooted around Glazier for 20 yards, which was the best run shown by a Rhody back during the game. The engineers failed to follow up this bid for a score, however, and lost the ball on downs. The Aggies started a steady drive down the field with a series of line backs by Reeves and Palmer, only to have the whistle blow before they reached the goal.

A good deal of punting was resorted to by both teams in the third quarter. Ryan was playing a great game at tackle. Several times he broke thru and nipped a Rhody back before he reached the line.

AERIAL ATTACK EXPECTED

Aaggies Prepared to Squelch Forward Passes of Opponents—Practically Same Team That Beat C. C. N. Y. to Play.

After having sent the C. C. N. Y. eleven down to a 19 to 0 defeat, Coach Dolle's gridironists will play their seventh game of the season Saturday when they take on the scrappy eleven from St. Stephen's. This game should be one of the best of the season as St. Stephen's is reported to have a fast team, capable of pulling off many spectacular plays. Their strongest attack is the forward passing game which they seem to have down to perfection. In a recent game with Worchester Tech, they gained about 300 yards with their aerial attack.

Defense for Pass
Coach Dole has been working hard this week with his men, a great deal of emphasis being put on the defensive forward passing game. The Aggie team will go on to Dow field ready to break up the forwards that the fighting ninth men are sure to hurl.

Practically the same men who started the game last Saturday will start with the whistle against the "Saints". Brink and Dunn will be the wing men and M. Eddy and Nanfield will be the tackles. E. Eddy and McAllister will hold down the guard positions while Captain O'Neill will be in the center of the line. The backfield will be the same as last week with Donaldse at full back, Moreland at quarterback and Swen and Purple as halfbacks.

Numbers of Men
For the benefit of the alumni and others who do not know all of the men on the team, the name and number of each man likely to get in the game Saturday follows: Captain O'Neill, 1; M. Eddy 5; E. Eddy 4; Longo 6; Brink 7; Nanfield 8; McAllister 9; Baker 10; Baylock 36; Purple 31; Brink 54; Dunn 53; Swen 40; Donaldse, 41; Moreland 49; White 34; and Thomson 11.

Aggies would fall short of the goal line and result in another scoreless tie, the break came. Near the Kingston goal, Vickers, a substitute end, blocked a punt, and Lorentzen recovered the ball. Although his injured ankle had been hurt earlier in the game, and he had an infected foot, "Sam" Anderson sent a perfect drop-kick over the bar from the 23 yard line, which proved to be the winning score for Connecticut.

Connecticut attempted five passes of which two were intercepted, two incomplete, and one was successful. Rhody attempted three; one being intercepted, one incomplete, and one completed.

WHERE IS THE AGGIE SPIRIT?

The year on this hill started off with a rush and everything seemed to indicate that it was to be the biggest year in the history of the college from the activity standpoint. The question of the present time seems to be where has the college got that spirit which is needed for its future. There is no doubt that it has departed and there is nothing to be gained in evading the issue.

Just for example, about one-third of the college turned out for a mass meeting and that meeting was for the purpose of suggesting forming an Aggie football squad. Again the Campus is in a bad situation, chiefly from the want of new material and lack of interest from the part of the student body at large.

This expresses the situation in a nutshell and the only thing for the student body to do at the present time is to locate the cause and to decide upon an antidote. It is a situation which faces every Connecticut man, and each and every one should face the issue and decide whether it is to be done to revive the old pep and enthusiasm, and do it quickly so that the entire student body will invade Rhode Island with that old Aggie spirit which has never known a superior.

One of the means of obtaining enthusiasm in this is through a mass meeting preceding the game in question. This year these meetings have been poorly attended and the lack of interest has been noticeable. The football team is one of the best that has ever represented Connecticut and is entitled to the very best support that the student body can give.

Notwithstanding this half of the student body does not attend these meetings. In the future attendance will be taken and the names of those who neglect to appear will be on the bulletin board. Just what is the reason for the lack of interest does not seem to be apparent. It certainly is not the showing of the teams. Thus it falls either on the student body or the cheer leaders. If these individuals are not capable of arousing pep they should be replaced by others who are more competent.

ALL ABOARD FOR KINGSTON

During the past week tentative plans for a special train to carry the Aggie rooters to Kingston have become a reality and all that is necessary to make the trip a success is the cooperation of the student body. Three hundred tickets must be sold in one week in order to insure the special mode of transportation.

Therefore, it is essential that all desiring to go should purchase their ticket from a member of the committee or the earliest possible time. It will save the college a great deal of money once. By so doing you will help to make the trip a success and at the same time be those in charge more unnecessary bother by not having to deal with the labor of the work to-do at the last minute.

In the thing up-brown and have the "Khyd" men that the Aggies support their team and are going to invade their campus, are hundred percent strong.

COL. THOMAS J. DIXON SPEAKS AT ASSEMBLY

Col. Thomas J. Dixon of the War Department at Washington addressed the college assembly at President's Hour last Wednesday. Col. Dixon is a nationally known speaker, who has addressed some of the largest college assemblies in the country.

Colonel Dixon's subject was "Building the Greater America," and in his talk he very artistically described a picture which is dedicated to those who fell in the world war, and this picture today hangs in the Pantheon in Paris. The mentioned picture represents every great battle, every distinguished person, and every noteworthy fact that has occurred during the war, either in words or in personages. Upon introducing America into his talk he stated that Germany won on the shores of the rice-growing region in America by sinking one of the first four transports namely the "Saratoga". However, this did not discourage the Americans in the least for troops were being landed on foreign shores every day.

"MONTE CRISTO" SCREEN SHOW FOR WEEK END

An all star cast featuring John Gilbert will be found in "Monte Cristo," the movie to be shown in Hoyt Auditorium Saturday evening. Human interest, tragedy, suspense, marvelous photographic effects and all the best features of the big screen can be found into this screen version of one of the most gripping melodramas of all time.

PLANS COMPLETE FOR GO-TO-CHURCH SUNDAY

ALL GROUPS NOTIFIED

The Church on the Campus is wide open and ready to receive what is expected to be the biggest crowd it has ever held on Sunday, November 11. Everyone of the college has been told for the purpose of informing them that they were to be carried by the Aggie rooters to Kingston for the big game of the year and enthusiasm ran high in that practically everyone present agreed to go by train.

Tickets Must Be Sold.

Since then the members of the committee have canvassed the Hill with the result that only about one hundred tickets have been sold. While there is no doubt that future will produce the required collateral before the day of the game, there has been nothing like the response which was indicated a week ago. In order to secure the train it is necessary that: the required number of tickets be sold several days in advance of the day of the game and unless there is a decided spurt this number will not be realized.

"The Aggie Special"

A train has been proved to be the only feasible way of making the trip into a body and the committee has done all in its power to make the best rates possible and the most attractive schedule. It remains for those who pledged themselves to support this project to keep their part of the agreement and come through with the money immediately.

As usual there has been a number of reports received from those who have decided that they can get to the game in a better and cheaper way than by the train. The committee would appreciate it in order that they may bring them to the attention of the student body and thus make public the names of those who are not fulfilling their obligations and behind the college undertaking and make the affair a success.

_ Should Go on Special Train.

Late Thursday night T. C. Cronin, chairman of the transportation committee, stated to a Campus reporter that returns are coming in very slowly. In addition to this he stated, "We have done all in our power to make the trip a success and it now remains for the student body to do its share. Get away from the idea that you are doing any one a personal favor by going on the train. If you haven't enough college to support your team and back the college, you would be much better off on the Hill than at the game."

The meeting will be held Monday night when the final number of those who have purchased tickets will be announced. The success of the trip needs swift action on the part of the those who are satisfied get behind the student body at the University of Georgia.

Saturday, November 3
A hectic day, though quietly begun from a strange bed and quietly ended in another strange bed. The morning is not account, since I was not awake until noon, even though I went to two classes and wrote an Economics report. There being two home football games in the P.M., did not wish to fortify myself for the task of reporting these contests. Accordingly, at 12:40, accompanied by sundry other journalistic brethren, proceeded to Dow Field. A perfect football day, both in scores and weather. After the games got cross-country training has hauled all over the Hill for a typewriter to write the varsity game and get it on to the 5:00 bus. The idea of the race being to let the citizens read an account in the Sunday newspapers. Sometimes newsworthy that Dan Noble's broadcasting station would put the newspapers out of business. After supping, to Williamson in search of excitement, and let the natives know the scores of the games. Succeeded well in both purposes. To bed early Sunday morning as aforementioned. The week is dead, and methinks 'tis well. It is quite evident that our weeks are not for the week which is a sad pun, but all I can offer at present.

THE COLLEGE PRINTER

FORMER AGGIE MEN ON OTHER FOOTBALL FIELDS
Connecticut Stars Make Good at Other Colleges
Martin J. Ryan, ex-‘25, has been elected captain of the freshman team at Georgetown and has been playing a brilliant game all season.

“Mo” Daly, ‘23, captain of the Connecticut pigskin chasers last year, has won a berth on the Army eleven at West Point and played fullback for practically the entire game last Saturday.

“Beano” Graf, ‘22, former Aggie center is again holding down a guard position at Springfield College for the second year.

With him on the Springfield team is “Bob” Berry, ex-‘25 star Connecticut quarter last year, who is Springfield’s best bet behind the line, and “Freddy” Stull, ex-‘22 Aggie fullback in 1921, who is also on the varsity squad.

PROLUMINOS AGGIE LEAVES HIGH PUBLIC OFFICE
Irving W. Patterson, ’05, Resigns as Chief of R. I. Highway Department, Irving W. Patterson, ’05, Chief Engineer of the Rhode Island State Board of Public Roads, has resigned from that office, his resignation becoming effective next March.

During his ten years in office Mr. Patterson had given Rhode Island one of the best highway systems of the country. His ability has earned for him a reputation throughout the country as an authority on road construction. Recent issues of Providence newspapers have contained many articles in appreciation of Mr. Patterson’s work as chief of highways.

Rhody game, may get the call at one of the wings. Other available ends are Bunn, Glazier and Flaxman. Tackles will be well covered by Capt. Zollin and Ryan, two of the best men in the line. Five guards are ready to start: Lowntown, Dawson, Reynolds, O’Connor and Clark. The first two will probably be the ones chosen. “Dada” Daly will play center. In the backfield only one change is contemplated by Coach “Lou” Alexander. Chapman, who has been hovering on the sidelines all fall, will play at least part of the game in place of Palmer. Schofield at quarter, Andrew at right half, and Reeves at fullback are counted on to play in the final game. In case the Aggies win this game, there is a possibility that they will journey to Medford, Mass., to play the Tufts freshmen in a post-season game.

Mr. Gane, the gentleman who prints our paper, is anxious to get tickets to the Yale-Princeton game. Anyone who can accommodate him will be a lifelong friend of Mr. Gane and the Campus board. Write to him directly, at Willimantic.

CO-EDS HOLD FIRST COURT
PRACTICE OF YEAR
Forty Candidates Report and Are Given Instruction in Rudiments of the Game.—Several Veterans Back. Forty candidates reported for the first girls’ basketball practice of the year, held in Hasley Armory, Tuesday night. The first session was occupied in simple passing and other rudimentary subjects. Coach R. T. Guyer had charge of the work and was assisted by Coach S. A. Dole and Freshman Coach L. A. Alexander.

There seems to be an abundance of material in the freshman class and the return of last year’s team makes the outlook bright for a successful season. Elizabeth Hamilton, ‘24, is manager for the coming season and has an attractive schedule arranged which will be published in a future issue of the Campus.

WOMEN’S CLUB BAZAAR COMING NEXT WEEK
There will be held in the Armory on Thursday, November 15, a very attractively arranged bazaar, given under the direction of the Woman’s Circle of Storrs.

Mrs. R. E. Dodge, who is chairman of the committee in charge of the sale, has stated that articles which will appeal to every taste of everyone will be on display.

Homemade candy, cakes, pies and doughnuts (just like mother used to make) will, of course, be popular with we Epicureans.

Among the hand embroidered household linens one is sure to find something that will make a worthy and useful Christmas gift for Mother.

There will be a table of imported Japanese Arts and Crafts. For those who are fond of the unexpected a “parcel post” booth has been planned; and there will be an attractive showing of children’s toys and novelties.

D’ESPO’S STARS IN ONE ACT SKIT
“Love Amork the Lions” is the title of the one act play now being rehearsed by some of the State College Players. It is not, however, an animal epic, nor was it written by Ernest Thompson Seeton nor the late Col. Roosevelt. It is a very humorous exhibition of the tantrums of two very temperamental operatic stars. Oscar D’Esopo, ’25, plays the leading male part as Riccario Bommartto, an Italian tenor, with Miss Sybil Wilson, ’27, as Honore Lazensky-Bommarito, wife of Riccaro, and Miss Cora Lalvalle, ’25, as Clara, maid for Honore.

Course That Began November 7 Continues Until April 5.

Starting with a registration of fifty-four men, the School of Agriculture opened its course November 7 to continue until April 5. Due to lack of space in this issue, the names of those enrolled will be published in a later issue.

VARSIY CLUB DANCE HELD LAST SATURDAY

Small Crowd Attends Fall Dance—About $14 Cleared.

Hawley Armory was the scene of a dance given by the Varsity Club last Saturday night after the football victory in the afternoon over City College of New York. There were sixty couples present, including a few alumni.

Valdemar Johnson, chairman of the dance committee, who was largely responsible for the dance, stated that about $14 was realized for the benefit of the Varsity Club.

Music by "Honey Boys"

The "Honey Boys" orchestra of New Haven, led by Milton Katz, furnished the music and although they were an hour late in arriving, the program of fourteen dances was carried out and the couples danced until midnight.

The patrons and patronsesses for the dance were: Coach and Mrs. Summer A. Delo and Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Gruyer.

The committee in charge was V. A. Johnson, chairman, W. S. Moreland, and Seymour Squires.
